XXIII. 1657 Edward Wright Of York County, His Wife Joane (Evans) Wright, And His Descendants

This work will discuss the documentation that has been found regarding 1657 Edward Wright of York County, his wife Joane (Evans) Wright, and his descendants.

The parents of 1657 Edward Wright of York County have not as yet been identified.

Cavaliers And Pioneers, Volume 1, page 225, by Nell Marion Nugent, listed the following Patent to Thomas Pettus dated January 1, 1643/44, at P.D. 2/366, granted for transporting Edward Wright to Virginia:

"Capt. Thomas Pettus, 450 acs., 1 Jan. 1643, p. 366. Due by order of court & for trans. Of 10 pers: John Fickling, Edwd. Wright, Tho. Sidley, Peter Talbott, Tho. Pettus, Junr., Geo. Codd, Tobias Cook, John Vaine, Cath. Barker. Incomplete."

This record indicates that Edward Wright had emigrated to Virginia before January 1, 1643/4.

In his email dated March 14, 2017, Frank White stated that the family of Thomas Pettus was prominent in and around Norwich, England, and the names listed in his Patent could be traced with some certainty to locations very near or in Norwich. The result is that Edward Wright's origins may be found in or around Norwich, England.

Virginia Colonial Abstracts, Volume III, page 55, by Beverly Fleet, stated that at a court held for York County on July 25, 1646, Edward Wright bound his crop and cattle as security to Thomas Deacon for a maid servant:

"p. 165. Edward Wright binds his crop and cattle as security to Tho Deacon. He having agreed on 1st June 1646 for a maid servant to paid 25 Dec next. Signed Edw X Wright. Wm Hockaday, John X Hamor."

Virginia Colonial Abstracts, Volume III, page 63, by Beverly Fleet, stated that at a court held for York County on November 5, 1646, Thomas Deacon accused Edward Wright of lying with his servant Joane Evans:

"p. 188. That Thomas Deacon did say this day in Court that Edward Wright "did ly with Joane Evans his servant mayde". Deacon to make proof at next Court or stand censure."

As will be set forth below, Edward Wright married a Jone or Joane (____) Wright and this record indicates that the maid servant Joane Evans was the same person as Joane (Evans) Wright.

Virginia Colonial Abstracts, Volume III, page 72, by Beverly Fleet, stated that at a court held for York County on September 18, 1647, Edward Wright was ordered to pay a debt:

“p. 264. Edward Wright ordered to pay a debt of 330 lb tobo to Peeter Rigby.”

Virginia Colonial Abstracts, Volume III, page 91, by Beverly Fleet, stated that at a court held for York County on March 20, 1646/47, the court stated that Edward Wright had previously sold to Thomas Deacon a heifer:

“p. 349. Bill of Sale. 20 March 1746/47. Wm Hockaday sells Theophilus Stone a heifer. Formerly belonging to Edward Wright and from Wright sold to Tho Deacon dec'd., and from admrx of said Deacon to Hockaday. Signed Will Hockaday. Wit: Edw: X Wright, John X Clarkson.”

Cavaliers And Pioneers, Volume 1, page 189, by Nell Marion Nugent, listed the following Patent dated January 29, 1649/50, at P.D. 2/203, to William Nesum, Thomas Sax, Miles Battersby, and John Payne for the transportation of Edward Wright to Virginia:

“Same. [William Nesum, Tho. Sax, Miles Battersby & John Pyne] 550 acs. in same county [Northumberland Co.] & same date. [29 Jan. 1649] On N. Side the Rappa. Riv., adj. To the Island Neck, running N. N. W. To Marsh Poynt Cr., Page 203. Trans. Of 11 pers: Richd. Pagget, Richd. Jones, Ja. Richardson, Wm. Horlson, Hugh Griffin, Tho. Griffin, Tho. Grimsditch, Edward Wright, John Gibbs, Richd. Ownes, Robert Poole.”

This record may indicate that another Edward Wright had emigrated to Virginia, but more probably indicates that the transportation of the same Edward Wright was being counted twice for purposes of obtaining an additional grant of land.

On July 3, 1652, at Virginia P.D. 3/93, Edward Wright patented 50 acres of land in York County called the Old Ridge for transporting his wife Jone to Virginia:

"To all &c whereas &c Now Know yee that I the Said Richard Bennett Esqr. &c give and grant unto Edward Wright fifty Acres of Wood Land Scituate lying and being in the County of yorke, and adjoyneing to the Southermost bounds of that Land which was first taken by Mr Richard Lee Sener. & Collo. and is Comonly Called Old Ridge And(?) Said Land begineth where the aforesaid Endeth and Extendeth it Selfe into the woodds Equall Unto ____ above said fifty poles Unto a red oake thence South South East one hundred and Sixty poles for breadth unto a Marked red oake afterward East North East fifty poles Unto a red oake Standing Near a white Marsh by which it runeth pararell Unto the place where it began the Said Land being due Unto the Said Ed wright by and for the transportation of one persones to have and to hold &c yeilding &c which payment is to be made Seven yeares after the first grant &c provided &c Dated the 3d day of July 1652

Jone the wife of the Said Edward Wright"

This record indicates that Edward Wright had married Jone _____ by July 3, 1652, and as set forth above, this was probably Joan Evans.

Cavaliers And Pioneers, Volume 1, page 258, by Nell Marion Nugent, listed the same Patent dated July 3, 1652, at P.D. 3/93:

"Edward Wright, 50 acs. Yorke Co., 3 July 1652, p. 93. Adj. to Southermost bounds of land first taken up by Mr. Richard Lee, Secre & Coll., commonly called the Ridge. Trans. of 1 pers: Jone the wife of the sd. Edward Wright."

York County, Virginia, Records 1659-1662, by Benjamin B. Weisiger III, stated that on April 14, 1653, at York County, Virginia, O.B. 3/146, Richard Bennett sold to Thomas Willis 170 acres of land known as York Ridge, York County, that the land was on Dead Mans Brook and adjacent to Edward Wright, and that Thomas Willis sold the land to John Clarke who sold the land to William Garvin who in turn sold the land to Edmund Chisman:

"I Richard Bennett, Esq., grant to Thomas Willis 170 acres land commonly called York Ridge, in York Co., bounded on east by Thomas Jackson, dec'd, Dead Mans Brook, William Clarke, dec'd, on west, and on northeast by Edward Wright, for transport of 4 persons.

Cavaliers And Pioneers at Volume 1, page 252, by Nell Marion Nugent, listed the following Patent dated November 16, 1653, at P.D. 3/63:

"Nicholas Meriwether, 600 acs. Northumberland Co., 16 Nov. 1653, p. 63. At Wicocomico Riv., bounded N. E. by N. Upon the head of Dennis Cr. opposite to land of Mr. Fletcher & Mr. Richard Budd, and S. E. by E. upon land of John Howell (or Howett - altered); Trans. of 12 pers: Henry Cockett, Thomas Hurt, William Ross, Joane Wright, Peter White, Edward Whiteing, John How, Edmond Williams, William Clerke, Jeffery Moore, Charles Harward, Richard Perrin, James Bowles, Henry Walke."

This record indicates either that a Joane with a maiden name of Wright had emigrated to Virginia or more probably that the transportation of Joane (Evans) Wright was being counted twice for purposes of obtaining an additional grant of land.

Cavaliers And Pioneers, Volume 1, page 316, by Nell Marion Nugent, listed the following Patent dated June 1, 1654, at P.D. 3/376:

"Nicholas Merywether, 3,000 acs. Westmoreland Co., 1 June 1654, p. 376. Upon W. branch of Petomeck Riv., N. Wly. upon the hills by the falls & S. E. upon land of Col. Burbage. Trans. of 60 pers: Elizabeth Hart, James Hare, Thomas Green, Robert Stone, Alexander Hind, Thomas Webb, Richard Wells, David Jones, James Johnson, Grace Thomas, Henry Cocket, William Rose, Thomas Hart, Joane Wright, Peter White, Edward Whiting, John How, Edmond Williams, William Clerke, Jeffry Moore, Charles Heiward, Richard Perren, James Bowles, Henry Walker, James Cocket, Arthur Cocket, Grace Noble, Ellynor Mathews, Thomas Hupp, Agnis Melvice, Edward Saunderson, gent., Mountecue his brother."

The duplication of names in this patent and P.D. 3/63 indicates that the transportation of the same persons were being counted twice for purposes of obtaining land and not that another Joane Wright had emigrated to Virginia.

Virginia Colonial Abstracts, Volume III, page 123, by Beverly Fleet, stated that at a court held for York County on June 25, 1655, the will of William Hawkins left a heifer to John Wright, the son of Edward Wright:

"No. 1. p. 254. Will of Wm Hawkins of the parish and County of York. Very sick and weak. Dated 24 March 1654/55. Rec. 25 June 1655. Right much religious preamble. To be buried at descretion of wife Sarah Hawkins. Whole estate to her. After her decease all to "my sonn in law Argoll Blackstone". After wife's death Argoll Blackstone to give the Churchwardens of York parish 1500 lb of tobo for "a Silver Flaggon bought with the produce". "which Flaggon to be and remain to and for the use of the inhabitants of York Parrish in the Church belonging thereto att Sacrament and other necessarie times and occasions". To John Wright son of Edward Wright a heifer. Signed The mark of William WH Hawkins. Wit: John X Humphries, Jer. Hope."

This record indicates that Edward Wright and Joane (Evans) Wright had a son John Wright born before March 24, 1654/55.

Cavaliers And Pioneers, at Volume 1, page 352, by Nell Marion Nugent, listed the following Patent dated July 15, 1657, at P.D. 4/118:

"Thomas Rowe, 500 acs. upon Petomeck in the freshes, Sly. upon land of Walter Dun. 15 July 1657, p. 118, (175). Trans. of 10 pers: Hen. Wright, Wm. Rose, Tho. Hart, Joane Wright, Peeter White, Edward Whitinge, John How, Edmond Williams, Wm. Clerke, Jeffery Moore."

The duplication of names in this patent and P.D. 3/63 and P.D. 3/376 again indicates that the transportation of the same persons were being counted twice, in this case thrice, for purposes of obtaining land and not that another Joane Wright had emigrated to Virginia.

York County, Virginia, Records 1659-1662 by Benjamin B. Weisiger III, stated that on July 3, 1652, at York County, Virginia, O.B. 3/117, Edward Wright was granted 50 acres of land in York County for transporting one person to the colony, that on November 29, 1657, Edward Wright assigned that patent right to Gozen Deloigne, and that on April 24, 1661, Joane Wright, relict of Edward Wright, deceased, acknowledged the assignment:

"I, Richard Bennett, Esq., Governor, etc., grant to Edward Wright, 50 acres of woodland in York County, adjoining southernmost bundle of land taken up by Mr. Richard Lee, Secr. Col., and is commonly called "The Ridge" Land is due to Wright for transporting one person into the colony.

Edward (EW) Wright

Acknowledged in court by Joane Wright, relict of Edward Wright, dec'd. 24 April 1661"

This record indicates that Edward Wright was married to Joane (____) Wright and had died after November 29, 1657, and before April 24, 1661.

Virginia Colonial Abstracts, Series 2, Vol. 5, Wills, Deeds, Orders of York County, Virginia 1657-1659, by Lindsay O. Duvall, stated that on December 21, 1657, at York County, Virginia, O.B. 3/8, the court appointed Jane Mode as administrator of the estate of her husband Giles Mode:

"Com. of Adm. is granted to Jane Mode on the Est. of her dec'd husband Mr. Giles Mode. Bond with security is ordered."

As will be set forth below, this order has significance in determining the approximate date of death of Edward Wright.

Virginia Colonial Abstracts, Series 2, Vol. 5, Wills, Deeds, Orders of York County, Virginia 1657-1659, by Lindsay O. Duvall, stated that on October 25, 1658, at York County, Virginia, O.B. 3/36A, the court ordered Edward Wright to pay 483 pounds of tobacco to Lawrence Hulett:

"Edward Wright is ordered to pay Mr. Lawrence Hulett 483 lbs. tob. & ca:"

The form of the order indicates that Edward Wright was still living on October 25, 1658, but may have been simply the completion of a suit started prior to Edward Wright's death.

Virginia Colonial Abstracts, Series 2, Vol. 5, Wills, Deeds, Orders of York County, Virginia 1657-1659, by Lindsay O. Duvall, stated that on November 17, 1658, at York County, Virginia, O.B. 3/40A, the court found that Gillis Mode had been appointed to administer the estate of Edward Wright, that Gillis Mode had died, that Francis Haddon had married the widow of Gillis Mode, and that Francis Haddon had filed his accounting for the estate of Edward Wright:

"Whereas Mr. Francis Haddon, who married the Relict of Dr. Gillis Mode dec'd., this day presented to the Court an a/c. of the Est. of Edward Wright dec'd., which sd. Mode formerly Adm'd. It is ordered to the next Court that Robert Kent may appear thereunto & make what Exceptions thereunto he can."

In conjunction with the order dated December 21, 1657, appointing Jane Mode as administrator of the estate of Giles Mode, this last order indicates that Edward Wright had died before December 21, 1657.

Virginia Colonial Abstracts, Series 2, Vol. 5, Wills, Deeds, Orders of York County, Virginia 1657-1659, by Lindsay O. Duvall, stated that on November 21, 1658, at York County, Virginia, O.B. 3/41A, Edward Wright was listed as indebted to Lawrence Hulett in the sum of 483 pounds, reflecting the court order for payment set forth above.

Virginia Colonial Abstracts, Series 2, Vol. 5, Wills, Deeds, Orders of York County, Virginia 1657-1659, by Lindsay O. Duvall, stated that on February 24, 1658, at York County, Virginia, O.B. 3/47, the court appointed Francis Haddon as administrator of the estate of Edward Wright:

"The Adm. of the Est. of Edward Wright dec'd, formerly granted to Mr. Gyles Mode since dec'd., is confirmed upon Dr. Francis Haddon, (who) intermarrying with the sd. Mode's Relict & a Quietus Est. is granted him from ye sd. Est."

Virginia Colonial Abstracts, Series 2, Vol. 5, Wills, Deeds, Orders of York County, Virginia 1657-1659, by Lindsay O. Duvall, stated that on February 24, 1658, at York County, Virginia, O.B. 3/49A, the accounting for the estate of Edward Wright was filed:

York County, Virginia, Records 1665-1672, by Benjamin B. Weisiger III, stated that the will of Edward Wright was dated February 25, 1659, recorded on July 24, 1667, at York County, Virginia, D.&W.B. 4/152, and provided as follows:

"To son John Right my land, but if he dies under age, to other children
To grandson William Graves, a cow & calf

Dated 25 Feb. 1659 Edward (EW) Right
Wit:
David (O) Jarrat
John Tiplady

Recorded 24 July 1667"

This record indicates that Edward Wright lived until February 25, 1659, which is inconsistent with the other records set forth above dealing with the estate of Edward Wright. Either the date of the will was misread or misrecorded or there were two Edward Wrights in York County, Virginia, at this time who died very close together and the former explanation of these inconsistent dates seems the more likely.

Cavaliers And Pioneers, Vol. I, by Nell Marion Nugent, listed the following Patent to Gozen Delonie dated October 19, 1664, at P.D. 5/228, which references the land of Edward Wright:

"Gozen Delonie, alien, 50 acs. Yorke Co., 19 Oct. 1664, p. 228, (139). Adj. To S. most bounds of land first taken up by Mr. Rich. Lee, Secretary, and is commonly called the Ridge. Granted to Edw. Wright 3 July 1654 & by him assigned to sd. Delonie."

This is the patent deed issued by reason of the grant of 50 acres of land to Edward Wright and which, as set forth above, had been assigned by Edward Wright to Gozen Deloie and acknowledged by Edward Wright's widow Joane Wright.

York County, Virginia, Records 1665-1672, by Benjamin B. Weisiger III, stated that on November 25, 1667, at York County, Virginia, O.B. 4/159, Thomas Wills was summoned by Edward Mosse to account for the estate of the orphans of Edward Wright:

"Thomas Wills was summoned at suit of Mr. Edward Mosse on behalf of orphans of Edward Wright, dec'd, to give account of estate; and he giving account, Mr. John Tiplady and Mr. William Paddison to divide estate and give orphans' portion to Edward Mosse, their guardian."

York County, Virginia, Records 1665-1672, by Benjamin B. Weisiger III, stated that on November 25, 1667, at York County, Virginia, O.B. 4/160, Thomas Wills filed his account of the estate of Edward Wright:

"Account of estate of orphans of Edward Wright, dec'd, 3 cows, 1 heifer 3 yrs. old, 1 heifer 2 yrs. old, 1 cow calf, 1 bull calf.

Signed: Thomas (W) Wills

Recorded 25 Nov. 1667"

York County, Virginia Marriage References and Family Relationships, 1636-1800, by F. Edward Wright, listed the family of Edward Wright based on the records set forth above:

"Wright/Right, Edward (d. 1659-61) m. Joane (N). Edward was father of John and grandfather of William Graves. {YCCR 1659-1662: 76; YCCR 1665-1672: 83}"

In his letter dated March 19, 1998, Robert Davidson enclosed a family chart which stated that Edward Wright married Joane Evans in about 1646 and died in 1658 in York County, Virginia, that Joane (Evans) Wright was a "mayde servant" to Thomas Deacon, and that Edward Wright and Joane (Evans) Wright had the following children:

- 1) John Wright, born in about 1650, and
- 2) Elizabeth (Wright) Thomson.

- 1) 1695 John Wright of York County, born in about 1650 and before March 24, 1653/54,

- 2) _____ (Wright) Graves, and
- 3) Elizabeth (Wright) Tompson.

A. 1695 John Wright, His Possible But Not Probable Wife Elizabeth (_____) Wright, His Wife Judith (Platt) Wright, And His Descendants

1695 John Wright of York County was the son of 1657 Edward Wright of York County and Joane (Evans) Wright. (1657 Edward¹)

The identification of 1695 John Wright of York County as the son of 1657 Edward Wright of York County is based on several pieces of evidence more fully set forth below.

First, the will of 1657 Edward Wright listed his son as John Wright.

Second, 1657 Edward Wright patented land on the Ridge in York County and 1695 John Wright patented land on the Ridge in York County. 1657 Edward Wright assigned the land on the Ridge to Gozen Deloine and the land of 1695 John Wright was described as adjacent to Gozion Delong. The placement of both parcels of land adjacent to each other indicates that 1695 John Wright was the son John Wright named in 1657 Edward Wright's will. In addition, Gosende Long [Gosen Delong?] was appointed by the court to assure delivery of the cattle due to John Wright, the orphan of Edward Wright.

Third, John Wright was described in the will of Edward Wright dated February 25, 1659, but properly dated 1657, as underage and in his deposition dated February 24, 1691/92, John Wright stated that he was about 30 years of age. While not perfectly consistent, the age of John Wright, the son of Edward Wright, and 1695 John Wright are close enough to indicate that the same person was involved.

And fourth, a piece of possibly inconsistent evidence is probably not inconsistent at all. In his deposition on February 24, 1691/92, in the case of Slate v. Hill, 1695 John Wright stated that in October 1691 he “went to bed along with your deponent’s [John’s] father”. This suggests that 1695 John Wright’s father was still living. However, father and son were sometimes interchangeably used to refer to father-in-law and son-in-law. For example, in his will dated July 25, 1690, and probated on January 24, 1692/93, Lawrence Platt, the father-in-law of 1695 John Wright, referred to John Wright as his son: “My loveing son John Wright executor.” The result is that 1695 John Wright was probably referring to his father-in-law, who was still alive in October 1691, and not to his natural father, who had died in 1657.

For the reasons set forth above, the conclusion seems fair that 1695 John Wright of York County was the son of 1657 Edward Wright of York County.

The remainder of this section will set forth the documentation found so far for 1695 John Wright of York County.

York County, Virginia, Records 1665-1672, by Benjamin B. Weisiger III, stated that the will of Edward Wright dated February 25, 1659, and recorded on July 24, 1667, at York County, Virginia, O.B. 4/152, named John Wright as a son of Edward Wright:

"To son John Right my land, but if he dies under age, to other children
To grandson William Graves, a cow & calf
If wife marries, children to have cattle equally.

Dated 25 Feb. 1659

Edward (EW) Right

Wit:

David (O) Jarrat

John Tiplady

Recorded 24 July 1667"

As set forth above, the will was properly dated in 1657, indicating that 1695 John Wright was born before February 25, 1657.

York County, Virginia, Records 1665-1672, by Benjamin B. Weisiger III, stated that on November 25, 1667, at York County, Virginia, O.B. 4/159, Thomas Wills was summoned by Edward Mosse to account for the estate of the orphans of Edward Wright:

"Thomas Wills was summoned at suit of Mr. Edward Mosse on behalf of orphans of Edward Wright, dec'd, to give account of estate; and he giving account, Mr. John Tiplady and Mr. William Paddison to divide estate and give orphans' portion to Edward Mosse, their guardian."

York County, Virginia, Records 1672-1676, by Benjamin B. Weisiger III, stated that on March 24, 1674/75, at York County, Virginia, Ct.O.B 5/101, Edward Moss petitioned for an order for Thomas Dunstan and Gosende Long to deliver cattle due to John Wright, orphan:

"On petition of Mr. Edward Moss, it is ordered that Thomas Dunstan and Gosende Long see the cattle belonging to John Wright, orphan, delivered to him."

Since Edward Mosse or Moss was guardian for the orphans of Edward Wright, this John Wright would be the son of Edward Wright named in his will. Since Edward Moss was still acting as guardian for John Wright on March 24, 1673/74, this indicates that John Wright was under the legal age to act of 21 and therefore, born after March 24, 1652/53.

On September 28, 1680, at Patent Deed 7/61, John Wright patented 84 acres of land in York County:

"To all &c Whereas &c Now know yee that I the said Sr Henry Chicheley knt Deputy Governor do give and grant unto Mr John Wright Eighty foure acres of Land lying and being in the County and parrish of yorke begining at a red oake corner tree belonging to the land of Mr Edward Mosse, and from thence runing N. 60 E. by a branch side 74 poles to a corner hicory tree N.W: by W. 20 poles N.N.W 130 poles to a Corner hicory tree W.S W: 64 poles to a corner hicory tree S.S.E: 228 poles to a Corner hicory tree E.N.E. 27 poles to two mark corner trees N. 26 poles to the place first specified The Said land being due by and for the trans of two psons into this Collony &c To have and to hold &c to be held &c yeilding &c provided &c Dated the Eight and Twentyeth Day of September 1680

Cavaliers And Pioneers, Volume II, page 214, by Nell Marion Nugent, also stated that on September 28, 1680, John Wright patented 84 acres of land in York County by reason of transporting two persons:

“Mr. John Wright, 84 acs., in Yorke Co. & Par: adj. Mr. Edward Mosse; 28 Sept. 1680, p. 61 Trans. of 2 pers: Edward Algood, Joseph Sutton.”

York County, Virginia, Deeds, Orders, Wills Etc., No. 8, 1687-1691, by John Frederick Dorman, stated that on December 1, 1681, John Wright witnessed the will of Stephen Hulett which was probated on January 24, 1687/88, at York County, Virginia, D.&W.B. 8/79.

Cavaliers And Pioneers, Volume II, page 281, by Nell Marion Nugent, stated that on April 26, 1684, at P.D. 7/397, John Wright and Thomas Carrill patented 102 acres of land in York County on the Ridge and adjacent to Gozion Delong:

“John Wright & Thomas Carrill (Carrell), 102 acs., upon the Ridge, in the Co. & Par. of York; adj. Gozion Delong (or Delory); 26 Apr. 1684, p. 397. Pattedented by Col. Richd. Lee, who sold to the above named.”

York County, Virginia, Deeds, Orders, Wills Etc., No. 8, 1687-1691, by John Frederick Dorman, stated that on November 10, 1690, at York County, Virginia, D.&W.B. 8/503 & 504, John Wright served on a jury and was sworn as a grand jury man.

York County, Virginia, Deeds, Orders, Wills Etc., No. 9, 1691-1694, by John Frederick Dorman, stated that on February 24, 1691/92, at York County, Virginia, D.&W.B. 9/98, the court ordered that John Wright be paid for one day's attendance for giving evidence for Robert Slate in his suit against James Hill:

“John Wright being sumonsed an evidence for Robt. Slate against James Hill, is ordered to be paid for one dayes attendance.”

York County, Virginia, Deeds, Orders, Wills Etc., No. 9, 1691-1694, by John Frederick Dorman, stated that on February 24, 1691/92, at York County, Virginia, D.&W.B. 9/99, the case of James Hill v. Robert Slate came before the court, with John Wright testifying in Robert Slate's favor:

“James Hill haveing brought an action of defamation against Robert Slate declareing that he had scandalously and falsely abused his reputation and credit by publishing and declareing that the defendant ketcht the plaintiff in bed with this defendant's wife and that the defendant's wife's mother upheld her daughter and the plaintiff to keep company together and live in adultery, alsoe that the defendant's wife is with child by the plaintiff and that his life is dayly indangered by his wife's mother and the plaintiff, all wich words the defendant confest in

Your deponent answered noe, but tould him James Blackstone was, whereupon Slate went with his neck cloth away, saying he would goe to James Blackstone.

John (x) Wright

24 Feb. 1690/1. [1691/2?] Sworne to in Court."

This record indicates that John Wright was born in about 1660 or 1661 and that his father was still living and resided with him. This record would seem to preclude this John Wright from being the son of 1657 Edward Wright of York County. However, as set forth above, the approximate age of 30 is roughly consistent with a John Wright born after March 24, 1652/53, and before November 25, 1657, and the father referred to was probably Lawrence Platt, the father-in-law of 1695 John Wright, who described his son-in-law as his son in his will.

York County, Virginia, Deeds, Orders, Wills Etc., No. 9, 1691-1694, by John Frederick Dorman, stated that on January 24, 1692/93, at York County, Virginia, D.&W.B. 9/197, the will of Lawrence Platt dated July 25, 1690, was proved by Robert Slate:

"Will of Lawrence Platt, dated 25 July 1690.

The proof of the will by Robert Slate, who was associated with John Wright in the case of Hill v. Slate, indicates that the John Wright listed as a son-in-law was the same John Wright as the John Wright of that lawsuit. This record also indicates that Judith (Platt) Wright was John Wright’s wife.

York County, Virginia, Deeds, Orders, Wills Etc., No. 9, 1691-1694, by John Frederick Dorman, stated that on February 13, 1692/93, at York County, Virginia, D.&W.B. 9/202, John Wright served on a jury in the case of Cornute v. Pond.

York County, Virginia, Deeds, Orders, Wills Etc., No. 9, 1691-1694, by John Frederick Dorman, stated that on November 25, 1693, at York County, Virginia, D.&W.B. 9/275, the court ordered a payment to John Wright for two days attendance in the case of Robert Slate v. John Doswell.

York County, Virginia, Deeds, Orders, Wills Etc., No. 10, 1694-1697, by John Frederick Dorman, stated that on May 24, 1695, at York County, Virginia, D.&W.B. 10/148, Judeth Wright was appointed as executrix of the will of John Wright:

“Judeth Wright, widdow of John Wright, on her petition hath order for a probate of the last will and testament of her deceased husband, shee being appoynted executrix, which was proved by Samll. Snignall, Edward Woodhouse and Jon: Thompson.”

The will of John Wright was dated on November 21, 1694, probated on May 24, 1695, at York County, Virginia, D.&W.B. 10/158, and provided as follows:

"In the name of God Amen I John Wright of Yorke pish in Yorke County being sick and weak of body, but of pfect minde & Memory, praise be God for itt, doe make this my last Will & testmnt: in manner following, I bequeath my Soule to God that gave itt my body to ye Earth to be decently buried att ye. descretion of my loveing wife Judeth, As for my worldly goods I give as followeth. While this record identified 1695 John Wright's wife as Judith (____) Wright and indicated that he had both sons and daughters, it unfortunately did not give the names of his children.

York County, Virginia, Deeds, Orders, Wills Etc., No. 10, 1694-1697, by John Frederick Dorman, also stated that on May 24, 1695, at York County, Virginia, D.&W.B. 10/158, the will of John Wright dated November 21, 1694, was recorded:

"Will of John Wright of Yorke Parish in Yorke County, being sick and weake of body, dated 21 Nov. 1694.

York County, Virginia, Land Records, 1694-1713, by Mary Marshall Brewer, stated that on February 2, 1698, at York County, D.B. 1/178, Thomas Carrill or Carrell sold to John Gibbons his 1/2 of a patent of 102 acres of land granted to John Wright and Thomas Carrill, the father of the grantor:

"2 Feb 1698. Deed. Thomas Carrill (Carrell) for L26 sold to John Gibbons of Yorke Co planter all hiw owne 51 a. of land in Yorke Parish, it being 1/2 a pattent granted to John Wright & Thomas Carrill which sd land was formerly purch by the sd Thomas Carrill decd father & left to him as hi only surviving son & was lately in the occupancy of Matthew Collins . . . , Wit: Samll Snignall, Thomas Gibbons, Charles Allin. The within deed of sale was by Thomas Gibbons atty of Tho Carrill ackn being first proved in court . . . [pg torn] . . . & recorded. (Pg 178)"

This record in conjunction with the 1680 and 1684 Patent Deeds indicates that John Wright died with approximately 135 acres of land, 84 acres patented in 1680 and 1/2 of 102 acres patented in 1684, and that was the land left by his will to his eldest son. As will be set forth below, this was the land, described as 130 acres, sold in 1749 by 1695 John Wright's son 1752 John Wright of York County to 1752 John Wright's son 1753 Lawrence Wright of York County and thereby establishing a chain of title which identifies 1695 John Wright of York County as the father of 1752 John Wright of York County.

Wright Of York County, Virginia, 1625-1850, by Thelma Ironmonger Hansford, listed 1695 John Wright of York County as a son of Edward Wright and stated that he married first Elizabeth (____) Wright, that they had a son Augustine Wright, and that he was a minister:

"Edward¹ Wright had a son John² Wright, so stated in William Hawkins' will in 1655, so he was born before 1655. He married first Elizabeth ____ by whom he had a son Augustine³ Wright born in 1683. (Charles Parish Register) He married secondly, Judith ____ for as his widow, she petitioned the Court when his will was probated and she was the sole executor. There were other children, but they were not named.

John² Wright was a minister and was serving as such in Poquoson (Charles) Parish. Another person, probably of a denomination other than the Established Church of England, spoke to an assembly from this church pulpit. Mr. Wright was outraged and petitioned the Council of Colonial Virginia about this matter. A reply dated June 23, 1680 ordered the two men to Jamestown in order to settle this difference. (Legislative Journals of the Council of Colonial Virginia Vol. 1, edited by H. R. McIlwaine)

John² Wright wrote his will November 1684 and it was probated May 24, 1695. (York Deeds, Orders, Wills No. 10: 1694-1697, p. 148) He lent his entire estate to his wife during her widowhood and he designated that she use half of it and the children share equally in the other half; but he specifically gave his lands to his eldest son following his wife's death. Because he did not name his children, there were several Wright people of the next generation living here in York County who may be assumed his children namely:

- I. Augustine³ Wright born November 29, 1683 (parentage given)
- II. Edward³ Wright born ca. 1685; will 1735
- III. William³ Wright born ca. 1687; will 1736
- IV. John³ J. Wright born ca. 1690 (of age by 1732)
- V. Ann Wright died Sept. 13, 1748"

The text makes clear that this list of children was speculative and not based on documentation and except for John Wright, the other four children listed were assumed to be the children of 1695 John Wright based simply on their common surname.

The listing of 1695 John Wright of York County as a minister appears to be based on the listing in the Legislative Journals, but it is unclear how Ms. Hansford identified 1695 John Wright of York County as the same person as the minister John Wright in that record. No other record has been found that identified 1695 John Wright of York County as a minister.

York County, Virginia Marriage References and Family Relationships, 1636-1800, by F. Edward Wright, listed John Wright as a son of Edward Wright based on the records set forth above:

"Wright/Right, Edward (d. 1659-61) m. Joane (N). Edward was father of John and grandfather of William Graves. {YCCR 1659-1662: 76; YCCR 1665-1672: 83}"

In his letter dated March 19, 1998, Robert Davidson enclosed a family chart which stated that John Wright was a son of Edward Wright and Joane (Evans) Wright, was born about 1650, married Judith _____, and died in 1695 and that John Wright and Judith (_____) Wright had the following children:

- 1) John Wright,
- 2) Edward Wright,
- 3) William Wright, and
- 4) Jane (Wright) Bond.

From the evidence set forth above and additional evidence set forth below, a possible but not probable child of 1695 John Wright of York County and his possible but not probable wife Elizabeth (_____) Wright was the following:

1) Possibly but probably not 1732 Augustine Wright of York County, and the children of 1695 John Wright of York County and his wife Judith (Platt) Wright were the following:

- 1) 1752 John Wright of York County, born probably before 1683,
- 2) Probably 1735 Edward Wright of York County,
- 3) Possibly Jane (Wright) Bond, and
- 4) Possibly but probably not 1736 William Wright of York County.

1. Possibly But Probably Not 1732 Augustine Wright Of York County

1732 Augustine Wright of York County was possibly but probably not a son of 1695 John Wright and a first wife Elizabeth (_____) Wright. (1657 Edward¹, 1695 John²)

No direct documentary evidence has as yet been found which identifies 1732 Augustine Wright of York County as a son of 1695 John Wright of York County.

The circumstantial evidence for this identification is the following.

First, 1732 Augustine Wright had the same surname as 1695 John Wright.

Second, 1732 Augustine Wright was born on November 29, 1683, which would be an appropriate time to be a child of 1695 John Wright who was born after March 24, 1652/53 and before February 25, 1657.

And third, 1732 Augustine Wright died in York County which is where 1695 John Wright died.

However, even taken together, this is a weak case for this identification. Wright is a common surname and people with the same surname but of different families often lived and died in the same county during the same period of time.

A significant piece of contradictory evidence is the tracing of the land of 1695 John Wright. If Augustine Wright was from a first marriage of 1695 John Wright, then he would have been older than the sons born of 1695 John Wright's later marriage to Judith (Platt) Wright, who survived him. As set forth above, 1695 John Wright in his will gave his land to his eldest son. As set forth above and more fully set forth below, that land was on the Ridge in York County and can be traced to 1695 John Wright's son 1752 John Wright of York County and to his grandson 1753 Lawrence Wright of York County. This chain of title of the land through 1752 John Wright would preclude Augustine Wright from being an older brother who would have inherited the land.

The result is that 1732 Augustine Wright of York County was probably not a son of 1695 John Wright of York County.

The remainder of this section discusses the documentation regarding Augustine Wright that has been found.

Charles Parish, York County, Virginia, History And Registers, by Landon C. Bell, listed the birth of Augustine Wright, son of John and Elizabeth Wright, on November 29, 1683, in York County, Virginia:

"Wright, Augustine, son of John by Elizabeth, b. Nov. 29, 1683."

Charles Parish, York County, Virginia, History And Registers, by Landon C. Bell, also listed the death of Augustine Wright on May 9, 1732, in York County, Virginia:

"Wright, Augustine, d. May 9, 1732."

Wright Of York County, Virginia, 1625-1850, by Thelma Ironmonger Hansford, listed Augustine Wright as a son of 1695 John Wright of York County and a first wife Elizabeth Wright:

"Edward¹ Wright had a son John² Wright, so stated in William Hawkins' will in 1655, so he was born before 1655. He married first Elizabeth _____ by whom he had a son Augustine³ Wright born in 1683. (Charles Parish Register) He married secondly, Judith _____ for as his widow, she petitioned the Court when his will was probated and she was the sole executor.

Because he did not name his children, there were several Wright people of the next generation living here in York County who may be assumed his children namely:

- I. Augustine³ Wright born November 29, 1683 (parentage given)

However, the text makes clear that this listing of Augustine Wright was speculative and not based on documentation and was simply assumed based on the common surname.

The result is that it is improbable that 1695 John Wright had a wife Elizabeth or a son Augustine and this identification is not supported by the evidence.

2. 1752 John Wright, His Wives () Wright And Ann Or Anne (Tenham) Wright, And His Descendants

1752 John Wright was a son of 1695 John Wright and Judith (Platt) Wright. (1657 Edward¹, 1695 John²)

The 1704 Quit Rent Roll for Virginia listed one Jno. Wright in York County, Virginia. This record indicates that John Wright was over the legal age of 16 to possess land in 1704 and therefore, was probably born before 1688.

York County, Virginia, Deeds, Orders, Wills, Etc., 1708-1710, by Sherry Raleigh-Adams, stated that on October 6, 1708, at York County, Virginia, D.&W.B. 13/194, John Wright served on a jury in the case of Cooper v. Edmonds to partition land located between Back Creek and branches of Chisman's Creek:

"In pursuance to an order of York Court dated the 24th of September last, wee the jury whose names are hereunto subscribed being summoned by the Sheriff Mott at the house of Saml. Cooper and being sworn by Thomas Ballard, Gent. to make partition of 300 acres of land between the said Samuel Cooper, plf. and Thomas Edmonds and Katherine, his wife, defts., on Monday the 4th day of October with the assistance of Miles Cary, Surveyor, proceeded to measure and lay out a patent originally granted to Thomas Iles the 2nd day of October 1640 and renewed the 19th day of October 1664, as also a sale of Hugh Gwyns to the said Isles for 75 acres of land dated the 17th day of Aprill 1638 lying between Back Creek and the branches of Chisman's Creek beginningIn witness whereof, wee have hereunto set our hands this 6th day of October 1708. John Moss, William Allin, Phill. Dedman, Bssell Wagstaff, Simon Stacy, Robt. Snead, Nathl. Hooke, Thos Burnam, Thomas Walker, John Gibbins, John Wright, John Doswell Junr."

As will be set forth below, the land of 1752 John Wright of York County was located on Chisman's Creek and so this listing was almost certainly for him. This record indicates that John Wright was over the legal age of 21 to serve on a jury on October 6, 1708, and therefore, born before October 6, 1687.

York County, Virginia, Deeds, Orders, Wills, Etc., 1708-1710, by Sherry Raleigh-Adams, stated that on May 24, 1709, at York County, Virginia, D.&W.B. 13/219, the court awarded John Wright 120 pounds of tobacco for acting as a witness for John Hughes:

"John Wright being summoned an evidence for John Hughes, plf. against John Doswell, Senr., deft. and having attended 3 days on the said suit, at his mocion it is ordered that the said Hughes pay him 120 lbs. of tobacco for the same with costs alies execution."

"In the petition of John Doswell, Nathaniel Hook, Humphrey Nixon, John Gibbons, John Wright, Thomas Walker and John Doswell, Junr. setting forth that their occasions require a road to be made certain down to a landing on the head of Chisman's Creek and praying the Court's order that the same may be laid out as the Law directs, Henry Hayward and William Moss, through whose lands the said road must be cutt, this day appeared and objected against the making of such order, alledging it run through the heart of their lands and therefore it would prove very prejudicial. William Buckner and Lawrence Smith are appointed and desired to meet on the said lands on the 20th July next, view the said grounds and to direct a road as to them shall seem expedient and it is ordered that report be made to the next Court."

York County, Virginia, Deeds, Orders, Wills, Etc., 1710-1711, by Sherry Raleigh-Adams, stated that on July 24, 1710, at York County, Virginia, O.&W.B. 14/22, the court ordered the clearing of a road in accordance with the petition of John Wright and others:

"In the petition of John Doswell, Nathaniel Hook, Humphrey Nixon, John Gibbons, John Wright, Thos. Walker and John Doswell Junr. praying order that a convenient roling road might be directed and made from their respective dwellings down to the head of Chisman's Creek, William Buckner and Lawrence Smith having been appointed at the last Court to goe on the ground through which the same must be cutt and view and report the most convenient way (with the least prejudice to the lands) . . . this day made the following report: "Wee have been on the grounds and find a road is necessary for the petrs. Do appoint that it begin to be cleared from Mr. Moss field, the nearest way to the fork of the Cedar Branch and from thence the directest course to the Middle Point on Chisman's Creek." It is ordered that the petrs. pursue the said report and without the assistance of the Surveyor of that precinct and at their own charge, clear the said road and make such bridges as are required, which road so made is hereby declared and established a publick way."

York County, Virginia, Deeds, Orders, Wills, Etc., 1711-1714, by Sherry Raleigh-Adams, stated that on January 12, 1712/13, at York County, Virginia, O.&W.B. 14/220, John Wright was appointed to appraise certain cattle to satisfy a judgment:

York County, Virginia, Wills, Inventories and Court Orders, 1740-1743, by Mary Marshall Brewer, stated that on March 17, 1742/43, at York County, Virginia, W.&I.B. 19/175, in the case of James Moss v. John Wright & Anne Wright, John Wright requested a delay:

"In the action of trespass, assault & battery between James Moss plt and John Wright and Anne his wife defs, the defs pray leave to imparle til next court which is granted. (Pg 175)"

The reference to John Wright's wife as Anne Wright clearly identifies the John Wright of this record as 1752 John Wright of York County.

York County, Virginia, Wills, Inventories and Court Orders, 1740-1743, by Mary Marshall Brewer, stated that on April 16, 1743, at York County, Virginia, W.&I.B.

As set forth above, the will of 1695 John Wright of York County passed his 135 acres of land to his eldest son. There is no other York County deed record that has been found showing the acquisition by 1752 John Wright of York County of the 130 acres of land of D.B. 5/290. Although the land of D.B. 5/290 was described as 130 acres, the difference between 130 and 135 acres is minimal and these documents trace a chain of title from 1695 John Wright of York County to 1752 John Wright of York County and then on to 1753 Lawrence Wright of York County. This chain of title identifies 1695 John Wright of York County as the father of 1752 John Wright of York County.

York County, Virginia, Land Records, 1729-1763, by Mary Marshall Brewer, also stated that on April 21, 1749, at York County, Virginia, D.B. 5/290, John Wright sold to Lawrence Wright 130 acres of land on which they both then lived:

"21 Apr 1749. Deed. John Wright of Yorkhampton Parish, York Co for L20 sold to Lawrence Wright of same parish a 130 a. tr of land in Yorkhampton Parish whereon said John & Lawrence now liveth. . . . Wit: Edmnd Smith, John Gibbons, John Tenham, Edwd Moss. Proved 15 May 1749. Attest: Thos Everard clerk. (Bk 5:pg 290)"

York County, Virginia, Wills, Inventories and Court Orders, 1745-1759, by Mary Marshall Brewer, stated that on probably September 16, 1751, at York County, Virginia, W.&I.B. 20/236, the estate of Captain John Ballard listed a payment to John Wright:

"The estate of Capt John Ballard with Elizabeth Ballard adminr. Paid sums to John Wright (Pg 236)"

The will of John Wright was dated on November 14, 1751, probated on November 20, 1752, at York County, Virginia, W.&I.B. 20/273, and provided as follows:

"In the Name of God Amen I John Wright of Yorkhampton Parish in York County being sick and weak of Body but of Sound Perfect Mind and Memory thanks be to Almighty God do make and Ordain this to be my last Will and Testament in manner and form following that is to say First I bequeath my Soul to Almighty God who gave it me and my Body I Commend to the Earth to be decently buried at the discretion of my Executrix who is my welbeloved Wife Ann Wright whom I appoint my whole and Sole Executrix of this my last Will and Testament revoking and disallowing of all other Will or Wills heretofore made by made meaning for my Just Debts and funeral Expences to be paid by my said Executrix and my Estate I give and bequeath as followeth first I lend unto my said welbeloved Wife Ann Wright my Negro Quando during the time she remains or continues my Widow or not Marries And the rest of my whole Estate in any kind whatever I lend unto my said Wife during her widowhood or continues my Widow but in case she Marries then my Will and desire is that my Estate may be equally divided amongst my said Wife and my Children hereafter mentioned as meaning my Sons William, John, Dudley, Benjamin and my Daughter Elizabeth Wright all Born of this Body to me of my said welbeloved Wife Ann Wright to She them and

The listing of John, Elizabeth, and Benjamin Wright as his siblings confirms the identification of this Dudley Wright as the son of 1752 John Wright of York County and the listing in the will of his mother as executor and the listing of her name as Ann Wilks in the recording of the will indicates that 1752 John Wright's widow Ann (____) Wright had married _____ Wilks before December 21, 1762.

Wright of York County, Virginia, 1625-1850, by Thelma Ironmonger Hansford, stated that John Wright was probably a son of John Wright, but did not explain the basis on which she based that conclusion:

IV. John³ J. Wright, probably the son of John² Wright (Edward¹ Wright), was an adult when he petitioned the Court on January 15, 1732 asking that the church wardens of Yorkhampton Parish bind Samuel Dedman, orphan of Philip Dedman, unto him to remain until he was twenty-one years old. (York Record No. 18 W. & I. 1732-1740 pt 1) He also assisted Samuel Singnall and Edward Woodhouse Wood in the settlement of Edward³ Wright's estate August 18, 1735. (Ibid. p. 215). He was a witness to that will.

John³ J. Wright, born in late 1600's, (probably about 1690) married Ann _____ by 1723 in order to have had ten children by 1751. This family lived in Yorkhampton Parish. His will was written November 14, 1751 and was probated November 20, 1752. In it he named his wife and children. Excerpts from that will will follow:

It appears that John Wright lived on the 130 acre tract that he and Lawrence Wright had jointly bought in 1749. Lawrence Wright most likely was the oldest son for he, too died in 1753.

From the will, all of the daughters were grown and married. His widow remarried _____ Wilkes for she helped to execute the will of her son Dudley Wright along with two other sons as requested in that will. She was then Ann Wilkes.

The identification of 1752 John Wright as John J. Wright is probably a mistaken impression from the mark "J" on his will; no other document has as yet been bound which listed 1752 John Wright with a middle initial "J".

From the evidence set forth above and additional evidence set forth below, the children of 1752 John Wright of York County and his first wife _____ (_____) Wright were the following:

- 1) Ann (Wright) Morland or Moreland,
- 2) Edward Wright, possibly 1779 Edward Wright of York County,
- 3) Mary (Wright) Morris,
- 4) Sarah (Wright) Marshall,
- 5) Elizabeth (Wright) Morland, and
- 6) 1753 Lawrence Wright of York County, and the children of 1752 John Wright of York County and his second wife Ann or Anne (Tenham) Wright were the following:

- 1) Elizabeth Wright,
- 2) 1793 Benjamin Wright of York County,
- 3) 1762 Dudley Wright of York County, born on April 21, 1737,
- 4) 1796 John Wright of York County, and
- 5) 1805 William Wright of Fauquier County, born on November 1, 1740, in York County, Virginia.

Ann (Wright) Morland or Moreland was a daughter of 1752 John Wright of York County and ____ (____) Wright. (1657 Edward¹, 1695 John², 1752 John³)

York County, Virginia, Deeds, Orders, Wills, Etc., 1718-1720, by Mary Marshall Brewer, stated that on January 18, 1719, at York County, Virginia, O.&W.B. 15/544, Matthew Morland petitioned to appoint Edward Morland as his guardian:

"On the petition of Matthew Morland praying that Edward Morland may be appointed his guardian he the sd Edward having together with Philip Dedham & Joseph Mountfort his securitys entered into & ackn their bond for that purpose which bond is admitted to record, orered that he take care of the sd Matthew & his estate. (Pg 544)'

As set forth below, Ann Wright married Matthew Morland or Moreland. This record indicates that Matthew Moreland was under the legal age of 21 to act on January 18, 1719, and therefore, born after January 18, 1698, but over the legal age of 14 to nominate a guardian and therefore, born before January 18, 1705.

York County, Virginia, Deeds, Orders, Wills, Etc., 1718-1720, by Mary Marshall Brewer, also stated that on February 15, 1719, at York County, Virginia, O.&W.B. 15/547, Edward Morland filed his bond to act as guardian of Matthew Morland, the orphan of John Morland:

"15 Feb 1719. Bond. This record identifies the family of Matthew Moreland as follows:

- Children:
- 1) Ann Moreland,
 - 2) Jonathan Moreland,
 - 3) Mathew Moreland,
 - 4) Edward Moreland, and
 - 5) Wright Moreland.

The absence of any reference to his wife Anne (Wright) Moreland indicates that she had died before February 8, 1734/35.

York County, Virginia, Wills, Inventories and Court Orders, 1732-1737, by Mary Marshall Brewer, stated that on February 17, 1736/37, at York County, Virginia, O.B. 18/343, the will of Matthew Morland was proved and ordered to be recorded:

"The will of Mattw Morland decd was presented and proved by the oath of Richd Bellamee one of the wits who also declared upon oath that he saw Sophia Clark sign her name as wit, order'd that the same be recorded. (Pg 343)"

York County, Virginia, Wills, Inventories and Court Orders, 1732-1737, by Mary Marshall Brewer, stated that the will of Matthew Moreland dated February 8, 1736/37 [1734/35?], and probated on February 21, 1736/37, at York County, Virginia, O.B. 18/348, provided as follows:

"Matthew Moreland of York Co. 8 Feb 1736. To my dau Ann Moreland my Negro woman named Kate with all her increase. To my son Jno Moreland my Negro boy named Jemy. To my son Matthew Moreland my Negro girl named Mary and her increase. To my son Edward Moreland one Negro girl named Jenny and her increase. To my son Wright Moreland one Negro girl named Amee and her increase. The rest of my estate to be sold and after my debts and funeral charges are paid to be divided among my children. I appoint Younger Moreland executor. Wit: Richd Bellamee, Sophia Clark. The will was presented in court 21 Feb 1736 and proved by the oath of Richard Bellamee one of the wits who also declared upon oath that he was Sophia Clark sign her name as a wit thereto and it was ordered to be recorded. Attest: Matt Hubbard clerk. (Pg 348)"

As will be set forth below, the will of 1752 John Wright referred to the heirs of his daughter Ann Morland and to his daughter Elizabeth's husband Young Morland and in conjunction with the naming of one of Matthew Moreland's children as Ann Moreland and another child as Wright Moreland, these references identify Matthew Moreland as the husband of Ann (Wright) Moreland. The absence of any reference to Ann (Wright) Moreland in the will of Matthew Moreland indicates that she had probably predeceased Matthew Moreland, consistent with the implication in 1752 John Wright's will that she had predeceased her father. Although this recofd listed the date of the will as February 8, 1736, the will and the prior court orders relating to that will indicate the date was February 8, 1734/35.

York County, Virginia, Wills, Inventories and Court Orders, 1740-1743, by Mary Marshall Brewer, stated that on November 15, 1742, at York County, Virginia, O.B. 19/130, John Wright petitioned for a settlement of the estate of Matthew Morland:

"Upon the petition of John Wright, ordered that Edmund Smith, Saml Reade and John Ballard gent or any two of them do meet & settle an account of the estate of Mattw Morland decd. (Pg 130)"

York County, Virginia, Wills, Inventories and Court Orders, 1740-1743, by Mary Marshall Brewer, stated that on December 20, 1742, at York County, Virginia, O.B. 19/139, the petition of John Wright for settling the estate of Matthew Morland was dismissed:

"The petition of John Wright for settling the estate of Mattw Morland decd is dismissed. (Pg 139)"

York County, Virginia, Wills, Inventories and Court Orders, 1743-1746, by Mary Marshall Brewer, stated that on January 19, 1746/47, at York County, Virginia, O.B. 19/483, the chancery suit of Edward Morland & Wright Morland versus William Cannon & Ann his wife, Matthew Morland, and Young Morland, as executors of the estate of Matthew Morland was set for hearing:

"In the Suit in Chancery between Edward Morland & Wright Morland infants by John Wooten their guardian plts agt William Cannon & Ann his wife, Matthew Morland & Young Morland executors of Matthew Morland decd defs, by consent of the parties this cause set for hearing at the next court. (Pg 483)"

"In the Suit in Chancery between Edward Morland & Wright Morland infants by John Wootten their guardian plts agt William Cannon & Ann his wife, Matthew Morland & Young Morland executors of Matthew Morland decd defs, continued. (Pg 498)"

The will of John Wright dated on November 14, 1751, and probated on November 20, 1752, at York County, Virginia, W.&I.B. 20/273, listed Ann (Wright) Morland as a child of John Wright:

". . . . And the rest of my whole Estate in any kind whatever I lend unto my said Wife during her widowhood or continues my Widow but in case she Marries then my Will and desire is that my Estate may be equally divided amongst my said Wife and my Children hereafter mentioned as meaning my Sons William, John, Dudley, Benjamin and my Daughter Elizabeth Wright all Born of this Body to me of my said welbeloved Wife Ann Wright to She them and their Heirs forever and if either of the said Children should die while my said Wife remains my Widow then Will and desire is that such Child or Children part may be equally divided amongst my said Wife and Children and so to continue amongst my said Wife and Children meaning William, John, Dudley, Benjamin and Elizabeth Wright to them and their Heirs I give unto the Heirs of my daughter Ann Morland One Shilling Sterling and to my Son Edward Wright One Shilling Sterling to my Daughter Mary Morris One Shilling Sterling to my Daughter Sarah Marshall One Shilling Sterling and lastly to my Daughter Elizabeth Morland Wife of Young Morland One Shilling Sterling I also give unto my Son Lawrence Wright One Shilling Sterling"

York County, Virginia Marriage References and Family Relationships, 1636-1800, by F. Edward Wright, identified the family of Matthew Moreland based on the documents set forth above:

"Moreland, Matthew (d. 1736) m. Ann, dau. of John Wright (d. 1751-2). Matthew was father of John, Matthew, Edward and Wright. Son John put himself apprentice to Matthew Hatton, house carpenter, on 19 Aug 1765. {YCL4: 21; YCWICO 1732-1737: 203-4; YCWICO 1745-1759: 70}"

From the evidence set forth above and additional evidence set forth below, the children of Ann (Wright) Moreland and Matthew Moreland were the following:

- 1) Ann (Moreland) Cannon, born before February 8, 1734/35,

- 2) Jonathan Moreland, born before February 8, 1734/35,
- 3) Matthew Moreland, born after December 10, 1721, and probably before January 19, 1725/26,
- 4) Edward Moreland, born after January 19, 1725/26, and before February 8, 1734/35, and
- 5) Wright Moreland, born after January 19, 1725/26, and before February 8, 1734/35.

i. Ann (Moreland) Cannon And Her Husband William Cannon

Ann (Moreland) Cannon was a daughter of Ann (Wright) Moreland and Matthew Moreland. (1657 Edward¹, 1695 John², 1752 John³, Ann⁴)

The will of Matthew Moreland dated on February 8, 1734/35, and probated on February 21, 1736/37, at York County, Virginia, W.&I.B. 18/348, listed Ann Moreland as one of his children:

" I Matthew Moreland of ye. County of York doe by These presents make this my Last will and Testament in manner and form Following Viz -

. . . .

Imprimis I Give and Bequeath unto my Daughter Ann Moreland my Negro Woman named Kate to her and her heirs for Ever with all her Increase

. . . .

Lastly ye Rest of my Estate to be Sold and after my Just Debts and funerall charges is payd to be divided Equally among my Children.

York County, Virginia, Wills, Inventories and Court Orders, 1732-1737, by Mary Marshall Brewer, stated that the will of Matthew Moreland dated February 8, 1736/37 [1734/35?], and probated on February 21, 1736/37, at York County, Virginia, O.B. 18/348 listed Ann Moreland as one of his children:

"Matthew Moreland of York Co. 8 Feb 1736. To my dau Ann Moreland my Negro woman named Kate with all her increase. . . . The rest of my estate to be sold and after my debts and funeral charges are paid to be divided among my children. . . . The will was presented in court 21 Feb 1736 and proved by the oath of Richard Bellamee one of the wits who also declared upon oath that he was Sophia Clark sign her name as a wit thereto and it was ordered to be recorded. Attest: Matt Hubbard clerk. (Pg 348)"

York County, Virginia, Wills, Inventories and Court Orders, 1743-1746, by Mary Marshall Brewer, stated that on January 19, 1746/47, at York County, Virginia, O.B. 19/483 the chancery suit of Edward Morland & Wright Morland versus William Cannon & Ann his wife, Matthew Morland, and Young Morland, as executors of the estate of Matthew Morland was set for hearing:

"In the Suit in Chancery between Edward Morland & Wright Morland infants by John Wooten their guardian plts agt William Cannon & Ann his wife, Matthew Morland & Young Morland executors of Matthew Morland decd defs, by consent of the parties this cause set for hearing at the next court. (Pg 483)"

This record indicates that Ann Morland had married William Cannon before January 19, 1746/47.

ii. Jonathan Moreland

Jonathan Moreland was a son of Ann (Wright) Moreland and Matthew Moreland. (1657 Edward¹, 1695 John², 1752 John³, Ann⁴)

The will of Matthew Moreland dated on February 8, 1734/35, and probated on February 21, 1736/37, at York County, Virginia, W.&I.B. 18/348, listed Jonathan Moreland as one of his children:

". . . . I Matthew Moreland of ye. County of York doe by These presents make this my Last will and Testament in manner and form Following Viz -

And I doe Constitute and appoint Younger Moreland my whole and Sole Execr. of this my last will and Testament Revokeing all other Wills In Witness whereof I have Set my hand and Seal this 8th day of Febar: 1734/5

York County, Virginia, Wills, Inventories and Court Orders, 1732-1737, by Mary

Marshall Brewer, stated that the will of Matthew Moreland dated February 8, 1736/37 [1734/35?], and probated on February 21, 1736/37, at York County, Virginia, O.B. 18/348 listed Jonathan Moreland as one of his children:

"Matthew Moreland of York Co. 8 Feb 1736. . . . To my son Jno Moreland my Negro boy named Jemy. . . . The rest of my estate to be sold and after my debts and funeral charges are paid to be divided among my children. . . . The will was presented in court 21 Feb 1736 and proved by the oath of Richard Bellamee one of the wits who also declared upon oath that he was Sophia Clark sign her name as a wit thereto and it was ordered to be recorded. Attest: Matt Hubbard clerk. (Pg 348)"

iii. Matthew Moreland

Matthew Moreland was a son of Ann (Wright) Moreland and Matthew Moreland. (1657 Edward¹, 1695 John², 1752 John³, Ann⁴)

The will of Matthew Moreland dated on February 8, 1734/35, and probated on February 21, 1736/37, at York County, Virginia, W.&I.B. 18/348, listed Matthew Moreland as one of his children:

". . . . I Matthew Moreland of ye. County of York doe by These presents make this my Last will and Testament in manner and form Following Viz -

. . . .

Item I give unto my Son Mathew Moreland my negro Girl named Mary and her Increase to him and his heirs for Ever -

York County, Virginia, Wills, Inventories and Court Orders, 1732-1737, by Mary Marshall Brewer, stated that the will of Matthew Moreland dated February 8, 1736/37 [1734/35?], and probated on February 21, 1736/37, at York County, Virginia, O.B. 18/348 listed Matthew Moreland as one of his children:

"Matthew Moreland of York Co. 8 Feb 1736. . . . To my son Matthew Moreland my Negro girl named Mary and her increase. . . . The rest of my estate to be sold and after my debts and funeral charges are paid to be divided among my children. . . . The will was presented in court 21 Feb 1736 and proved by the oath of Richard Bellamee one of the wits who also declared upon oath that he was Sophia Clark sign her name as a wit thereto and it was ordered to be recorded. Attest: Matt Hubbard clerk. (Pg 348)"

York County, Virginia, Wills, Inventories and Court Orders, 1732-1737, by Mary Marshall Brewer, stated that on July 21, 1735, at York County, Virginia, O.B. 18/212, the court ordered the church wardens to bind out Matthew Moreland, the son of Matthew Moreland, deceased:

"Ordered that the church wardens of Yorkhampton Parish do bind out Matthew Morland son of Matthew Morland decd to John Morris Junr. (Pg 212)"

York County, Virginia, Wills, Inventories and Court Orders, 1740-1743, by Mary Marshall Brewer, stated that on December 10, 1742, at York County, Virginia, O.B. 19/141, Matthew Morland, orphan of Matthew Morland, chose John Morris as his guardian:

"Matthew Morland orphan of Matthew Morland decd made choice of John Morris for his guardian . . . (Pg 141)"

This record indicates that Matthew Moreland was under the legal age to act of 21 and therefore, born after December 10, 1721, but over the legal age to nominate a guardian of 14 and therefore, born before December 10, 1728.

York County, Virginia, Wills, Inventories and Court Orders, 1743-1746, by Mary Marshall Brewer, stated that on January 19, 1746/47, at York County, Virginia, O.B. 19/483 the chancery suit of Edward Morland & Wright Morland versus William Cannon & Ann his wife, Matthew Morland, and Young Morland, as executors of the estate of Matthew Morland was set for hearing:

"In the Suit in Chancery between Edward Morland & Wright Morland infants by John Wooten their guardian plts agt William Cannon & Ann his wife, Matthew Morland & Young Morland executors of Matthew Morland decd defs, by consent of the parties this cause set for hearing at the next court. (Pg 483)"

This record indicates that Matthew Moreland had attained age 21 by January 19, 1746/47, indicating a date of birth before January 19, 1725/26.

iv. Edward Moreland

Edward Moreland was a son of Ann (Wright) Moreland and Matthew Moreland. (1657 Edward¹, 1695 John², 1752 John³, Ann⁴)

The will of Matthew Moreland dated on February 8, 1734/35, and probated on February 21, 1736/37, at York County, Virginia, W.&I.B. 18/348, listed Edward Moreland as one of his children:

Ordered that the Overseer of the Poor of this County do take Sally Moreland widow of Wright Moreland decd on the poor list and provide for her as a poor person as the law directs, It appearing to the Court that she is unable to gain a comfortable subsistence."

In his WorldConnect Project Posting dated December 21, 1999, Javan Michael DeLoach, stated that Wright Moreland and Ann (Wilson) Moreland had the following children:

- (1) Thomas Moreland, born in about May 1763,
- (2) William Moreland, born in about 1764,
- (3) Charles Moreland, born on September 8, 1764, and
- (4) Dudley Moreland, born in about 1769.

b. Edward Wright, Probably 1779 Edward Wright Of York County, His Wife Ann () Wright, And His Descendants

Edward Wright was a son of 1752 John Wright of York County and ____ (____) Wright. (1657 Edward¹, 1695 John², 1752 John³)

No direct documentary evidence has as yet been found which identifies 1779 Edward Wright of York County as a son of 1752 John Wright of York County. And there were two Edward Wrights in York County at the same time. The first was Edward, the son of 1752 John Wright of York County, and the second was Edward, the son of 1735 Edward Wright of York County. Insufficient evidence has been found to identify 1779 Edward Wright as either the son of 1752 John Wright or the son of 1735 Edward. However, as more fully set forth below, Edward, the son of 1735 Edward Wright of York County, was possibly 1781 Edward Wright of Surry County, Virginia, which would make it probable that Edward Wright, the son of 1752 John Wright, was 1779 Edward Wright of York County.

The result is that further research will be required to confirm or deny the identification of Edward Wright, the son of 1752 John Wright, as 1779 Edward Wright of York County.

For convenience, the remainder of this section will set forth the documentation found on 1779 Edward Wright of York County and his family.

York County, Virginia, Wills, Inventories, And Court Orders, 1745-1749, by Mary Marshall Brewer, stated that Edward Wright was listed as a witness to the will of Sheldon Goodwin dated on September 5, 1751, and probated on December 16, 1751, at York County, Virginia, W.&I.B. 20/245.

The will of John Wright dated on November 14, 1751, and probated on November 20, 1752, at York County, Virginia, W.&I.B. 20/273, listed Edward Wright as one of his children:

" . . . And the rest of my whole Estate in any kind whatever I lend unto my said Wife during her widowhood or continues my Widow but in case she Marries then my Will and desire is that my Estate may be equally divided amongst my said Wife and my Children hereafter mentioned as meaning my Sons William, John, Dudley, Benjamin and my Daughter Elizabeth Wright all Born of this Body to me of my said welbeloved Wife Ann Wright to She them and their Heirs forever and if either of the said Children should die while my said Wife remains my Widow then Will and desire is that such Child or Children part may be equally divided amongst my said Wife and Children and so to continue amongst my said Wife and Children meaning William, John, Dudley, Benjamin and Elizabeth Wright to them and their Heirs I give unto the Heirs of my daughter Ann Morland One Shilling Sterling and to my Son Edward Wright One Shilling Sterling to my Daughter Mary Morris One Shilling Sterling to my Daughter Sarah Marshall One Shilling Sterling and lastly to my Daughter Elizabeth Morland Wife of Young Morland One Shilling Sterling I also give unto my Son Lawrence Wright One Shilling Sterling"

This record identifies an Edward Wright as a son of 1752 John Wright of York County.

York County, Virginia, Wills, Inventories, And Court Orders, 1745-1749, by Mary Marshall Brewer, stated that Edward Wright was a witness to the will of Matthew Moreland dated on January 17, 1755, and probated on February 17, 1755, at York County, Virginia, W.&I.B. 20/344, and was appointed co-executor of that will with Ruth Moreland:

"Matthew Moreland of Charles Parish, York Co. 17 Jan 1755. . . . I desire that Edward Wright be my executor with Ruth my wife executrix. Wit: Wm Rose, Edwd Wright. Proved 17 Feb 1755 and sworn to by Edward Wright and Ruth Moreland executors. Edward Wright with Joseph Stroud his security ackn a bond and on the motion of the said Edward Wright and Ruth Moreland the executors cert was granted them for obtaining a probate. Attest: Thos Everard clerk. (Pg 344)"

The association of Edward Wright with the Moreland family indicates that the Edward Wright of this record was the son of 1752 John Wright whose daughter Ann married Matthew Morland or Moreland.

York County, Virginia, Wills, Inventories, And Court Orders, 1745-1749, by Mary Marshall Brewer, stated that on November 19, 1759, at York County, Virginia, W.&I.B. 20/531, Edward Wright, William Adduston Rogers, and Christopher Corlew appraised the estate of Mary Thomas.

York County, Virginia, Wills, Inventories, And Court Orders, 1760-1783, by Mary Marshall Brewer, stated that Edward Wright was a witness to the will of James Moss of York County, undated and probated on November 15, 1762, at York County, Virginia, W.&I.B. 21/116.

On September 19, 1763, at York County, Virginia, Guardian Accounts 1/327, in an accounting by John Goodwin of his guardianship of John Moss, the following entry was included:

"To Edward Wright for Schooling £1"

York County, Virginia, Wills, Inventories, And Court Orders, 1760-1783, by Mary Marshall Brewer, stated that Edward Wright was a witness to the will of William Powell of York County dated on December 4, 1764, and probated on December 17, 1764, at York County, Virginia, W.&I.B. 21/220.

York County, Virginia, Wills, Inventories, And Court Orders, 1760-1783, by Mary Marshall Brewer, stated that Edward Wright was a witness to the will of John Goodwin of York County dated on September 19, 1766, and probated on March 16, 1767, at York County, Virginia, W.&I.B. 21/306.

York County, Virginia, Wills, Inventories, And Court Orders, 1760-1783, by Mary Marshall Brewer, stated that Edward Wright was a witness to the will of Thomas Chisman of York County dated on March 29, 1770, and probated on June 18, 1770, at York County, Virginia, W.&I.B. 21/495.

York County, Virginia, Wills, Inventories, And Court Orders, 1760-1783, by Mary Marshall Brewer, stated that pursuant to a court order dated March 14, 1773, Edward Wright, William Moss, and Robert Howard filed their appraisal of the estate of Mary Reade on May 17, 1773, at York County, Virginia, W.&I.B. 22/175.

Charles Parish, York County, Virginia, History And Registers, by Landon C. Bell, listed the death of Edward Wright in 1779:

“Wright, Edward, d. _____, 1779. [Note: The name “Edward Wright,” is entered in the column under deaths of 1779, but no month or day is given].”

The will of Edward Wright was dated September 25, 1778, probated on April 19, 1779, at York County, Virginia, W.B. 22/421, and provided as follows:

“Septr. the 25th 1778

The references to the payments for coffins for James Carter and for Anne Wright make clear that this was an accounting by 1790 Edward Wright of the administration of the estate of 1779 Edward Wright and was not an accounting for a separate estate of an Edward Wright who had died in 1784.

Wright Of York County, Virginia, 1625-1850, by Thelma Ironmonger Hansford, listed 1779 Edward Wright of York County as the son of 1735 Edward Wright of York County. However, as set forth above, 1752 John Wright of York County also had a son Edward Wright and it is unclear how Ms. Hansford determined that 1779 Edward Wright was the son of 1735 Edward Wright rather than the son of 1752 John Wright.

From the evidence set forth above and additional evidence set forth below, the children of 1779 Edward Wright of York County and Ann (____) Wright were the following:

- 1) John Wright, born before September 25, 1757,
- 2) Edward Wright, born before September 25, 1757,
- 3) Sarah Wright, born before September 25, 1778,
- 4) Lucy Wright, born before September 25, 1778,
- 5) Thomas Wright, born before September 25, 1778, and
- 6) Mary (Wright) Carter, born probably before about 1763.

i. John Wright

John Wright was a son of 1779 Edward Wright of York County and Ann (____) Wright. (1657 Edward¹, 1695 John², 1752 John³, 1779 Edward⁴)

The will of Edward Wright dated September 25, 1778, and probated on April 19, 1779, at York County, W.B. 22/421 listed John Wright as one of his children:

“Septr. the 25th 1778

. . . . I Edward Wright of the County of York do make and ordain this my last Will and Testament. . . .

My Will and desire is that my two sons John Wright and Edward Wright do sell so many of my Horses and Cattle and Furniture (if need require) as will raise money to pay all my just Debts and that they sell no more of my Stock than find necessary to pay my Debts and that the remainder of Stocks, Household furniture &c do remain in the hands of my Wife Ann Wright so long as she shall live, to assist her And at her Death if any thing remain that there be an Inventory taken by men appointed by my Executors and a just sale made, and the Amount to be equally divided between my Children namely, John, Edward, Sarah, Lucy and Thomas reserving for my two Grandsons Edward Carter and James Carter to be paid by my Sons towards their Schooling forty Shillings each and if either of these or of my Children (being single) die before this Division that their part or parts be equally divided as before desired Lastly I do appoint my two Sons John Wright and Edward Wright my lawfull Executors to see this my Will fulfilled.

This record indicates that John Wright was of legal age of 21 on September 25, 1778, and therefore, born before September 25, 1757.

The will of Edward Wright dated on July 28, 1789, and probated on April 19, 1790, at York County, Virginia, W.&I.B. 23/197, listed John Wright as his brother:

". . . . I Edward Wright of York County do make and ordain this my last will and Testament in manner and form as follows &c

Item after my Just debts are paid, I lend to my Loving wife Elizabeth Wright all my Estate both real and personal during her life Except my riding Saddle which I give to my Brother John Wright

. . . .

In Witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and Seal this 28th day of July 1789

This record indicates that John Wright was still residing in York County, Virginia, on July 28, 1789.

- ii. 1790 Edward Wright Of York County, His Wife Elizabeth (Fuller) (Davis) (Wright) Garratt Or Garrett,
And His Descendants

1790 Edward Wright of York County was a son of 1779 Edward Wright of York County and Ann (____) Wright. (1657 Edward¹, 1695 John², 1752 John³, 1779 Edward⁴)

The marriage record of Elizabeth Fuller and James Davis was dated on February 2, 1774, in York County, Virginia:

"Be it known to all men by these presents that I Elizabeth Fuller, Widow, guardian of Elizabeth Fuller, of york County do Acknowledge have granted and by these presents do Frely and Clearly grant unto James Davis of the said County A right to go to Any Clark Judge or Justice Within his Majesty Dominion, and take out License to be married to the said Elizabeth Fuller, In Witness my hand this 2th Day of February 1774.

As set forth below, Elizabeth (Fuller) (Davis) Wright was the wife of 1790 Edward Wright. This record indicates that Elizabeth Fuller, the daughter of Elizabeth Fuller, was under the legal age of 18 to marry and therefore, was born after February 2, 1756.

The will of 1779 Edward Wright dated September 25, 1778, and probated on April 19, 1779, at York County, W.B. 22/421 listed Edward Wright as one of his children:

“Septr. the 25th 1778

. . . . I Edward Wright of the County of York do make and ordain this my last Will and Testament.

My Will and desire is that my two sons John Wright and Edward Wright do sell so many of my Horses and Cattle and Furniture (if need require) as will raise money to pay all my just Debts and that they sell no more of my Stock than find necessary to pay my Debts and that the remainder of Stocks, Household furniture &c do remain in the hands of my Wife Ann Wright so long as she shall live, to assist her And at her Death if any thing remain that there be an Inventory taken by men appointed by my Executors and a just sale made, and the Amount to be equally divided between my Children namely, John, Edward, Sarah, Lucy and Thomas reserving for my two Grandsons Edward Carter and James Carter to be paid by my Sons towards their Schooling forty Shillings each and if either of these or of my Children (being single) die before this Division that their part or parts be equally divided as before desired Lastly I do appoint my two Sons John Wright and Edward Wright my lawfull Executors to see this my Will fulfilled.

This record indicates that Edward Wright was of legal age of 21 on September 25, 1778, and therefore, born before September 25, 1757.

The marriage record of Edward Wright and Elizabeth (Fuller) (Davis) (Wright) Garratt has not as yet been found.

The 1782 Personal Property Tax List for York County, Virginia, listed Edward Wright with 7 taxable persons, 3 horses, 20 cattle, and 2 wheels.

On September 17, 1784, at York County, Virginia, D.B. 6/240, Edward Wright purchased from Philip and Mary Dedman 37½ acres of land which descended to Mary Dedman from her father William Fuller:

This record indicates that Elizabeth (Fuller) (Davis) (Wright) Garratt's third husband Humphrey Garratt had died before June 17, 1799.

The will of Elizabeth Garratt was dated on January 8, 1800, probated on January 17, 1800, at York County, Virginia, W.&I.B. 23/546, and provided as follows:

"In the name of God amen I Elizabeth Garratt of the County of York being sick and weak of Body but of sound sense and Memory do make and ordain this my last Will and Testament in the manner and form following

First - My Will and Desire is that my just Debts may be first paid out of my Estate.

Secondly. My will and Desire is that my Executor will pay to Mrs. Ann Gerral of Portsmouth the sum of five pounds if she under and do cure the sore on Catherine Horsley's Leg.

Thirdly. My Will and desire is that my negro man Thomas may be liberated and set free in three Year's after my Death or at the marriage of my Daughter Elizabeth, and it is also my Desire that the said Thomas may not be hired out, but continue on the plantation during the three abovementioned years for the use of my said Daughter

Fourthly. I give unto poor old Mrs. Hughes two hundred Weight of Pork at my Death or Money enough to purchase as much Fifthly I give to my Daughter Elizabeth Wright all my Lands lying in York & Warwick County. I likewise give her all and every one of my negroes and all the Residue of my Estate of every sort and kind, to her and the lawful Heirs of her Body, but for want of such Heirs I give the said Estate to my Sister Mary Dedman's Children.

Sixthly My Will and desire is that my Daughter Elizabeth may be allowed by my Executors to take to herself such things at my death as her Aunt may think she'll stand in need of at what they are apprais'd to by the appraisers of my Estate, and my Desire is that she may not be under any obligation to give Bond and Security for the same

Seventhly My Will and Desire is that my Executors will purchase one young Negro fellow, as soon as convenient after my Death with what money and Bonds I may leave in the House, but if these should not be enough for the payment of the said Negro, my Desire is that they my Executors will collect the Interest of the Bonds assign'd to me by Capt. William Waller's Administratrix Elizabeth Waller and added to the above Cash and Bonds for the payment of the said Negroe

Lastly I appoint my Friends Absalom Hubbard and John Moore executors to this my last Will and Testament In Witness whereof I have hereunto set my Hand & Seal this Eight day of January 1800

Wright Of York County, Virginia, 1625-1850, by Thelma Ironmonger Hansford, listed in addition to some of the documents set forth above the following regarding 1790 Edward Wright:

"(2) Edward⁵ Wright, second son of Edward⁴ (Edward³, John², Edward¹) Wright and his wife Ann Wright, was born by 1755. (He was an executor of his father's will which was written 1778.) He married Elizabeth Fuller Davis, daughter of William Fuller and Elizabeth Burt Hill Fuller. She was the widow of James Davis who died 1779.

William Fuller, his father-in-law, left his land to his two daughters, Elizabeth (now Wright) and Mary, who married Philip Dedman.

He sustained considerable losses during the Revolutionary War. The British took "horses, cattle, saddles, clothes" and much more. (Losses Etc. Book in Co. Clerk's Office) His homesite was in the direct line between Yorktown and Williamsburg.

He attended Court as a witness for Benjamin Hansford, a neighbor, in a case against Mr. Cosby and was paid 75 pounds for being present in York Court session March 21, 1787. (York Orders No. 5 p. 422) (Wright's wife, Benjamin Hansford, and Cosby were all related and they all lived on the road between Yorktown and Williamsburg, an area now inside the present Naval Weapons Station. v. Thomas Wright

Thomas Wright was a son of 1779 Edward Wright of York County and Ann (____) Wright. (1657 Edward¹, 1695 John², 1752 John³, 1779 Edward⁴)

The will of Edward Wright dated September 25, 1778, and probated on April 19, 1779, at York County, W.B. 22/421 listed Thomas Wright as one of his children:

their Schooling forty Shillings each and if either of these or of my Children (being single) die before this Division that their part or parts be equally divided as before desired”

vi. Mary (Wright) Carter, Her Husband Jones Or Jonas Carter, And Her Descendants

Mary (Wright) Carter was a daughter of 1779 Edward Wright of York County and Ann (____) Wright. (1657 Edward¹, 1695 John², 1752 John³, 1779 Edward⁴)

Charles Parish, York County, Virginia, History And Registers, by Landon C. Bell, listed the birth of Edward Carter and James Carter, twin sons of Jones and Mary Carter, on September 29, 1776, in York County, Virginia:

"Carter, Edward (twin with James), son of Jones and Mary, b. Sept. 29, bap. Oct. 10, 1776.

Carter, James, (twin with Edward), son of Jones and Mary, b. Sept. 29, bap. Oct. 10, 1776."

The will of Edward Wright dated September 25, 1778, and probated on April 19, 1779, at York County, W.B. 22/421, listed Edward Carter and James Carter as his grandchildren, implying that he had an unnamed deceased daughter who had married ____ Carter:

"Septr. the 25th 1778

. . . . I Edward Wright of the County of York do make and ordain this my last Will and Testament.

that the remainder of Stocks, Household furniture &c do remain in the hands of my Wife Ann Wright so long as she shall live, to assist her And at her Death if any thing remain that there be an Inventory taken by men appointed by my Executors and a just sale made, and the Amount to be equally divided between my Children namely, John, Edward, Sarah, Lucy and Thomas reserving for my two Grandsons Edward Carter and James Carter to be paid by my Sons towards their Schooling forty Shillings each and if either of these or of my Children (being single) die before this Division that their part or parts be equally divided as before desired”

The two records above identify Mary (Wright) Carter as a daughter of 1779 Edward Wright of York County and wife of Jones Carter and indicate that she had married before September 29, 1776, and died before September 25, 1778.

Wright Of York County, Virginia, 1625-1850, by Thelma Ironmonger Hansford, stated that this daughter of 1779 Edward Wright was Mary (Wright) Carter, the wife of Jonas Carter, that her sons Edward and James Carter were twins born on September 29, 1776, and that Mary died before 1778.

From the evidence set forth above and additional evidence set forth below, the children of Mary (Wright) Carter and Jonas Carter were the following:

- 1) Edward Carter, born on September 29, 1776, in York County, Virginia, and
- 2) James Carter, born on September 29, 1776, in York County, Virginia.

(I) Edward Carter

Edward Carter was a son of Mary (Wright) Carter and Jones or Jonas Carter. (1657 Edward¹, 1695 John², 1752 John³, 1779 Edward⁴, Mary⁵)

Charles Parish, York County, Virginia, History And Registers, by Landon C. Bell, listed the birth of Edward Carter and James Carter, twin sons of Jones and Mary Carter, on September 29, 1776, in York County, Virginia:

"Carter, Edward (twin with James), son of Jones and Mary, b. Sept. 29, bap. Oct. 10, 1776.

Carter, James, (twin with Edward), son of Jones and Mary, b. Sept. 29, bap. Oct. 10, 1776."

The will of Edward Wright dated September 25, 1778, and probated on April 19, 1779, at York County, W.B. 22/421 listed Edward Carter and James Carter as his grandchildren:

"Septr. the 25th 1778

... I Edward Wright of the County of York ... do make and ordain this my last Will and Testament.

that the remainder of Stocks, Household furniture &c do remain in the hands of my Wife Ann Wright so long as she shall live, to assist her And at her Death if any thing remain that there be an Inventory taken by men appointed by my Executors and a just sale made, and the Amount to be equally divided between my Children namely, John, Edward, Sarah, Lucy and Thomas reserving for my two Grandsons Edward Carter and James Carter to be paid by my Sons towards their Schooling forty Shillings each and if either of these or of my Children (being single) die before this Division that their part or parts be equally divided as before desired”

Wright Of York County, Virginia, 1625-1850, by Thelma Ironmonger Hansford, stated that this daughter of 1779 Edward Wright was Mary (Wright) Carter, the wife of Jonas Carter, that her sons Edward and James Carter were twins born on September 29, 1776, and that Mary died before 1778.

(II) James Carter

James Carter was a son of Mary (Wright) Carter and Jones or Jonas Carter. (1657 Edward¹, 1695 John², 1752 John³, 1779 Edward⁴, Mary⁵)

Charles Parish, York County, Virginia, History And Registers, by Landon C. Bell, listed the birth of Edward Carter and James Carter, twin sons of Jones and Mary Carter, on September 29, 1776, in York County, Virginia:

"Carter, Edward (twin with James), son of Jones and Mary, b. Sept. 29, bap. Oct. 10, 1776.

Carter, James, (twin with Edward), son of Jones and Mary, b. Sept. 29, bap. Oct. 10, 1776."

The will of Edward Wright dated September 25, 1778, and probated on April 19, 1779, at York County, W.B. 22/421 listed Edward Carter and James Carter as his grandchildren:

The reservation of a life estate in John Wright is a typical family arrangement when passing family land to a child and identifies Lawrence Wright as a son of John Wright.

York County, Virginia, Land Records, 1729-1763, by Mary Marshall Brewer, also stated that on April 21, 1749, at York County, Virginia, D.B. 5/290, John Wright sold to Lawrence Wright 130 acres of land on which they both then lived:

"21 Apr 1749. Deed. John Wright of Yorkhampton Parish, York Co for L20 sold to Lawrence Wright of same parish a 130 a. tr of land in Yorkhampton Parish whereon said John & Lawrence now liveth. . . . Wit: Edmd Smith, John Gibbons, John Tenham, Edwd Moss. Proved 15 May 1749. Attest: Thos Everard clerk. (Bk 5:pg 290)"

The statement in this record that John Wright and Lawrence Wright were living on the same property indicates a family relationship. As set forth above, 1752 John Wright of York County had a son Lawrence Wright by his first marriage and that indicates that the Lawrence Wright of this record was the son of 1752 John Wright of York County.

York County, Virginia, Wills, Inventories and Court Orders, 1745-1759, by Mary Marshall Brewer, stated that on probably September 16, 1751, at York County, Virginia, O.B. 20/236, the estate of Captain John Ballard listed a payment to Lawrence Wright:

"The estate of Capt John Ballard with Elizabeth Ballard adminr. Paid sums to Lawrence Wright (Pg 236)"

The will of John Wright dated on November 14, 1751, and probated on November 20, 1752, at York County, Virginia, W.&I.B. 20/273, listed Lawrence Wright as a child of John Wright:

". . . . And the rest of my whole Estate in any kind whatever I lend unto my said Wife during her widowhood or continues my Widow but in case she Marries then my Will and desire is that my Estate may be equally divided amongst my said Wife and my Children hereafter mentioned as meaning my Sons William, John, Dudley, Benjamin and my Daughter Elizabeth Wright all Born of this Body to me of my said welbeloved Wife Ann Wright to She them and their Heirs forever and if either of the said Children should die while my said Wife remains my Widow then Will and desire is that such Child or Children part may be equally divided amongst my said Wife and Children and so to continue amongst my said Wife and Children meaning William, John, Dudley, Benjamin and Elizabeth Wright to them and their Heirs I give unto the Heirs of my daughter Ann Morland One Shilling Sterling and to my Son Edward Wright One Shilling Sterling to my Daughter Mary Morris One Shilling Sterling to my Daughter Sarah Marshall One Shilling Sterling and lastly to my Daughter Elizabeth Morland Wife of Young Morland One Shilling Sterling I also give unto my Son Lawrence Wright One Shilling Sterling"

On August 20, 1753, at York County, Virginia, W.&I.B. 20/300, the inventory and appraisement of the estate of Lawrence Wright ordered to be taken on July 16, 1753, was filed showing a total value of £89, 19s, including 1 slave:

This record indicates that Ann (____) Wright died before November 15, 1756, in York County, Virginia. The similarity of the items listed in the inventories of Lawrence Wright and Ann Wright indicate that they were husband and wife.

On August 20, 1759, at York County, Virginia, Guardians Accounts, page 246, Edward Wright filed his guardianship accounting which indicated that his ward had died in 1758 and on August 16, 1762, at York County, Virginia, Guardians Accounts, page 290, Edward Wright filed his guardianship accounting which indicated that his ward had died in 1761.

From the evidence set forth above, the children of 1753 Lawrence Wright of York County and Ann (____) Wright were the following:

- 1) ____ Wright, a son, before Nov 15, 1756, and
- 2) ____ Wright, a son, before Nov 15, 1756.

i. 1758 ____ Wright of York County

1758 ____ Wright of York County was a child of 1753 Lawrence Wright of York County and Ann (____) Wright. (1657 Edward¹, 1695 John², 1752 John³, 1753 Lawrence⁴)

On August 20, 1759, at York County, Virginia, Guardians Accounts, page 246, Edward Wright filed his guardianship accounting which indicated that his ward had died in 1758:

Wright Of York County, Virginia, 1625-1850, by Thelma Ironmonger Hansford, stated the following:

"Lawrence⁴ Wright and his wife Ann had two children:

- (1) Lawrence Wright who died 1761
- (2) Edward Wright who died 1758"

However, Ms. Hansford did not cite a source for the names of these two children and as set forth above, the guardianship accountings did not list their names. Ms. Hansford apparently took the listing of Edward Wright in the accounting as a reference to the ward rather than to the guardian of the ward.

Wright Of York County, Virginia, 1625-1850, by Thelma Ironmonger Hansford, stated with regard to this deed that:

"(Note: This particular deed holds some interest to me today, for my home is situated on part of that tract of land, Wright to Crockett to Ironmonger and to me. T.H.)"

Wright Of York County, Virginia, 1625-1850 also stated that Benjamin Wright filed a claim for damages suffered during the Revolutionary War:

"Benjamin Wright petitioned the Court for damages to his property during the Revolutionary War and he was paid six pounds eight shillings. (Claims for losses of York County Citizens, p. 78)"

This was probably a reference to an article contributed by Mrs. Catherine S. Sheild and published in the William and Mary Quarterly Historical Magazine, Volume 15, 2nd Series, No. 2, pages 173-175, in April 1935.

Although the acreage was listed as 100 acres rather than 110 acres, the land sold in this deed is clearly the same land as that purchased by Benjamin Wright in York County Deed 6/7. This deed also indicates that both Lucy (Patrick) Wright and her son Benjamin Wright had died before April 18, 1812, and that Benjamin Wright had no children in order for the ownership of the land to vest in John, Edward, and William Wright pursuant to the terms of the will of their father Benjamin Wright.

This record identifies the children of 1793 Benjamin Wright and Lucy (Patrick) Wright as follows:

- 1) Elizabeth (Wright) Stroud, wife of Benjamin Stroud,
- 2) Lucy (Wright) Patrick, wife of Edmund C. Patrick,
- 3) John Wright,
- 4) Edward Wright,
- 5) William Wright, and
- 6) Nancy (Wright) Hogg, wife of Lewis Hogg.

From the evidence set forth above and additional evidence set forth below, the children of 1793 Benjamin Wright and Lucy (Patrick) Wright were the following:

- 1) Elizabeth Curtis (Wright) (Campbell) Stroud, born on November 20, 1768, in York County, Virginia,
- 2) Benjamin Wright, born on August 13, 1775, in York County, Virginia,
- 3) Frances "Fanny" (Wright) Stroud, born on February 12, 1778, in York County, Virginia,
- 4) John Wright, born between about 1780 and 1784,
- 5) Nancy (Wright) Hogg,
- 6) Edward Wright, born after 1788 and before April 18, 1791,
- 7) William Wright, born after 1790 and before April 18, 1791, and
- 8) Lucy (Wright) Patrick.

i. Elizabeth Curtis (Wright) (Campbell) Stroud, Her Husbands John Campbell And Benjamin Stroud, And Her Descendants

Elizabeth Curtis (Wright) (Campbell) Stroud was a daughter of 1793 Benjamin Wright of York County and Lucy (Patrick) Wright. (1657 Edward¹, 1695 John², 1752 John³, 1793 Benjamin⁴)

Charles Parish, York County, Virginia, History And Registers, by Landon C. Bell, listed the birth of Elizabeth Curtis Wright, daughter of Benjamin and Lucy Wright, on November 20, 1768, in York County, Virginia:

"Wright, Eliza. Curtis, dau. of Benja. and Lucy, b. Nov 20, 1768, bap. Jan 1, 1769."

York County, Virginia, Marriage Bonds And Consents, 1772-1850, available from FamilySearch.org, listed the consent of Benjamin Wright to the marriage of his daughter to John Campbell:

"I Do hearby Certify I Do Consent that Mr. John Campbell may Mary My Daughter from Under My hand. Decber. Ye 22 1787

BenJamin Wright"

Early Virginia Marriages, edited by William Armstrong Crozier, listed the marriage of Elizabeth Wright, daughter of Benjamin Wright of Yorkhampton Parish, and John Campbell on December 24, 1787, in York County, Virginia:

"York County

. . . .

December 24, 1787, John Campbell and Eliz. Wright, daughter of Benj. Wright of Yorkhampton parish"

York County, Virginia, Marriage Bonds And Consents, 1772-1850, available from FamilySearch.org, listed the marriage of Elizabeth Campbell and Benjamin Stroud on September 4, 1799, in York County, Virginia:

"Know all men by these presents that we Benjamin Stroud & Benjamin Wright are held and jointly bound unto James Wood Esquire Governor or Chief Magistrate of the Commonwealth of Virginia and his Successors in the just and full sum of one hundred and fifty Dollars to be paid to the said Governor and his Successors To which payment well and truly to be made we bind ourselves jointly and severally our joint and several Heirs Executors and Administrators firmly by these presents sealed with our seals and dated this fourth day of September 1799

The condition of the above obligation is such that whereas there is a marriage intended shortly to be had and solemnized between the above bound Benjamin Stroud and Elizabeth Campbell Widow both of the Parish of Yorkhampton and County of York Now if there be no lawful Cause to obstruct the said marriage then the above obligation to be void or else to remain in full force and virtue

This record indicates that Elizabeth Curtis (Wright) (Campbell) Stroud's first husband John Campbell had died before September 4, 1799.

The 1810 Census for York County, Virginia, listed Benjamin Stroud with the following household on August 6, 1810:

Name of Head of Family	Free White Males	Age	Free White Female	Age	All Other Free Persons	Slaves
Benj Stroud	1	26-45	1	16-26
	2	10-16
	2	0-10

This record indicates that Benjamin Stroud was born between about 1765 and 1784.

On January 17, 1814, at York County, Virginia, J.&O.B. 8/581, the court ordered the assignment of Elizabeth Stroud's dower interest in the estate of Benjamin Stroud, deceased:

"Ordered that Caleb Fisher, John Fox, John A Rogers and William Tabb or any three of them do allot set apart and assign unto Elizabeth Stroud Widow and relict of Benjamin Stroud decd. her Dower in the lands tenements slaves &c whereof her said Husband died seized and possessed and make report thereof to this Court."

This record indicates that Benjamin Stroud had died before January 17, 1814.

On June 20, 1814, at York County, Virginia, J.&O.B. 8/600, the court ordered a division of the personal estate of Benjamin Stroud, deceased, between Elizabeth Curtis (Wright) (Campbell) Stroud and two minor children of Benjamin Stroud:

"At a Court of Quarterly Sessions held for York County at the Courthouse in the Town of York on Monday the twentieth day of June in the year of our Lord 1814 in the 38th year of the Commonwealth.

- And having so done, then the Commissioners aforesaid shall proceed to divide the balance of the estate into three equal portions; one to be allotted to the Complt. in fee simple as one of the heirs of her Infant Children deceased, the other two thirds to the Defendants; and if the Commssioners aforesaid shall find it necessary in the execution of this decree to sell the slaves aforesaid, then they are hereby ordered to proceed to sell the same on a credit of twelve months, taking Bond or Bonds with approved Security, returning the same to Court with a report of any matters required by the parties or thought pertinent by themselves in order to a final decree."

This record indicates that Elizabeth Curtis (Wright) (Campbell) Stroud and Benjamin Stroud had had children who were then deceased.

Wright Of York County, Virginia, 1625-1850, by Thelma Ironmonger Hansford, stated that:

"B. Richard⁶ Stroud, son of Elizabeth⁵ Curtis Wright Stroud and her second husband, Benjamin Stroud, was born about 1800. He died in childhood."

However, Ms. Hanford did not provide a source for the identification of Richard Stroud as a son of Benjamin Stroud and the court order set forth above did not list the names of the deceased children.

On April 20, 1818, at York County, Virginia, J.&O.B. 9/279, the following order was recorded:

This record identifies Elizabeth (Wright) (Campbell) Stroud as a daughter of 1793 Benjamin Wright and the wife of Benjamin Stroud.

Neither Benjamin Stroud nor Elizabeth (Wright) (Campbell) Stroud has as yet been found in the 1820 or 1830 Censuses.

The will of Elizabeth Stroud was dated on March 15, 1837, probated on January

20, 1840, at York County, Virginia, W.B. 12/205, and provided as follows:

Hogg Families Of York And Gloucester Counties, VA., by Elizabeth Hogg

"Lewis Hogg Sr. (173-1852).

Another Hogg family group, now of York County and elsewhere, had its beginnings in Gloucester County, according to census records but the link is missing that would connect them in the right spot. It is the record of Lewis Hogg Sr. and his many descendants, all of whom trace easily from 1773 to 1967. It seems probable, though not proven, that he was the son of Stephen Hogg (1753) or of George Hogg (1746) Stephen's brother. Lewis Hogg Sr. was born in Gloucester County, Va. in 1773;(18) married Nancy Wright in York County February 16, 1801(19); purchased land in York County and reared a family. The first wife died and Lewis Hogg Sr. married, secondly, Elizabeth Campbell, January 9, 1830.(20) She was born in 1788; her mother was a Miss Wright.

An extensive search has been made to find his parentage but it has produced only the authentic statement that he was born in Gloucester in 1773. Some of his descendants, as well as descendants of the two Hogg branches already traced, know that they were cousins but no one at this time can say by what route this cousinship developed.

His home and plantation of 203½ acres was known as Hogg's Field and remained in possession of this branch of the family more than half a century. It is the land on which the York High School, Yorktown Elementary School, St. Joan of Arc Catholic Church, Crooks Memorial Methodist Church (second location) and the community Edge Hill, Yorktown have been built (1967) and other outlying lands.

Lewis Hogg¹ Sr.'s marriage to Nancy Wright of York County has already been mentioned. It took place February 16, 1801.(28) They had five children:(29)

- I. Lucy Hogg², born 1802;
- II. George Hogg², born 1804;
- III. Lewis Hogg² the Younger, born ca 1805;
- IV. Benjamin Hogg², born ca. 1807;
- V. Edward Hogg², born 1810.

Nancy Wright Hogg, mother of these children died after they reached maturity, and Lewis Hogg¹ married, secondly Miss Elizabeth Campbell, January 9, 1830.(28) Elizabeth Campbell's parents were John Campbell and Elizabeth Wright, who were married December 24, 1787. After Campbell's death the widow married Benjamin Stroud, a widower by whom she had no living children. Stroud died in 1810. Elizabeth Campbell was reared in the home of her Stroud step-father and may have been called Elizabeth Stroud, but her marriage bond naming Elizabeth Campbell, and will of her uncle William Wright that follows, give proof of her name.

Lewis¹ Hogg Sr. and his second wife, Elizabeth Campbell Hogg had one son,

- VI. Alexander Hogg², born October 10, 1830.(30)

Wright Of York County, Virginia, 1625-1850, by Thelma Ironmonger Hansford and published in 1987, stated with regard to Lewis Hogg that:

"For some years Lewis Hogg rented the Philip Dedman farm in Yorkhampton Parish on the Yorkhampton Highway, about three miles below Yorktown. Then he later bought the 203½ acres tract that became known as "Hogg's Field". York High School is situated on part of that plantation."

Wright Of York County, Virginia, 1625-1850 also stated the following regarding Nancy (Wright) Hogg:

"(4) Anne (Nancy)⁵ Wright, daughter of Benjamin⁴ Wright (John J.³; John², Edward¹) and his wife Lucy Wright, was born ca. 1780. She married Lewis Hogg February 16, 1801. (York Marriage Bond) They lived midway between Yorktown and Harris Grove on the York-Hampton Highway. They had five children:

- A. Lucy⁶ Hogg, born 1802
- B. George⁶ Hogg born 1804
- C. Lewis⁶ Hogg Jr. born 1805
- D. Benjamin⁶ Hogg born 1807
- E. Edward⁶ Hogg born 1810

Nancy⁵ Wright Hogg died ca. 1829 and her husband married secondly her niece, Elizabeth⁶ Campbell in 1830."

Lewis Hogg is discussed again and further in Section XXIII.A.2.h.v. below regarding his first wife Nancy (Wright) Hogg.

From the evidence set forth above and additional evidence set forth below, the child of Elizabeth (Campbell) Hogg and Lewis Hogg was the following:

- 1) Alexander Hogg, born on October 10, 1830, or in about 1831 in York County, Virginia.

(A) Alexander O. Hogg, His Wife Eliza Buckner (Cooke) Hogg, And His Descendants

Alexander O. Hogg was a son of Elizabeth (Campbell) Hogg and Lewis Hogg. (1657 Edward¹, 1695 John², 1752 John³, 1793 Benjamin⁴, Elizabeth Curtis⁵)

The will of Elizabeth Stroud dated on March 15, 1837, and probated on January 20, 1840, at York County, Virginia, W.B. 12/205, listed Alexander Hogg as her grandson:

"In the Name of God Amen I Elizabeth Stroud of the County of York and State of Virginia being of sound mind and memory, do make and ordain this my last Will and Testament:

Newspapers.com listed the following obituary for Eliza Buckner (Cook) Hogg dated on Wednesday, May 23, 1900, in the Richmond Times-Dispatch, Richmond, Virginia, and listed her death on May 20, 1900:

"Mrs. E. B. Hogg.

Mrs. Eliza Buckner Hogg, wife of Prof. Alexander Hogg, former superintendent of public schools of Fort Worth, Tex., but at the present time editor of the Texas and Pacific Quarterly, died on Sunday last after a brief illness. Her maiden name was Eliza Buckner Cook, and she was the oldest daughter of Mordecai and Julia Elden Cook, of Gloucester county, Virginia, and related to the Russels, Taliaferros, Buckners, Stubbs, and Dabneys of this State. She was married to Professor Hogg, December 29, 1859, and they lived in Virginia several years. After the war they moved to Auburn, Ala., where Professor Hogg occupied the chair of mathematics in the Agricultural and Mechanical College. Later they moved to Montgomery, Ala., and afterward to Texas, going to Fort Worth in 1882."

Alexander O. Hogg has not as yet been found in the 1900 Census.

Newspapers.com listed the following obituary for Alexander Hogg dated on Friday, August 11, 1911, in The Baltimore Sun, Baltimore, Maryland:

"Aged Educator Dies Here

Professor Hogg Was Once Head Of Schools Of Fort Worth, Texas.

After a lingering illness of two months at Johns Hopkins Hospital, Prof. Alexander Hogg, 81 years old, of Fort Worth, Texas, died there at noon yesterday.

Professor Hogg was a well-known educator in the Southwest and was called the pioneer of education in Texas. He had been professor in several colleges both in Texas and other States and for 15 years was superintendent of schools in Fort Worth. He was best known throughout the country as the author of a book, "The Railroad in Education."

He was a graduate of the University of Virginia and was a classmate there of the late Major Richard M. Venable, of Baltimore.

Three daughters, Mrs. T. J. Powell, Mrs. Percy Wynne and Miss Mary Lulie Hogg, all of Fort Worth, survive. The last named was with her father when he died.

The body will be sent today to Fort Worth for burial."

Findagrave.com listed the gravestone of Alexander Hogg in Oakwood Cemetery, Fort Worth, Tarrant County, Texas:

"Alexander Hogg

Mark the perfect man,

The death record of Mary Lulie Hogg dated on October 4, 1955, in Fort Worth, Tarrant County, Texas, listed her parents as Alexander Hogg and Eliza Buckner Cooke and her birth on April 9, 1865, in Virginia.

Hogg Families Of York And Gloucester Counties, VA., by Elizabeth Hogg Ironmonger and published in 1968, stated in part the following regarding Alexander Hogg:

"VI. Alexander Hogg², sixth and youngest child of Lewis Hogg¹, and only child of his second wife, Elizabeth Campbell Hogg, was born October 10, 1830, on a farm near Yorktown. Before he was ten years old, his grandmother bequeathed him all of her property.

"As a farm boy, Alexander Hogg² worked on the farm in summer but in winter he pursued his studies at the old-fashioned academy. When he completed his classes offered there, he determined to go to college. He chose the plan for further study, but ready money for college expenses was lacking and must be earned. This was done by teaching and surveying. There being no building suitable to teach in, he built with his own hands a log school house. Soon thereafter, the young teacher entered Randolph-Macon College where he graduated in 1854 with the M. A. degree.

At the death of his father, which occurred during his second year in College, the Yorktown farm came into his possession, and although his interest was never again centered there, he could not be induced to part with it until he was past seventy years of age; this was his part and parcel of his native state.

Immediately upon his graduation from Randolph-Macon College he was employed by Jefferson Stubbs of Gloucester County and he opened a school for boys, giving of his first years' earnings, one hundred dollars to build the Cappahosic Academy."(64)

While in Gloucester he lived in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jefferson Stubbs and there he met Miss Eliza Buckner Cooke, a cousin of Mrs. Stubbs, whom he married December 29, 1859. (Gloucester Register)

Just after marriage, he became a student at the University of Virginia, Charlottesville where he graduated with the L.L.D. degree.

After leaving the University, Professor Hogg continued in his chosen profession, accepting a position of professor of Latin and Greek in the Murfreesboro College for young men in North Carolina. At this time the Civil War broke out, the College closed its doors in 1862 and he returned to Gloucester County and reopened his old school. Soon he joined the Confederate army as a cavalryman. His services were completely absorbed in nursing wounded soldiers. After the Civil War he was professor in the following schools: Wesleyan Female College, North Carolina; Washington College, Chestertown, Maryland; Agricultural and Mechanical College of Alabama; and the A and M College of Texas.

In the fall of 1882, Professor Hogg's noteworthy connection with the schools of Fort Worth, Texas took place - that work which entitled him to be named as the "Father of the School System of Fort Worth." He retired in 1906 having served for 24 years as superintendent of schools in Fort Worth, Waxahachie and Dallas.(65) There is a school building in Fort Worth named in his honor, the "Alexander Hogg Elementary School of Fort Worth, Texas."

Professor Alexander Hogg visited friends and relatives in York and Gloucester Counties occasionally, after settling in Fort Worth. One such visit took place in September 1908 and a news item in the York Reporter, weekly newspaper of Hampton and York County recorded the visit as,

"Professor Alex Hogge (note the spelling) of Texas, is visiting friends in York County."

To this personal item the professor felt called upon to reply, and thus "set the record straight" as to the correct spelling of his name. The next week's edition of the York Reporter carried his comment and reply, as follows:

"Editor York Reporter: Dear Sir, - Doubtless you intended the above 'personal' as a compliment to myself, and for which please accept my thanks. But you are mistaken as to the family (or "breed"). My father lived for eighty-five years, and always spelled his name Hogg. He was very proud of the family name; so am I -

If any one wishes to look into the genealogy of this branch of the family (there seems to be other Hoggs), it will be found in Murray's Biographical Dictionary - . I am not acquainted with the family spelling their name with an appended "e" and feel that they must be an entirely separate and new family, not related at all to,

Your very obedient servant, Alexander Hogg.
Belvin, Va. September 30, 1908.(66)

Alexander² Hogg and his wife Eliza B. Cooke Hogg had four children:

- A. Mary Lulie Hogg³, born April 9, 1865;
- B. Walter Delaney Hogg³, born July 17, 1867;
- C. Virginia Dabney Hogg³, born March 17, 1869;
- D. Julia Ellen Hogg³, born about 1872.

In 1900 Alexander Hogg had a handsome colonial home of "gracious architecture, traditional beauty and generous proportions", built in Fort Worth, after having lived in that city 18 years. The same year (1900) his wife, Eliza B. Cooke Hogg died. The funeral service for her was conducted in the home. After her death the father gave the home to his eldest daughter Mary Lulie Hogg who continued to live in it 55 years. The father resided with her the balance of his life. He died in Johns Hopkins Hospital, Baltimore , Md. August 10, 1911 and was buried in Fort Worth.

Wright Of York County, Virginia, 1625-1850, by Thelma Ironmonger Hansford and published in 1987, stated with regard to Alexander Hogg that:

"Elizabeth⁶ Campbell Hogg and her husband Lewis Hogg had one child namely: Alexander⁷ Hogg born October 10, 1830

Alexander⁷ Hogg persued his education locally and entered Randolph Macon

College where he graduated in 1854. Then he was employed as a teacher of boys in Gloucester County, Virginia. While there he met Miss Eliza Buckner Cooke whom he married December 29, 1859. (Gloucester Marriage Register) He later studied at the University of Virginia and received his graduate degree. He continued his teaching profession in various Southern State Colleges and eventually went to Texas.

Alexander Hogg and his wife had four children. He died August 10, 1911 and was buried in fort Worth, Texas."

ii. 1803 Benjamin Wright Of York County And His Wife
Welley () Wright

1803 Benjamin Wright of York County was a son of 1793 Benjamin Wright of York County and Lucy (Patrick) Wright. (1657 Edward¹, 1695 John², 1752 John³, 1793 Benjamin⁴)

Charles Parish, York County, Virginia, History And Registers, by Landon C. Bell, listed the birth of Benjamin Wright, son of Benjamin and Lucy Wright, on August 13, 1775:

"Wright, Benjamin, son of Benja. and Lucy, b. Aug. 13, bapt. Sept 19, 1775."

The will of 1793 Benjamin Wright, undated but probated on October 21, 1793, at York County, Virginia, W.&I.B. 23/390, listed Benjamin Wright as his eldest son:

". . . . I Benjamin Wright do make and ordain this to be my last Will and Testament as follows Vice.

I lend unto my loving Wife my land and all my other estate during her natural life to bring up my Children upon and at her decease I leave and bequeath unto my eldest son Benjan Wright my house and Land, and all things apartaing thereto and at the death of my loving Wife I desire that my other estate both Slaves and other property should be equally divided between my other Children then living & And if my Wife should deceise before my young Children should be able to care for themselves I desire that my eldest son Benjamin should take them and their part of my estate to bring them up upon, and give them education, and if any of my Children should die under age, I desire that my son Benjamin should have their part of my estate to assist in bringing up the rest of my Children &c And I leave my loving Wife and Mr. John Patrick and Mr. Robert Armsted Exetors to this my last Will and Testament. But if my son Benjamin should die without Issue, I desire that my Land be divided between my three sons John Edward and William Wright &c

The will of 1803 Benjamin Wright was dated on February 17, 1803, probated on September 19, 1803, at York County, Virginia, W.&I.B. 23/630, and provided as follows:

"In the name of God amen I Benjamin Wright of the County of York and Parish of York Hampton being weak of body but of perfect mind and memory do make and appoint this my last Will and Testament in manner and form as followeth. I give to my Wife Welley Wright all my Estate during her life and at her death to be equally divided between my Brothers and Sisters In Witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and affixed my Seal this seventeenth day of February in the year of our Lord eighteen hundred and three

This Will was proved by the oath of Lewis Hogg a Witness thereto and ordered to be recorded."

This record identifies the wife of 1803 Benjamin Wright as Welley (____) Wright.

On December 17, 1810, at York County, Virginia, W.&I.B. 23/796, an accounting of the estate of 1803 Benjamin Wright was filed showing 37£, 1 shilling, and 5 pence in the estate.

As set forth above, on April 18, 1812, at York County, Virginia, D.B. 8/161, John Wright and his wife Martha Wright, Edward Wright, and William Wright of York County sold to John A. Rogers the 100 acres of land on Chismans Creek left to them by their father Benjamin Wright. This deed indicates that both Lucy (Patrick) Wright and her son Benjamin Wright had died before April 18, 1812, and that Benjamin Wright had no children in order for the ownership of the land to vest in John, Edward, and William Wright pursuant to the terms of the will of their father Benjamin Wright.

iii. Frances "Fanny" (Wright) Stroud, Her Husband
James Stroud, And Her Descendants

Frances "Fanny" (Wright) Stroud was a daughter of 1793 Benjamin Wright of York County and Lucy (Patrick) Wright. (1657 Edward¹, 1695 John², 1752 John³, 1793 Benjamin⁴)

Charles Parish, York County, Virginia, History And Registers, by Landon C. Bell, listed the birth of Fanny Wright, daughter of Benjamin and Lucy Wright, on February 12, 1778:

"Wright, Fanny, dau. of Benja. and Lucy, b. Feb 12, bap. March 15, 1778."

The marriage record of Frances Wright and James Stroud was dated on September 4, 1799, at York County, Virginia:

Findagrave.com also listed the following for James Stroud:

"James lived all his life in York County, marrying Dianna Belvin, the daughter of a Revolutionary Patriot. They had six children: James, Diana, William, Frances, Mahala and John. The early Strouds are buried on the Stroud-Hansford Burial Site in Seaford and on the land of one of the Stroud descendants in Seaford. Thelma Ironmonger Hansford, an accomplished York County historian and school teacher, showed the big barn under which some of the older Strouds are now buried (descendants are buried at Zion Methodist Church Cemetery in Seaford, York Co, Va).

The will of James Stroud was dated on February 20, 1830, probated on May 17, 1830, at York County, Virginia, W.B. 11/319, and provided as follows:

"In the name of God amen I James Shroud of the County of York and state of Virginia being of sound mind do make and ordain this my last will and Testament in manner and form following, to wit

Imprimis I desire that all my just debts be first paid. Secondly, I give my wife one third of my Estate and in addition thereto I desire that she may receive sixty dollars for the maintenance and support of my three youngest children Mahala Frances and John. It is likewise my wish that she if she thinks proper take the plantation on which I live and which I have rented for four years and pay one half the rent to my administrator hereinafter named for the benefit of my Estate. Thirdly I desire that the residue of my property be sold and equally divided between all my children viz my sons Thomas, Benjamin, James, William and John Stroud and my Daughters Elizabeth Burcher, Nancy, Deanna, Mahala and Frances Stroud and Lastly I do hereby nominate and appoint my friend Doctor Fred B Powers Executor to this my last Will and Testament earnestly requesting that he will act In Witness whereof I have hereunto set my Hand and affixed my seal this twentieth day of February 1830

- 1) Thomas Stroud,
- 2) Benjamin Stroud,
- 3) James Stroud,
- 4) William Stroud,
- 5) John Stroud,
- 6) Elizabeth (Stroud) Burcher,
- 7) Nancy Stroud,
- 8) Deanna Stroud,

- 9) Mahala Stroud, and
- 10) Frances Stroud.

Comparing the children listed in the will with the six children listed as from his second marriage to Dianna (Belvin) Stroud, the children by his first marriage to Frances (Wright) Stroud were the following:

- 1) Thomas Stroud,
- 2) Benjamin Stroud,
- 3) Elizabeth (Stroud) Burcher, and
- 4) Nancy Stroud.

In addition, the 1810 Census listed three children in the James Stroud household all of whom were under age 10 and one female age 16 to 26, which would be too young to be his first wife Frances (Wright) Stroud who married in 1799. This census record and the list of children indicates that the four children were all born between 1799 and 1810 and that his second marriage occurred before August 6, 1810.

This record identifies Thomas Stroud and Benjamin Stroud as sons of James Stroud by his first marriage and James Stroud, Mahala Stroud, and William Stroud as children by James Stroud's second marriage.

From the evidence set forth above and additional evidence set forth below, the children of Frances (Wright) Stroud and James Stroud were the following:

- 1) Thomas Stroud, born between 1800 and 1810 probably in York County, Virginia,
- 2) Benjamin Stroud, born between 1800 and 1810 probably in York County, Virginia,
- 3) Elizabeth (Stroud) Burcher, born between 1800 and 1810 probably in York County, Virginia, and
- 4) Nancy Stroud, born between 1800 and 1810.

(I) Thomas Stroud And His Wives Anna (Jordan)

Nancy Ann (Presson) (Stroud) Wright

Thomas Stroud was a son of Frances (Wright) Stroud and James Stroud. (1657 Edward¹, 1695 John², 1752 John³, 1793 Benjamin⁴, Frances⁵)

The 1810 Census for York County, Virginia, listed James Stroud with two males aged 0 to 10 in his household, indicating a date of birth for Thomas Stroud between 1800 and 1810. As set forth above, James Stroud resided in York County, Virginia, during this time and so the place of birth was probably in York County, Virginia.

Virginia, County Marriage Records, 1771-1989, available from FamilySearch.org, listed the marriage of Thomas Stroud and Anna Jordan on March 18, 1818, in York

County, Virginia:

"Stroud, Thomas - Anna Jordan March 18, 1818 331"

The 1819 Personal Property Tax List for York County, Virginia, listed Thomas Stroud on April 27, 1819, with 1 white tithe and 1 slave over 16.

The 1822 Personal Property Tax List for York County, Virginia, listed Thomas Stroud on February 27, 1822, with 1 white tithe.

The 1823 Personal Property Tax List for York County, Virginia, listed Thomas Stroud on March 18, 1823, with 1 slave over 16.

The 1824, 1825, and 1826 Personal Property Tax Lists for York County, Virginia, did not list a Thomas Stroud.

Virginia, County Marriage Records, 1771-1989, available from FamilySearch.org, listed the marriage of Thomas Stroud and ____ Presson on December 23, 1826, in York County, Virginia:

"Stroud, Thomas - ____ Presson Dec. 23, 1826 330"

The 1827 Personal Property Tax List for York County, Virginia, listed Thomas Stroud on March 18, 1827, with 1 white tithe.

The 1828 and 1829 Personal Property Tax Lists for York County, Virginia, did not list a Thomas Stroud.

The 1830 Personal Property Tax List for York County, Virginia, listed two Thomas Strouds, one Thomas Stroud, Sr., on April 2, 1830, with 1 white tithe and one Thomas Stroud, Jr., on April 14, 1830, with 1 white tithe.

The will of James Stroud dated on February 20, 1830, and probated on May 17, 1830, at York County, Virginia, W.B. 11/319, listed Thomas Stroud as one of his children:

". . . . I James Shroud of the County of York and state of Virginia being of sound mind do make and ordain this my last will and Testament in manner and form following, to wit

This record indicates that Martha (Belvin) Wright was born in about 1790.

On September 17, 1855, at York County, Virginia, W.B. 13/399, James Wright, as curator, filed an Inventory and Appraisement and Account of Sales of the estate of Martha Wright dated April 21, 1853, with sales to Benjamin Wright, James Wright, and William Wright.

Virginia, Select Marriages, 1785-1940, available from Ancestry.com, listed the marriage of John Wright and Rosa East on October 18, 1855, in York County, Virginia, and his parents as John and Patsy Wright. Patsy was a nickname for Martha and this record identifies John Wright's parents as John Wright and Martha (Belvin) Wright.

From the evidence set forth above and additional evidence set forth below, the children of 1843 John Wright and Martha (Belvin) Wright were the following:

- 1) John Wright, born in about 1811 or 1813 in York County, Virginia,
- 2) Probably Benjamin Wright,
- 3) Edward Wright,
- 4) James W. Wright, born in about 1822 or 1825 in York County, Virginia,
- 5) William Wright born in about 1818 or 1821 or 1822 or 1824 or 1828 in York County, Virginia,
- 6) Martha Wright, born in about 1815 or 1826 in York County, Virginia, and
- 7) Elizabeth Wright, born in about 1828 in York County, Virginia.

(I) John Wright, His Wives Nancy (____) Wright,
Probably Nancy Ann (Presson) (Stroud)
Wright, And Rosanna (East) Wright, And His Descendants

John Wright was a son of 1843 John Wright of York County and Martha (Belvin) Wright. (1657 Edward¹, 1695 John², 1752 John³, 1793 Benjamin⁴, 1843 John⁵)

The marriage record of John Wright, the son of 1843 John Wright of York County, and his first wife Nancy (____) Wright has not as yet been found. That first wife may have been Nancy (Presson) (Stroud) Wright. As more fully set forth below, Thelma Ironmonger Hansford in her work Wright Of York County, Virginia, 1625-1850 identified this John Wright's wife as "Ann (Nancy) Presson Stroud, the widow of Thomas Stroud who had died March 17, 1832". There is a marriage record of Thomas Stroud and ____ Presson, daughter of Thomas Presson, dated December 23, 1826, in York County, Virginia. And on March 17, 1832, at York County, Virginia, W.B. 11/4, an Inventory and Account of Sales for the estate of Thomas Stroud was filed with numerous listings of Ann Stroud as a purchaser as well as the Widow as a purchaser. On December 17, 1844, in York County, Virginia, Deed 14/91, the wife of this John Wright was listed as Nancy (____) Wright. And the 1850 Census listed Nancy Wright in the William Stroud household with a Thomas Stroud, age 24, in the same household. Taken together, these records indicate that Ms. Hansford's identification was probably correct, but further research will be required to confirm that ____ Presson, Ann Stroud, and Nancy (____) Wright were all the same person.

On December 17, 1844, at York County, Virginia, D.B. 14/91, John Wright and his wife Nancy Wright sold to Benjamin Wright 3¾ acres of land in York County:

"This Indenture made the 17th day of December in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Eight hundred and forty four Between Jno. Wright and Nancy his wife of the County of York of the one part and Banja. Virginia, Select Marriages, 1785-1940, available from Ancestry.com, listed the marriage of John Wright and Rosa East on October 18, 1855, in York County, Virginia:

"Name	John Wright
Gender	Male
Marital Status	Widowed
Age	42
Birth Date	1813
Birth Place	York Co.
Marriage Date	18 Oct 1855
Marriage Place	York, Virginia
Father	Jno. Wright

The listing of John Wright as a widower may indicate that Nancy (____) Wright had died before October 18, 1855. However, widowhood was sometimes used as a euphemism for divorce and further research will be required to determine whether John Wright and Nancy (____) Wright had divorced or she had died.

The 1860 Census for York County, Virginia, listed John Wright with the following household on July 10, 1860:

Name	Age	Sex	Color	Occupation	Value of Real Estate

This record indicates that John Wright and Rosanna (East) Wright were born in about 1811.

Wright Of York County, Virginia, 1625-1850, by Thelma Ironmonger Hansford, listed John "Jack" Wright as a son of 1843 John Wright and Martha (Belvin) Wright:

"A. John⁶ (Jack) Wright Jr., son of John Wright and his wife Martha Belvin Wright, was born 1811. (Census) He married Ann (Nancy) Presson Stroud, the widow of Thomas Stroud who had died March 17, 1832. Nancy Stroud Wright heired land from her first husband's estate and she continued to live on it after her Wright marriage. Her Wright children later heired it after her death, but they sold back to members of the Stroud family. (It was located between Landing Road and the Cluverious-Harris property.)

Their children were:

- (A) Ann⁷ (Nancy) Wright born 1836 (York 1850 Census)
- (B) John⁷ (Jack) Wright Jr, born 1838 (Census)

John⁶ (Jack) Wright had died before the 1850 Census. Ann (Nancy) Presson Stroud Wright was born 1802 according to 1850 Census."

Ms. Hansford apparently interpreted the absence of John Wright from the 1850 Census listing for Nancy Wright as an indication that he had died, but the 1855 marriage record to Rosa East contradicts that conclusion.

From the evidence set forth above and additional evidence set forth below, the children of John Wright and Nancy (____) Wright were the following:

- 1) Nancy (Wright) Hogg, born in about 1836 in Virginia, and
- 2) John Wright, born in about 1838 or 1840 in Virginia.

(A) Nancy (Wright) Hogg, Her Husband
Samuel Hogg, And Her Descendants

Nancy (Wright) Hogg was a daughter of John Wright and Nancy (____) Wright. (1657 Edward¹, 1695 John², 1752 John³, 1793 Benjamin⁴, 1843 John⁵, John⁶)

The 1850 Census for York County, Virginia, listed Nancy Wright with her mother Nancy Wright in the William Stroud household on September 24, 1850, and her age as 14 and born in Virginia, indicating a date of birth in about 1836.

The marriage record of Nancy Wright has not as yet been found. However, as set forth below, Thelma Ironmonger Hansford in her work Wright Of York County, Virginia, 1625-1850 stated that Nancy Wright married Samuel Hogg in 1856.

The 1860 Census for York County, Virginia, listed Samuel Hogg with the following household on July 16, 1860:

Name	Age	Sex	Color	Occupation	Value of Real Estate

The presence of John Wright in this household indicates that the Nancy Hogg of this record was Nancy (Wright) Hogg. This record also indicates that Nancy (Wright) Hogg was born in about 1836 and that Samuel Hogg was born in about 1835.

Virginia, Select Marriages, 1785-1940, available from Ancestry.com, listed the marriage of Samuel Hogg and his second wife Maria J. Lindsey on April 25, 1866, in York County, Virginia:

"Name	Samuel Hogg

This record indicates that Nancy (Wright) Hogg had died before April 25, 1866.

Newspapers.com listed the following obituary for Samuel Hogg dated on Saturday, February 15, 1908, in the Virginia Gazette, Williamsburg, Virginia, and his death on February 10, 1908:

"Death of Capt. Samuel Hogg

Capt. Samuel Hogg, one of the most widely known rivermen of this section, died very suddenly Monday morning at his home in Tampico, York county. Captain

Hogg has not been well for some time but his condition was not thought to be serious. Yesterday morning he arose apparently in his usual health but before breakfast he dropped to the floor and was dead before assistance could reach him. Heart failure was pronounced the cause of his death.

Capt. Hogg, who was seventy-two years of age, had been a resident of York county nearly all his life and was widely known and respected. For many years he had been engaged in the oyster business and had amassed considerable wealth. He is survived by his wife and eight children: Mrs. Florence Hansford, of Dandy, Va; W. H. Hogg, A. B. Hogg, C. J. Hogg, Miss Fannie Lee Hogg, Mrs. Rosa Callis, J. Samuel Hogg, of Crab Neck, and J. Thomas Hogg, of Oyster Point. He is also survived by a brother Lewis Hogg who resides at Tampico.

The funeral services were held at Grafton church Wednesday morning at 11 o'clock, Rev. A. B. Childress conducting the services. The interment was at Grafton."

Findagrave.com listed the gravestone of Samuel Hogg in Hornsbyville Baptist Church Cemetery, Hornsbyville, York County, Virginia:

The death record of Florence S. (Hogge) Hansford dated on May 3, 1937, in Warwick County, Virginia, listed her parents as Samuel Hogge, born in York County, Virginia, and Nancy Wright, born in York County, Virginia, and her birth on October 6, 1864, in York County, Virginia.

Wright Of York County, Virginia, 1625-1850, by Thelma Ironmonger Hansford, listed Nancy Wright as a daughter of John Wright and Nancy (Presson) (Stroud) Wright:

"(A) Ann⁷ (Nancy) Wright, daughter of John⁶ and Nancy Wright, was born 1836. She married Samuel Hogg, son of Lewis and Susan Hogg, in 1856. He, likewise, was born in 1836, March 1. They had three children:

- a. Matilda Ann Hogg born 1857
- b. Susan Florence Hogg born October 6, 1858
- c. Christopher Hogg born 1860

Ann (Nancy)⁷ Wright Hogg died in 1865 and Samuel Hogg remarried in 1866 and had eleven additional children. (He and his second wife Maria Lindsay, were my great-grandparents. T.H.)

a. Matilda⁸ Ann Hogg, born 1857, was three years old when the 1860 census was taken. She died soon thereafter.

b. Susan Florence⁸ Hogg, born October 6, 1858, married John Hansford and reared a large family. She died

For development of her lineage see Hansford and Kinsmen by Thelma Hansford.

c. Christopher⁸ Hogg died in infancy."

(B) John Wright

John Wright was a son of John Wright and Nancy (____) Wright. (1657 Edward¹, 1695 John², 1752 John³, 1793 Benjamin⁴, 1843 John⁵, John⁶)

The 1850 Census for York County, Virginia, listed John Wright with his mother Nancy Wright in the William Stroud household on September 24, 1850, and his age as 12 and born in Virginia, indicating a date of birth in about 1838.

The 1860 Census for York County, Virginia, listed John Wright in the Samuel Hogg household on July 16, 1860, his age as 22 and born in Virginia, indicating a date of birth in about 1838, and his occupation as oysterman.

The 1870 Census for York County, Virginia, listed John Wright in the William Stroud household on August 24, 1870, his age as 30 and born in Virginia, indicating a date of birth in about 1840, and his occupation as at home.

(II) Probably 1860 Benjamin Wright Of York
County, His Wife Mary A. (Speed Or Smith)
Wright, And His Descendants

1860 Benjamin Wright of York County was probably a son of 1843 John Wright of York County and Martha (Belvin) Wright. (1657 Edward¹, 1695 John², 1752 John³, 1793 Benjamin⁴, 1843 John⁵)

On December 17, 1844, at York County, Virginia, D.B. 14/91, John Wright and his wife Nancy Wright sold to Benjamin Wright 3¾ acres of land in York County:

Benjamin Wright has not as yet been found in the 1850 Census.

On September 17, 1855, at York County, Virginia, W.B. 13/399, James Wright, as curator, filed an Inventory and Appraisement and Account of Sales of the estate of Martha Wright dated April 21, 1853, with sales to Benjamin Wright, James Wright, and William Wright.

The marriage record of Benjamin Wright and Mary A. Speed or Smith has not as yet been found.

The birth record of Mary V. Wright, daughter of Benjamin and Mary A. Wright, was dated on July 10, 1855, in York County, Virginia:

"Register County of York Of Births, for the year 1855.

The birth record of George T. Wright, son of George or Benjamin and Mary Wright, was dated on September 28, 1858, in York County, Virginia:

"Register Of Births.

The clerk inadvertently listed the father's name as George in one place and Benjamin in another. As set forth below, the marriage and the death records for George Thomas Wright make clear that the father should have been listed as Benjamin Wright.

Neither the death record nor a burial record for Benjamin Wright has as yet been found.

The 1860 Census for York County, Virginia, listed Mary A. Wright with the following household on July 11, 1860:

Name	Age	Sex	Color	Occupation	Value of Real Estate
Mary A Wright	44	F		farmer	400

	Va			.
	Va			.
	Va			.

This record indicates that Mary A. (Speed or Smith) was born in about 1816. The absence of Benjamin Wright from the household indicates that he probably died before July 11, 1860. The listing of Martha Spead in this household indicates that Mary A. Wright's maiden name was Speed, but as set forth below, other records list her maiden name as Smith.

Mary A. (Speed or Smith) Wright has not as yet been found in the 1870 Census.

The marriage record of George T. Wright and Laura Ann Green dated on October 27, 1881, in Gloucester County, Virginia, listed his parents as Benjamin Wright and Mary Smith and his birth in 1857 in Gloucester County, Virginia.

The marriage record of Mary V. Wright and William J. Tilledge dated on January 16, 1890, in Norfolk, Virginia, listed her parents as B. and M. V. Wright and her birth in about 1856 in York County, Virginia.

The death record of Mary Virginia (Wright) Tillage dated on August 2, 1928, in Norfolk, Virginia, listed her parents as Benjamin Wright and Frances Smith and her birth on July 28, 1854, in York County, Virginia.

The death record of George Thomas Wright dated on August 1, 1946, in Kempsville, Princess Anne County, Virginia, listed his parents as Benjamine Wright and Mary Speed and his birth on September 30, 1858, in York County, Virginia.

Wright Of York County, Virginia, 1625-1850, by Thelma Ironmonger Hansford, listed Benjamin Wright as a son of 1843 John Wright and Martha (Belvin) Wright:

"B. Benjamin⁶ Wright, son of John⁵ (Benjamin⁴, John³ J., John², Edward¹) Wright and his wife Martha Belvin Wright, was born ca. 1813. When his mother's estate sale was held, he bought the oxen, the large desk, table, and some small items. On December 17, 1844 he sold the three and sixth eights acres of land that he heired from his father to his older brother John⁶ Wright. The boundaries are given: by lands of John Moss on the west; John C. Cluverius on the north; lands of William Knotts on the east; and Allen Chapman on the south. This would have been Back Creek Road. (York D.B. 14, pp. 91-92)

The Register for Zion Methodist Church in Seaford gives the members as of 1857 and beside his name there is written "died June 1860". Names listed with him were Mary A. Wright and Frances Wright. The 1860 Census for York County has Mary A. Wright age 44 years, so she was born in about 1816 and there were two children in her household. Benjamin⁶ Wright and his wife Mary A. Wright had:

- A. Mary⁷ Wright born 1856 (1860 census)
- B. George⁷ Wright born 1859 (1860 census)

Nothing more is known about these people."

However, the deed from John and Nancy Wright was dated on December 17, 1844, not a deed from Benjamin Wright to his brother John Wright. That second deed has not as yet been found. The result is that further research and primary source documentation will be required to confirm this identification of Benjamin Wright.

From the evidence set forth above and additional evidence set forth below, the children of 1860 Benjamin Wright and Mary A. (Speed or Smith) Wright were the following:

- 1) Mary Virginia (Wright) Tillage, born on July 28, 1849, or July 28, 1854, or July 10, 1855, or in about 1856 or 1857 in York County, Virginia,
- 2) George Thomas Wright, born in about 1857 or on September 28 or 30, 1858, or in November 1858, or in about 1859 in York County, Virginia.

(A) Mary Virginia (Wright) Tillage Or Tilledge, Her Non-Husband ,
Her Husband William Jefferson Tillage
Or Tilledge, And Her Descendants

Mary Virginia (Wright) Tillage or Tilledge

was a daughter of 1860 Benjamin Wright of York County and Mary A. (Speed or Smith) Wright. (1657 Edward¹, 1695 John², 1752 John³, 1793 Benjamin⁴, 1843 John⁵, 1860 Benjamin⁶)

The 1850 Census for Gloucester County, Virginia, listed William Tillage in the Rebecca Tillage household on August 30, 1850, and his age as 10 and born in Virginia, indicating a date of birth in about 1840. As set forth below, Mary Virginia Wright married William Jefferson Tillage as his second wife.

The birth record of Mary V. Wright, daughter of Benjamin and Mary A. Wright, was dated on July 10, 1855, in York County, Virginia:

"Register County of York Of Births, for the year 1855.

The marriage record of Mattie A. Wright and William Edward Hudgins dated on August 7, 1895, in Norfolk City, Virginia, listed her parents as _____ and Mary V. Wright and her age as 21, indicating a date of birth in about 1874.

Findagrave.com listed the gravestone of William J. Tilledge in Gloucester Point Cemetery, Gloucester Point, Gloucester County, Virginia:

"William J. Tilledge
Born
March 27, 1840
Died
Sept 8, 1896
Sweet be they sleep."

However, as set forth below, the 1900 Census listed William Jefferson Tillage as still living and the pension application of his widow listed his death on September 8, 1903. Apparently, the engraving on the gravestone incorrectly listed his death in 1896 rather than in 1903.

The 1900 Census for Gloucester County, Virginia, listed William J. Tillage with the following household on June 2, 1900:

My Commission expires June 23 1917"

On August 3, 1917, the application was rejected on the grounds that William J. Tilledge was listed as having deserted his command:

"Commonwealth of Virginia
Office Of The Auditor Of Public Accounts

August 3, 1917

Mrs. Mary V. Tillage
Norfolk, Va.

My dear Madam:

In considering your application for a pension, we regret to report that we find an unfavorable record of the service of your husband as a Confederate soldier.

Before approving claims for pensions received at this office the law requires the auditor of public accounts to request an official report of the soldier on whose service a pension is applied for. In response to our request in the case of your husband, the war department reports from the official Confederate war records that William J. Tillage of Company K, 34th Virginia Infantry, enlisted in 1862 and served until late 1864, at which time he is reported as having deserted his command. No further record is found of his service.

If, however, there is any possible way you can satisfactorily disprove this official report through affidavits of living comrades, or by an official paper at your command we will be very glad to consider it in connection with your claim.

Yours very truly,

Pension Clerk."

On August 20, 1917, John H. Cannon and John W. Cumbis replied with their affidavit that William J. Tillage had been sent to hospital in Richmond, Virginia, and served in the trenches at Yellow Tavern and until the end of the Civil War:

"Richmond, Va 8/20/17

We, John H. Cannon and John W. Cumbis hereby swear that we personally knew Wm. Tillage, of Company K - 34th Va Infantry - and that he was a true and good soldier and never deserted the Confederate Army. In the fall of 1864 he and his command was sent to Charleston, S.C. - and becoming ill was sent to Shubrick Warehouse then used as a Hospital in Richmond Va. After being released from there, was stationed at the breastworks near Yellow Tavern with many others of different regiments and companies, where he remained until the evacuation, and we know that he was in skirmishes and fights until the surrender of Gen. Lee at Appomattox.

Newspapers.com listed the following obituary for Mary Virginia (Wright) Tillage dated on Friday, August 3, 1928, in The Virginian-Pilot, Norfolk, Virginia:

"Berkley Deaths

Mrs. Mary Virginia Tillage, aged 74, died at the home of her daughter Mrs. A. M. Cannon, 119 Irving street, yesterday afternoon at 12:55 o'clock, following an illness of one month. She was the daughter of the late Benjamin and Mrs. Frances Smith Wright, and widow of W. J. Tillage. She was born in York County, but had been a resident of Norfolk for the past twenty years.

She is survived by three daughters, Mrs. W. E. Hudgins, Mrs. A. M. Cannon and Miss Ruth Tillage; one brother, George T. Wright, and six grandchildren, all of Norfolk.

The body was removed to the funeral home of E. Lee Cox, 124 East Berkley avenue, but will be taken back to the residence of Mrs. Cannon Saturday morning. Funeral services will be conducted at the First Christian Church, of which Mrs. Tillage was a consistent member, Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock. Burial will be in the family plot in Riverside Cemetery."

Newspapers.com listed the following thank you card dated on Tuesday, August 14, 1928, in The Virginian-Pilot, Norfolk, Virginia:

"Card Of Thanks

The family of the late Mrs. Mary Virginia Tillage desires to thank their many friends for the kind and courteous attention shown them during her illness and at death. To those who so kindly furnished cars, and for their sympathy as expressed by the beautiful flowers, we will ever feel grateful.

(Signed) Daughters.

Mrs. W. E. Hudgins,
Mrs. A. M. Cannon,
Miss Ruth Tillage."

Findagrave.com listed the gravestone of Mary V. Tillage in Riverside Memorial Park, Norfolk, Virginia:

(III) 1848 Edward Wright Of York County

1848 Edward Wright of York County was a son of 1843 John Wright of York County and Martha (Belvin) Wright. (1657 Edward¹, 1695 John², 1752 John³, 1793 Benjamin⁴, 1843 John⁵)

The 1840 Census for York County, Virginia, did not list an Edward Wright, indicating that he was probably residing in his father's residence.

The will of Edward Wright was dated on September 28, 1847, probated in January 1848, at York County, Virginia, W.B. 13/18, and provided as follows:

"I Edward Wright of the first part do hereby make my last Will and Testament in manner and form following that is to say

1st. I desire that a Sufficient portion of my perishable property be immediately Sold after my decease and out of the monies arising therefrom all my just debts and funeral expenses be paid Should the perishable part of my property prove insufficient for the above purposes, then I desire my executor hereinafter named may sell my land lying on Cheasmons Creek and out of the monies arising therefrom pay and Satisfy such of my just debts as shall remain unpaid out of the Sales of the perishable part of my estate.

The listing of his mother as Martha Wright and his siblings as James, William, and Martha Wright identifies this Edward Wright as a son of 1843 John Wright and Martha (Belvin) Wright.

Wright Of York County, Virginia, 1625-1850, by Thelma Ironmonger Hansford, listed Edward Wright as a son of 1843 John Wright and Martha (Belvin) Wright:

"C. Edward⁶ Wright, son of John⁵ (Benjamin⁴, John³ J., John², Edward¹) Wright and his wife Martha Belvin Wright, was born about 1818. He died a young man; unmarried. His will was written September 28, 1847 and was probated June 1848. It states in part:

"-- sufficient part of my perishable property to be sold and out of the money my debts and funeral expenses be paid -- if not enough, my executor sell my land laying on Chisman's Creek and from its money ---

I leave to my mother Martha Wright one third part of my estate after the debts are paid --- and after her death give to --- brothers William and James Wright and also my sister Martha Wright --- equally --- and the other two thirds to my brothers and sisters ---

(IV) 1869 James W. Wright Of York County, His Wife Sarah (Hansford) Wright, And His Descendants

1869 James W. Wright of York County was a son of 1843 John Wright of York County and Martha (Belvin) Wright. (1657 Edward¹, 1695 John², 1752 John³, 1793 Benjamin⁴, 1843 John⁵)

The 1850 Census for York County, Virginia, listed James Wright in the Martha Wright household on September 30, 1850, his age as 28 and born in York County, Virginia, indicating a date of birth in about 1822, and his occupation as farmer.

The marriage record of James W. Wright and Sarah Hansford has not as yet been found. However, the 1900 Census listed the birth of their son Charles Edward Wright in May 1850, indicating that the marriage occurred before that date. In addition, the birth record of their daughter Martha E. Wright set forth below indicates that the marriage occurred before 1855.

The birth record of Martha E. Wright, daughter of James and Sarah Wright, was dated on September 16, 1855, in York County, Virginia:

Wright Of York County, Virginia, 1625-1850, by Thelma Ironmonger Hansford, stated that William Wright was appointed guardian of two of James W. Wright's children:

"James W. Wright died 1869, the inventory for his estate began with the date November 15, 1869. (York W.B. 14, p. 45) His brother William Wright was named guardian of his two youngest children. He made regular reports to the Court about his duties as such from September 7, 1871 to September 7, 1873."

Given the dates listed, Ms. Hansford was probably referring to York County Will Book 14/181 set forth above, but it is unclear to whom she was referring when she referred to two children of James W. Wright.

The 1880 Census for York County, Virginia, listed Sallie Wright and Jefferson Wright in the William Wright household on June 10, 1880:

The reference to Sallie as niece and Jefferson as nephew indicates that these were the two children of James W. Wright and were probably the two children referred to by Ms.

Hansford as wards of William Wright.

The marriage record of Martha E. Young and Leonard Sheets dated on November 18, 1895, in Hampton, Virginia, listed her parents as James and Sarah Wright and her birth in 1853 in York County, Virginia.

The marriage of Charles E. Wright and Sallie B. (Hudgins) Elliott dated on May 26, 1915, in Norfolk, Virginia, listed his parents as J. and S. Wright and his birth in about 1853 in York County, Virginia.

The death record of Charles E. Wright dated on August 8, 1930, in Norfolk, Virginia, listed his parents as James Wright and Sallie Hansford and his birth on May 15, 1858, in Virginia.

From the evidence set forth above and additional evidence set forth below, the children of 1869 James W. Wright and Sarah (Hansford) Wright were the following:

- 1) Charles Edward Wright, born in May 1850 or in about 1851 or 1853 or on March 15, 1858, in York County, Virginia,
- 2) Ann Eliza Wright, born in about 1852 in Virginia,
- 3) Martha E. "Mattie" (Wright) (Young) Sheets, born in about 1853 or 1854 or in April 1855 or on September 16, 1855, in York County, Virginia,
- 4) Sarah Wright, born in December 1856 in York County, Virginia,
- 5) James H. Wright, born in about 1859 or on July 6, 1860, or in about 1862 or 1865 in York County, Virginia,
- 6) Jefferson Davis Wright, born in about 1863 or 1865 in York County, Virginia, and
- 7) Sarah E. "Sallie" (Wright) (Swartz) Bunting, born in about 1864 or 1865 or 1868 in York County, Virginia.

The 1860 Census for York County, Virginia, listed Charles Wright in the J. W.
 Wright household on July 10, 1860, and his age as 10 and born in Virginia, indicating a date of birth in about 1850.

The 1870 Census for York County, Virginia, listed Eliza A. D. Crockett in the Fred. P. Crockett household on August 24, 1870, and her age as 13 and born in Virginia, indicating a date of birth in about 1857.

The marriage record of Charles Wright and Eliza A. D. Crockett has not as yet been found, but as set forth below, the 1900 Census indicates that the marriage occurred in about 1875.

The 1880 Census for York County, Virginia, listed Charles Wright with the following household on June 22, 1880:

Newspapers.com listed the following obituary for Jefferson Wright dated on Saturday, November 26, 1904, in The Times Dispatch, Richmond, Virginia, and recording the shooting death of Jefferson Wright on November 25, 1904, in Gloucester, Virginia:

"Shot Down Near His Own Home

Captain Jeff Wright Killed by James Oliver in Gloucester.

Slayer A One-Armed Man

He Does Not Deny the Shooting, But Declares Captain Wright Threatened Him.

Gloucester C. H., VA., November 25. - James Oliver shot and instantly killed Captain Jeff Wright this afternoon about 2:30 o'clock at the home of the latter on Carmines Island, this county. Oliver had been shooting on the creek near Captain Wright's to-day, and shot had struck the house several times. Captain Wright spoke to him about it. Oliver landed and went up to Captain Wright, who was cutting wood near his house. Very few words passed, when Oliver, who was not much more than the length of his gun from Wright, Oliver fired both barrels, and Captain Wright fell dead. Mrs. Wright saw the shooting. Mr. R. C. Vaughan, justice of the peace, acted as coroner and held an inquest. The jury decided that the deceased came to his death at the hands of James Oliver.

Dr. O. D. Clements examined the body and found that some shot had penetrated the heart. Oliver does not deny the shooting, but claims that Wright threatened him with violence. Oliver had been drinking. He is a one arm man, having lost an arm by falling from a street car in Norfolk some years ago while drunk.

Captain Wright came from Poquosin to this county ten or twelve years ago. He was highly respected by his neighbors and was a thoroughly peaceable and good citizen. He was three times married, though only between forty and fifty years old. He leaves two children by his second marriage, but noone by the first and last marriages. His widow was a Miss West of Sadler's Neck, this county. Oliver is a married man, but has no children.

He was arrested and taken before Justice R. C. Vaughan to-night. He waived examination and was sent on to the grand jury.

He will reach the jail here some time to-night in charge of deputy Sheriff G. A. Minor."

Newspapers.com listed the following news article dated January 7, 1905, from The Times Dispatch, Richmond, Virginia, regarding the conviction and sentencing of James Oliver for the murder of Jefferson Wright:

"Gloucester Courthouse, VA., - January 6. - The jury in the case of James Oliver, charged with the murder of Jeff Wright, after an absence of about two hours, brought in a verdict at 5 o'clock this afternoon of murder in the second degree with a penalty of eighteen years in the penitentiary.

Six jurors were for hanging, but finally compromised upon the maximum penalty for murder in the second degree.

The death record of Barney Crooke Wright dated on May 8, 1963, in Paoli, Orange County, Indiana, listed his parents as Jefferson Wright and Margaret Wainwright and his birth on April 13, 1889, in Indiana.

The death record of Elizabeth Wright Teater dated on October 28, 1985, in Gloucester, Gloucester County, Virginia, listed her parents as Jeff Wright and Unknown and her birth on April 14, 1896, in Virginia. The informant was Mrs. Kathleen Rilee listed as her cousin.

Newspapers.com listed a notice in The Baltimore Sun of the issuance of a marriage license to Sarah Wright and Herbert K. Teater of Newport News on March 13, 1919, and also listed a further news article dated August 29, 1940, in the Daily Press, Newport News, Virginia, which stated that Mrs. Sarah Wright Teater visited her brother in law and sister Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Wright. Although the relationships were reversed in the second article, these records identify Sarah Elizabeth (Wright) Teater as the sister of Clarence Newborn Wright, the two children listed in the Leonard and Martha Sheets household in 1910 as their grandniece and grandnephew. Kathleen Rilee was a daughter of Magdalene Elizabeth (Croswell) Dudley and granddaughter of Edward Croswell who resided in 1880 in Gloucester County, Virginia. The death record connection of Kathleen Rilee, a descendant of the Croswell family, as a cousin to Sarah Elizabeth (Wright) Teater confirms the identification of Martha Ella (Croswell) (Howlett) Wright as the second wife of Jefferson Davis Wright.

Wright Of York County, Virginia, 1625-1850, by Thelma Ironmonger Hansford, stated as follows regarding Jefferson Davis Wright:

"(E) Jefferson⁷ Davis Wright, son of James⁶ W. Wright and his wife Sarah Hansford Wright, was born 1861. He married Margaret Wainwright of Poquoson December 26, 1886. He married secondly, Ella Croswell Howlett, a widow; his third wife was Sophronia West, daughter of William West and Sarah Brown West of Gloucester. This last wedding was performed by the Rev. W. H. Groves December 29, 1901. (Gloucester Marriage Register).

His children by his three marriages were:

- a. Barney⁸ C. Wright
- b. Clarence⁸ Newbern Wright
- c. Sarah Elizabeth⁸ Wright

a. Barney⁸ C. Wright, by the first wife, was born in 1887. He married Betty B. Hudgins, daughter of Thomas Hudgins and his wife Harriett Hudgins, November 18, 1908. She was born in 1892. (York Marriage Register)

b. Clarence⁸ Newbern Wright, by second wife Ella Wright, was born August 18, 1892. He married Irene Manning Bertner, a widow, November 30, 1919. (Hampton Marriage Register) They lived in Hampton. Being orphaned at an early age, he was reared by an aunt, Martha Wright Sheets. He had a daughter: Elizabeth⁹ Wright born 1921. She married Frank Dombrowiak. They lived in New Castle, Delaware and she died April 20, 1981 having had no issue.

c. Sarah Elizabeth⁸ Wright, by second wife Ella Wright, was born January 4, 1896. She lived as a youth in Gloucester. She married Herbert Kelso Teater on March 19, 1919. In late years as a widow, she was a hostess in Colonial Williamsburg. She died October 28, 1985 at age 89 years and was buried in the cemetery of Providence Baptist Church at Ordinary in Gloucester, where her father and step-mother were also interred. She had no children."

Although his name was incorrectly listed in this record, his age, place of birth, spouse, and occupation identify this as person as Andrew J. Swartz. This record indicates that Andrew J. Swartz was born in about 1841.

As set forth below, John Theodore Bunting was the second husband of Sarah (Wright) (Swartz) Bunting. The 1870 Census for York County, Virginia, listed John T. Bunting in the William Sterling household on August 17, 1870, and born in October 1869 in Virginia.

On August 3, 1877, at York County, Virginia, W.B. 14/181, William Wright filed his accounting for the guardianship estate of Sallie Wright through June 14, 1874, pursuant to an order from the court to account for the period from September 7, 1871, through September 7, 1873. The accounting showed a net balance due to the guardian for board of his ward of $15.39:

"To Hon K. L. Hintey Judge of the County Court of York County.

Your Commissioner reports to the Court that on the 2nd day of February 1874 he issued a summons against Wm Wright Guardian of Sallie Wright directed to the Sheriff of the said County, commanding him to summon the said Wm. Wright as Guardian aforesaid, to exhibit before your Commissioner as his office at the Court House of the said County a statement of all the money which he had received or become chargeable with or had disbursed within the period embracing by Sept 7" 1871 and Sept 7" 1873, together with the vouchers for such disbursements as required by law. . . . and on the first day of January 1873 finds a balance of $15.39 due from the said estate to the Guardian on account of board and clothing

Respectfully submitted
W. G. W. Farthing Comr

Virginia

In York County Court Clerk's Office this 3rd day of August A. D. 1877

The Report of Commissioner W. G. W. Farthing settling the transactions of William Wright Guardian of Sallie Wright, was this presented, and it appearing that it has lain in the Clerk's Office the time required by law and no exceptions being filed thereto, the same having been confirmed, And the same was ordered to be recorded.

This record indicates that William Wright's second wife Mahala (Stroud) Wright and Lucy E. (Stroud) (Thomas) (Dawson) Wright's second husband Thomas Dawson had both died before October 15, 1888.

Wright Of York County, Virginia, 1625-1850, by Thelma Ironmonger Hansford, stated as follows regarding William Wright:

"E. William⁶ Wright, son of John⁵ Wright (Benjamin⁴, John³ J., John², Edward¹) and his wife Martha Belvin Wright, was born 1824. (1850 Census) He married first Frances _____ and they had son Silas⁷ Wright born 1853. He married secondly Mahala Stroud, daughter of James Stroud and Diana Belvin Stroud, August 24, 1856. (Note the kinship.) They had no children. Both were living when the 1880 census was taken that year. However, she died soon thereafter and he married a third time to Lucy Howard, a widow, November 15, 1888. (York Marriage Register.)

William Wright's first wife may have been a Moss or related in some way to Mary K. Moss, widow of John Moss. On January 1, 1859 she gave to him a ten acre tract "in consideration of esteem, affection, and love which I _____ bear to (him) -- as well as $5.00 -- on Back Creek and to his heirs forever. This land is to be cut off from my other lands on said creek -- to commence where he may select -- so as to have a desirable place for building and the line to run straight -- adjoining George Hornsby --". (Deed Bk. 16, p. 264)

This later became the home of his son, Silas Wright and in later years was owned by George Freeman and Mordecai White. It is presently identified as the entire tract on White's Lane in Seaford, off Back Creek Road."

From the evidence set forth above and additional evidence set forth below, the child of William Wright and Frances (Stroud) Wright was the following:

1) Silas M. Wright, born in about 1852 or on September 1 or 4, 1853, or in about 1854 or 1855 in York County, Virginia, and that the child of William Wright and Mahala (Stroud) Wright was the following:

1) Lucy M. Wright, born in about 1857 in York County, Virginia.

(A) 1922 Silas M. Wright Of Hampton And His Wife Mary E. (Parker) Wright

1922 Silas M. Wright of Hampton was a son of William Wright and Frances (Stroud) Wright. (1657 Edward¹, 1695 John², 1752 John³, 1793 Benjamin⁴, 1843 John⁵, William⁶)

The birth record of Silas M. Wright, son of William and Frances Wright, was dated on September 1, 1853, in York County, Virginia:

The 1810 Census for York County, Virginia, listed Lewis Hogg with the following household on August 6, 1810:

Name of Head of Family	Free White Males	Age	Free White Female	Age	All Other Free Persons	Slaves
Lewis Hogg	1	26-45	1	0-10		4
	3	0-10

This record indicates that Lewis Hogg was born between about 1765 and 1784. The absence of an adult female in the household suggests that Nancy (Wright) Hogg may have died before August 6, 1810.

On July 15, 1811, at York County, Virginia, D.B. 8/133, Lewis Hogg purchased from Peyton and Helen Southall a $\frac{1}{3}$ interest in the land owned by Philip Dedman and 25 acres of which had been leased by Lewis Hogg by York County Deed 8/39:

"This Indenture made this 15th day of July in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and Eleven Between Peyton Southall and Helen Southall his wife of the Town and County of York and of the State of Virginia of the one part, and Lewis Hogg of the County and State aforesaid of the other part: Witnesseth that for and in consideration of the sum of two hundred and ten dollars Current Money of Virginia to them the said Peyton & Helen in hand paid, the receipt whereof is hereby acknowledged, They the said Peyton Southall and Helen his wife have granted bargained and sold and by these presents do grant, bargain and sell unto the said Lewis Hogg all their right, title and interest in and to all that portion or parcel of Land, being one third part of the tract of Land whereof Philip Dedman died seized lying and being in the County of York and State aforesaid, which the said Southall purchased of one Anderson K. Freeman of the City of Richmond as may be more fully seen by reference to Deed to him, bearing date the 5th day of September 1810, which said Freeman held the same in right of his wife Susanna Dedman (Daughter of said Philip, one of the three Devisees) by whom he the said Freeman had legal issue, as required by the last Will and Testament of him the said Philip, to entitle to him the said Freeman to a portion of the said Tract of Land & which said issue survived her said Mother Susanna two Months and a half. The aforementioned portion or parcel of Land is bounded as follows, to wit, on the East by the Land of said Southall, on the west by the Land of Thomas Patrick on the north by that portion allotted and set apart for Mary Dedman another of the Devisees under the will of said Philip, by Commissioners appointed by an order of the worshipful the Court of York, to divide and lay off the same, and on the South by the remaining part of the aforesaid 75 acres, which said portion fell to said Southall, under the division made under aforesaid order of Court. To have and to hold unto him the said Lewis Hogg & his Heirs forever the said tract or parcel of Land under the same right as to him the said Southall derived from the said Freeman, together with all Houses, improvements, ways, waters, water-courses and appurtenances in any wise thereunto belonging or appurtening. In Testimony whereof we have hereunto set our hands and affixed our Seals the day and year first above written.

This record identifies the children of Lewis Hogg's first marriage to Nancy (Wright) Hogg as follows:

- 1) Edward Hogg, and
- 2) Lucy (Hogg) Spencer, and the child of Lewis Hogg's second marriage to Elizabeth (Campbell) Hogg as follows:

- 1) Alexander Hogg.

Hogg Families Of York And Gloucester Counties, VA., by Elizabeth Hogg Ironmonger and published in 1968, stated in part the following regarding Lewis Hogg:
 "Lewis Hogg Sr. (173-1852).

Another Hogg family group, now of York County and elsewhere, had its beginnings in Gloucester County, according to census records but the link is missing that would connect them in the right spot. It is the record of Lewis Hogg Sr. and his many descendants, all of whom trace easily from 1773 to 1967. It seems probable, though not proven, that he was the son of Stephen Hogg (1753) or of George Hogg (1746) Stephen's brother. Lewis Hogg Sr. was born in Gloucester County, Va. in 1773;(18) married Nancy Wright in York County February 16, 1801(19); purchased land in York County and reared a family. The first wife died and Lewis Hogg Sr. married, secondly, Elizabeth Campbell, January 9, 1830.(20) She was born in 1788; her mother was a Miss Wright.

An extensive search has been made to find his parentage but it has produced only the authentic statement that he was born in Gloucester in 1773. Some of his descendants, as well as descendants of the two Hogg branches already traced, know that they were cousins but no one at this time can say by what route this cousinship developed.

His home and plantation of 203½ acres was known as Hogg's Field and remained in possession of this branch of the family more than half a century. It is the land on which the York High School, Yorktown Elementary School, St. Joan of Arc Catholic Church, Crooks Memorial Methodist Church (second location) and the community Edge Hill, Yorktown have been built (1967) and other outlying lands.

Lewis Hogg¹ Sr.'s marriage to Nancy Wright of York County has already been mentioned. It took place February 16, 1801.(28) They had five children:(29)

- I. Lucy Hogg², born 1802;
- II. George Hogg², born 1804;
- III. Lewis Hogg² the Younger, born ca 1805;
- IV. Benjamin Hogg², born ca. 1807;
- V. Edward Hogg², born 1810.

Nancy Wright Hogg, mother of these children died after they reached maturity, and Lewis Hogg¹ married, secondly Miss Elizabeth Campbell, January 9, 1830.(28) Elizabeth Campbell's parents were John Campbell and Elizabeth Wright, who were married December 24, 1787. After Campbell's death the widow married Benjamin Stroud, a widower by whom she had no living children. Stroud died in 1810. Elizabeth Campbell was reared in the home of her Stroud step-father and may have been called Elizabeth Stroud, but her marriage bond naming Elizabeth Campbell, and will of her uncle William Wright that follows, give proof of her name.

Lewis¹ Hogg Sr. and his second wife, Elizabeth Campbell Hogg had one son,

VI. Alexander Hogg², born October 10, 1830.(30)

Wright Of York County, Virginia, 1625-1850, by Thelma Ironmonger Hansford and published in 1987, stated the following regarding Nancy (Wright) Hogg:

"(4) Anne (Nancy)⁵ Wright, daughter of Benjamin⁴ Wright (John J.³; John², Edward¹) and his wife Lucy Wright, was born ca. 1780. She married Lewis Hogg February 16, 1801. (York Marriage Bond) They lived midway between Yorktown and Harris Grove on the York-Hampton Highway. They had five children:

- A. Lucy⁶ Hogg, born 1802
- B. George⁶ Hogg born 1804
- C. Lewis⁶ Hogg Jr. born 1805
- D. Benjamin⁶ Hogg born 1807
- E. Edward⁶ Hogg born 1810

Nancy⁵ Wright Hogg died ca. 1829 and her husband married secondly her niece, Elizabeth⁶ Campbell in 1830."

Lewis Hogg is also discussed in Section XXIII.A.2.h.i.(I) above in connection with his second wife Elizabeth (Campbell) Hogg.

From the evidence set forth above and additional evidence set forth below, the children of Nancy (Wright) Hogg and Lewis Hogg were the following:

- 1) Lucy (Hogg) Spencer, born in about 1801 or 1802 in Virginia,
- 2) George Hogg, born between about 1800 and 1810,
- 3) Lewis Hogg, Jr., born between about 1800 and 1810 or in about 1805,
- 4) Benjamin Hogg, born in about 1807, and
- 5) Edward Hogg, born in about 1808 or 1810 in Virginia.

(I) Lucy (Hogg) Spencer, Her Husband Lewis
Spencer, And Her Descendants

Lucy (Hogg) Spencer was a daughter of Nancy (Wright) Hogg and Lewis Hogg. (1657 Edward¹, 1695 John², 1752 John³, 1793 Benjamin⁴, Nancy⁵)

The marriage record of Lucy Hogg and Lewis Spencer was dated on January 4, 1823, in York County, Virginia:

"Know all men by these presents that we Lewis Spencer & Lewis Hogg are held & firmly bound unto Thos. M. Randolph Esqr Governor or chief Magistrate of the Commonwealth of Virginia in the just & full sum of One hundred & fifty dollars to be paid to the said Governor & his successors to which payment well & truly to be made we bind ourselves our heirs Exors & admrs firmly by these presents Sealed with our seals & dated this 4th day of Jany 1823.

The condition of the above obligation is such that whereas there is a marriage intended shortly to be had & solemnized between the above bound Lewis spinster Lucy Hogg spinster

Brooks a portion of the land allotted to Clarentine Hogg in the division of his land:

"January 13, 1877, this deed between Clementine (Clarentine) Hogge, George W. Hogge and Emma J. Hogge his wife, Thomas Enos Hogge and Martha Hogge his wife, Thomas Hogge, William Fox and Mary E. Fox, his wife and Amanda R. Hogge all of the first part, to Peter B. Brooks, for $80.00 sold 4 acres in York County, more or less, being the west half of the original 8 acres of cleared land as cut off to the said Clarentine Hogge and bounded on North by S. G. Cooke; South by land of Alexander Hogge; on the East by other half of said 8 acres of cleared land, now owned by Robert Randall; on West by land of Amanda R. Hogge."

Virginia, Select Marriages, 1785-1940 also listed the marriage of Amanda Hogge and F. P. Burcher on August 14, 1879, in York County, Virginia, and her parents as Edward Hogge and Oaventine Hogge and her birth in 1857 in York County, Virginia.

Hogg Families Of York And Gloucester Counties, VA., by Elizabeth Hogg Ironmonger and published in 1968, stated in part the following regarding Edward Hogg:

"V. Edward Hogg², fifth child of Lewis Hogg¹ Sr. and Nancy Wright Hogg was born in 1810.(46) He married Clarentine Clark of Williamsburg. She was a lineal descendant of two Revolutionary War soldiers, James Clarke(47) and John Lee.

....

The marriage of Edward Hogg² and Clarentine Clark took place May 21, 1832(50) They had six children:

- (A) Thomas Enos Hogg³, called "Enos," born 1833 (census) or 1836;(54)
- (B) Lucy Hogg³, born ca 1838;
- (C) George Hogg³, born March 28, 1843;
- (D) Thomas William Hogg³, called "Tommy", born February 15, 1850;
- (E) Mary Lizzie Hogg³, born 1851;
- (F) Amanda Hogg³, born 1857.

The death date of Edward Hogg² was not available, but it was known that he died just prior to the Civil War. The mother died after 1877; see the following deed:(52)

[See transcription of York County Deed 20/543 above]

This was a part of the land heired from their father Edward Hogg², who in turn, heired it from his father, Lewis Hogg¹ Sr. A granddaughter, now 96 years old related some of the Civil War experiences of her grandmother, Clarentine Clark Hogg and her family. At the outbreak of the war, her oldest son, Enos was at the College of William and Mary as an adult student (being 25 years old) or engaged in some other educational persuit. He and the second son, George, who was scarcely eighteen years old, soon joined the army of the Southern Confederacy. Jackson Tolliver, one of the slaves belonging to the family, went with them. He cooked and washed for the soldiers, and there was such a bond of affection between master and slave, that as long as both lived George Hogg would have divided his scant holdings with Jackson if he had need.

The oldest daughter died, and the mother, with her three young children, Tommy, Mary Lizzie and Amanda went back to Williamsburg to her parents home. During the Peninsula Campaign of the Civil War, this Hogg plantation was overrun, by the Northern soldiers. The home was ransacked, and pillaged, the house burned, the fences destroyed, all livestock was taken and the once prosperous farm was reduced to ruin. Before the mother left for Williamsburg she buried the family silver in a corner of the garden for safe-keeping from the enemy. After the war, it was never found. Whether the yankees found it, or the freed slaves dug it up, no one ever knew. After the war, the land was divided into six shares, for the five children and the widow, and in time it was sold in small homesites to the free negroes."

Wright Of York County, Virginia, 1625-1850, by Thelma Ironmonger Hansford and published in 1987, stated the following regarding Edward Hogg:

"E. Edward⁶ Hogg, son of Lewis Hogg Sr. and his wife Nancy⁵ Wright Hogg

(Benjamin⁴, John³ J., John², Edward¹), was born 1810. (1850 census for York Co.) He married Clementine Clarke of Williamsburg May 21, 1832. (York Marriage Register.) They had six children:

- (A) Thomas⁷ Enos Hogg born 1833. (Census)
- (B) Lucy⁷ Hogg born ca. 1838
- (C) George⁷ Hogg born March 28, 1842
- (D) Thomas⁷ William Hogg born February 15, 1850
- (E) Mary⁷ Lizzie Hogg born 1851
- (F) Amanda⁷ Hogg born 1857.

For more details on the Hoggs see Hogg Family of York and Gloucester Counties by Elizabeth Hogg Ironmonger."

From the evidence set forth above and additional evidence set forth below, the children of Edward Hogg and Clarentine (Clark) Hogg were the following:

- 1) Thomas Enos Hogg or Hogge, born in about 1836 or 1838 in York County, Virginia,
- 2) Lucy Hogg,
- 3) George W. Hogge, born in about 1841 or on March 28, 1843, in York County, Virginia,
- 4) Mary Elizabeth "Lizzie" (Hogg) (Fox) Saunders, born in about 1848 or on August 1, 1849, or in about 1850 or 1851 or 1852 in York County, Virginia,
- 5) Thomas William "Tommie" Hogge, born in about 1849 or on February 15, 1850, or in about 1853 or 1854 or on February 15, 1855, in York County, Virginia,
- 6) Martha Hogg, born on August 4, 1855, in York County, Virginia, and
- 7) Amanda (Hogg) Burcher, born in about 1857 in Virginia.

(A) Thomas Enos Hogg Or Hogge, His Wives (Buchanan) Hogg Or Hogge And Martha Elizabeth (Fox) (Hogg Or Hogge) (Williams) Parker, And His Descendants

Thomas Enos Hogg or Hogge was a son of Edward Hogg and Clarentine (Clark) Hogg. (1657 Edward¹, 1695 John², 1752 John³, 1793 Benjamin⁴, Nancy⁵, Edward⁶)

The 1850 Census for York County, Virginia, listed Enos Hogg in the Edward Hogg household on November 5, 1850, and his age as 12 and born in Virginia,

The 1860 Census for York County, Virginia, listed Eaneus Hogg in the Edward Hogg household on June 14, 1860, his age as 22 and born in Virginia, indicating a date of birth in about 1838, and his occupation as farm hand.

The marriage record of Thomas Enos Hogge and his first wife ____ Buchanan has not as yet been found.

Freedmen's Bureau Records, 1865-1878, available from Ancestry.com, listed a lease dated February 16, 1866, between Enos Hogg, as administrator of the estate of Edward Hogg, and Samuel Jones for 1¼ acres of land that was part of Edward Hogg's farm in York County:

"This Contract, made this 16 day of February 1866, between Enos Hogg, admor of Edward Hogg, decd. and Samuel Jones: Witnesseth that for and in consideration of the sum of Five Dollars per annum, payable quarterly in advance, the said Enos Hogg, admor of said Edward Hogg, decd. doth rent and demise to the said Samuel Jones a certain tenement and lot of land containing not more that one & one fourth acre and being part of the late Edward Hogg's farm in York County, Virginia, for the term of one year from January first, 1866. And the said Enos Hogg, admor of Edward Hogg, decd doth furthermore rent and demise to the said ____ acres of tillage land, at three dollars and fifty cents per acre, payable 15th day of October, 1866.

The said ____ is to have the privilege of cutting dead wood and down timber, and no other unless necessary firewood for his own use. Should the said ____ fail to pay promptly any of the above installments, then the said Enos Hogg, admor of Edward Hogg, decd reserves the right of re-entry and distress.

Given under the following signatures and seals this 16 day of February 1866.

Hogg Families Of York And Gloucester Counties, VA., by Elizabeth Hogg

Ironmonger and published in 1968, stated in part the following regarding George Hogg:

"C. George Hogg³, third child of Edward Hogg² and Clarentine Clark Hogg, born March 28, 1843, spent four years in the army of the Southern Confederacy, being only 18 years old at the outbreak of the war. He married Emma Jane Walter March 1, 1866. They had three children:

1. Vera L. Hogge⁴, born December 11, 1871;
2. George Walter Hogge⁴, born November 15, 1874;
3. Alexander Hogge⁴, born February 2, 1878.

This generation added an "e" to the name and succeeding generations of this branch of the family spell the name, "Hogge".

George Hogge died November 11, 1879 and was buried by request in the cemetery of the second Grafton Baptist Church, where other members of his family were buried.(58)

Newspapers.com listed the following obituary for Annie Burcher Hogg dated on Friday, November 5, 1943, in the Daily Press, Newport News, Virginia:

"Mrs. Hogg, 72, Dies In York

Hornsbyville, Nov. 4. - (Special) - Mrs. Annie Burcher Hogg, 72, died at 6:40 this evening at her home here following a long period of failing health. Funeral arrangements had not been completed tonight.

Mrs. Hogg was the widow of W. T. Hogg. She was born in Warwick county, but spent most of her life in York county. She was a member of the Grafton Christian church.

Surviving are six daughters - Mrs. Emmett Fox, Mrs. Marvin Fox, Mrs. William Overby, and Miss Louise Hogg, all of Hornsbyville, and Mrs. Clyde Johnson and Mrs. Frank Clark of Williamsburg; three brothers - Arthur and James Burcher of Newport News, and William Burcher of Howardsville; two sisters, Mrs. Maggie Garrett and Mrs. Fannie Westcott of Seaford; 26 grandchildren, and three great-grandchildren."

As set forth above, Findagrave.com listed the joint gravestone of William Thomas Hogg and Annie Frances Hogg in Grafton Christian Church Cemetery, Grafton, York County, Virginia.

Hogg Families Of York And Gloucester Counties, VA., by Elizabeth Hogg Ironmonger and published in 1968, stated in part the following regarding Thomas William Hogge:

"D. Thomas William Hogge³, fourth child of Edward Hogge² and Clarentine Clark Hogg, born February 15, 1850, married, first, Betty Fox April 9, 1878. The York Methodist Church register stated that "the marriage was performed by Rev. Spiller in the home of Edward Hogg in Fish Neck." They had no children. The wife died and Thomas William Hogge³, called "Tommie", married secondly, Annie Frances Burcher February 28, 1890. They had nine children:

1. Irene Clarentine Hogge⁴, born August 16, 1891;
2. Russell Hogge⁴, born 1895;
3. Mary Lena Hogge⁴, born 1900;
4. Louise Hogge⁴, born 1903;
5. Edna Hogge⁴, born 1905;
6. Thelma Hogge⁴, born 1909;
7. Elizabeth Hogge⁴, born May 13, 1913;
8. and 9. Two children who died in infancy.(60)

On January 13 1885 Thomas W. Hogge, then of Warwick, sold to Richard Brown of York County 4 acres of land in Nelson district, York County, for $100.00, bounded: On the North by Stafford G. Cooke; South by a lane or road between this land and Alexander Hogg; East by Tilman Carter and West Tillman Carter. Hogge witnessed this transaction before A. F. Hughes, Commissioner in Chancery, November 26, 1886.(61)

Thomas William Hogge³, died January 28, 1930 and his wife, Annie Frances Burcher Hogge, born February 14, 1871, died November 4, 1943. Both are buried in Grafton Christian Church Cemetery, Grafton.

vi. Edward Wright

Edward Wright was a son of 1793 Benjamin Wright of York County and Lucy (Patrick) Wright. (1657 Edward¹, 1695 John², 1752 John³, 1793 Benjamin⁴)

The will of Benjamin Wright, undated but probated on October 21, 1793, at York County, Virginia, W.&I.B. 23/390, listed Edward Wright as one of his children:

". . . . I Benjamin Wright do make and ordain this to be my last Will and Testament as follows Vice.

I lend unto my loving Wife my land and all my other estate during her natural life to bring up my Children upon and at her decease I leave and bequeath unto my eldest son Benjan Wright my house and Land, and all things apartaing thereto and at the death of my loving Wife I desire that my other estate both Slaves and other property should be equally divided between my other Children then living & And if my Wife should deceise before my young Children should be able to care for themselves I desire that my eldest son Benjamin should take them and their part of my estate to bring them up upon, and give them education, and if any of my Children should die under age, I desire that my son Benjamin should have their part of my estate to assist in bringing up the rest of my Children &c And I leave my loving Wife and Mr. John Patrick and Mr. Robert Armsted Exetors to this my last Will and Testament. But if my son Benjamin should die without Issue, I desire that my Land be divided between my three sons John Edward and William Wright &c

This record indicates that an Edward Wright had died by January 21, 1821, that he was married, that he owned land, that he was owed a promissory note from the estate of John Wright, that he died intestate, and that his estate was involved in a chancery suit in Williamsburg Chancery Court.

Thelma Ironmonger Hansford in her work Wright Of York County, Virginia, 1625-1850 noted and quoted from this settlement, but apparently misread the portion referring to the payment of rent to "Mrs. Wright" as a payment to "Wm. Wright". The writing is difficult to read, but upon enlargement seems clearly to read "Mrs." and not "Wm."

This settlement may have been for the estate of Edward Wright, the son of 1793 Benjamin Wright of York County, but the information from the record is insufficient to be certain of this identification.

In addition, there was a second and different Edward Wright estate as well.

On July 16, 1832, at York County, Virginia, W.B. 11/380, an Inventory and Appraisement and Account of Sales of the estate of Edward Wright dated February 3 and 6, 1826, was filed:

This record indicates that a second Edward Wright had died before June 20, 1825, and was apparently married to Elizabeth (____) Wright.

Wright Of York County, Virginia, 1625-1850, by Thelma Ironmonger Hansford, stated the following regarding Edward Wright:

"(6) Edward⁵ E. Wright, son of Benjamin⁵⁴ (John⁵³ J., John⁵², Edward⁵¹) Wright and his wife Lucy Patrick Wright, was still under age September 1809 and was probably born about 1790. The York County Orphans' Accounts page 200 shoe that Edmund C. Patrick was the guardian for Edward Wright in 1808. That year this Edward Wright had the profits for the labor of two slaves, James and Line, whom Whiley (Willy) Wright had hired. Again on September 10, 1809 Patrick reported to the Court his account fo Edward Wright's affairs.

Whether this Edward⁵ E. Wright married and had a family is not clear. Peter Manson, a lawyer, was appointed administrator of his estate.

This Edward⁵ Wright is a different Edward Wright from the one whose estate was being settled in the York County Courts around the same time because two coffins were paid for. Here is a part of the report made by Peter Manson:

[accounting not transcribed]

It appears that a brother, William Wright, collected the proceeds from rent. Seaton Elliott's homestead was also located on Chisman's Creek in present Seaford -- Sparrer Road section. Wright live in the same area of the community"

As set forth above, Thelma Ironmonger Hansford in her work Wright Of York County, Virginia, 1625-1850 apparently misread the portion of the settlement referring to the payment of rent to "Mrs. Wright" as a payment to "Wm. Wright". The writing is difficult to read, but upon enlargement seems clearly to read "Mrs." and not "Wm."

Further research will be required to determine which, if either, of these two Edward Wrights was the son of 1793 Benjamin Wright of York County.

vii. 1820 William Wright Of York County

1820 William Wright of York County was a son of 1793 Benjamin Wright of York County and Lucy (Patrick) Wright. (1657 Edward¹, 1695 John², 1752 John³, 1793 Benjamin⁴)

The will of Benjamin Wright undated but probated on October 21, 1793, at York County, Virginia, W.&I.B. 23/390, listed William Wright as one of his children:

". . . . I Benjamin Wright do make and ordain this to be my last Will and Testament as follows Vice.

I lend unto my loving Wife my land and all my other estate during her natural life to bring up my Children upon and at her decease I leave and bequeath unto my eldest son Benjan Wright my house and Land, and all things apartaing thereto and at the death of my loving Wife I desire that my other estate both Slaves and other property should be equally divided between my other Children then living & And if my Wife should deceise before my young Children should be able to care for themselves I desire that my eldest son Benjamin should take them and their part of my estate to bring them up upon, and give them education, and if any of my Children should die under age, I desire that my son Benjamin should have their part of my estate to assist in bringing up the rest of my Children &c And I leave my loving Wife and Mr. John Patrick and Mr. Robert Armsted Exetors to this my last Will and Testament. But if my son Benjamin should die without Issue, I desire that my Land be divided between my three sons John Edward and William Wright &c

Since Benjamin Wright was described as the eldest son and as set forth above, was born on August 13, 1775, this record indicates that William Wright was born after August 13, 1775.

On September 18, 1809, at York County, Virginia, Guardian Accounts 2/200, Lewis Hogg filed his accounting for the guardianship of William Wright for the year 1809:

Wright Of York County, Virginia, 1625-1850, by Thelma Ironmonger Hansford, stated the following regarding William Wright:

"7. William⁵ E. Wright, son of Benjamin⁴ Wright and his wife Lucy Patrick Wright, was born 1793. The York County Guardians Accounts 1780-1823, p. 200 shows that Lewis Hogg was appointed his guardian. (He was a brother-in-law.) His report to the Court indicates:

. . . .
[transcribed portions of report not transcribed]

So, William Wright was born in 1792.

He left a will written November 28, 1820 and probated December 18, 1820. In part he wrote: "my dear sister Elizabeth Stroud during her life or widowhood -- at her death, I give him (slave) to my nephew Benjamin Stroud. The rest of my estate to be divided between Elizabeth Stroud and Elizabeth Campbell, my niece.

Witnesses: Willie Hogg, John Hogg, and Jane Corbin.
(York Will Bk. 10, p. 374)

William⁵ Wright died unmarried and without issue."

viii. Lucy (Wright) Patrick And Her Husband Edmund C. Patrick

Lucy (Wright) Patrick was a daughter of 1793 Benjamin Wright of York County and Lucy (Patrick) Wright. (1657 Edward¹, 1695 John², 1752 John³, 1793 Benjamin⁴)

The marriage record of Lucy Wright and Edmund C. Patrick has not as yet been found.

On April 20, 1818, at York County, Virginia, J.&O.B. 9/279, the following order was recorded:

This record identifies Lucy (Wright) Patrick as the daughter of 1793 Benjamin Wright and wife of Edmund C. Patrick and that they were married before April 20, 1818.

Wright Of York County, Virginia, 1625-1850, by Thelma Ironmonger Hansford, stated the following regarding Lucy Wright:

"8. Lucy⁵ E. Wright, daughter of Benjamin⁴ Wright and his wife Lucy Patrick Wright, is not listed in the Charles Parish Register with her other siblings, but a Court transaction does prove her existence. The record briefly states: "Lewis Hogg and Nancy his wife; Edmund C. Patrick and Lucy his wife; John, Edward, and William Wright, infant orphans of Benjamin Wright, deceased by said Edmund Patrick and Lewis Hogg administrator, Benjamin Wright, and said Lewis Hogg and Nancy his wife in chancery." (York Orders No. 9, 1815-1820, p. 279)

So, Lucy Wright married Edmund C. Patrick. He was a son of William Patrick and his wife Lucy Curtis Patrick, so a cousin to his wife."

i. 1762 Dudley Wright Of York County

1762 Dudley Wright of York County was a son of 1752 John Wright of York County and Ann or Anne (Tenham) (Wright) Wilks. (1657 Edward¹, 1695 John², 1752 John³)

The will of John Wright dated on November 14, 1751, and probated on November 20, 1752, at York County, Virginia, W.&I.B. 20/273, listed Dudley Wright as a child of John Wright by his wife Ann Wright:

The 1793 Personal Property Tax List for York County, Virginia, listed two John Wrights, the first on May 20, 1793, with 2 white tithes, 2 black tithes, and 2 horses, and the second on July 20, 1793, with 1 white tithe and 1 horse.

The 1793 Land Tax List for York County, Virginia, listed John Wright with 150 acres of land valued at £69, 7s, 6p.

The 1794 Personal Property Tax List for York County, Virginia, listed only one John Wright designated as "Exempt" with 1 white tithe, 1 black tithe, and 2 horses.

The 1795 Personal Property Tax List for York County, Virginia, listed three John Wrights in August 1795, the first listed immediately adjacent to William Wright, Dudley Wright, and Peter Wright and with 1 white tithe, 1 slave age 12 to 16, and 2 horses, the second designated as both Rev and Exempt and with 1 white tithe, 2 black tithes, and 1 horse, and the third with 1 horse.

The 1796 Personal Property Tax List for York County, Virginia, listed two John Wrights, the first with 1 white tithe, 1 black tithe, and 1 horse and the second immediately adjacent to William Wright and Dudley Wright and with 2 white tithes and 2 horses.

The 1796 Personal Property Tax List for York County, Virginia, also listed Jane Wright with 2 white tithes and 1 black tithe. As set forth below, Jane (____) Wright was the second wife of 1796 John Wright and one of the white tithes in her household was probably her stepson Peter Wright.

The 1796 Land Tax List for York County, Virginia, listed the John Wright Estate with 150 acres of land valued at £69, 7s, 6p. This record reflects the death of John Wright in 1796.

On September 19, 1796, at York County, Virginia, J.&O.B. 7/122, Jane Wright was appointed administrator of the estate of John Wright:

"At a Court held for York County in the Courthouse in the Town of York on Monday the nineteenth Day of September in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and ninety six and in the twenty first year of the Commonwealth

On the motion of Jane Wright who made Oath and with John Gayle her security entered into and acknowledged their Bond in the Penalty of one hundred Pounds Current Money conditioned as the Law directs Certificate is granted her for obtaining Letters of Administration on the Estate of John Wright deceased in due form.

Ordered that Edmond Curtis, Robert Patrick, Robert Belvin, and Thomas Jordan or any three of them being first sworn before a Justice of this County do appraise in Current Money the slaves if any and Personal Estate of John Wright deceased and return their appraisement to the Court."

The 1797 Personal Property Tax List for York County, Virginia, listed Jane Wright with 1 white tithe and 1 black tithe. The 1797 Personal Property Tax List for York County, Virginia, also listed John Wright (Poquoson) immediately adjacent to Dudley Wright with 2 white tithes and 2 horses.

The 1796 and 1797 Personal Property Tax Lists in conjunction with York County J.&O.B. 7/122 indicate the death of 1796 John Wright and the appearance of his sons as separately taxed persons in the tax lists.

The 1797 Land Tax List for York County, Virginia, listed the John Wright Estate with 150 acres of land valued at £69, 7s, 6p.

On July 17, 1797, at York County, Virginia, W.&I.B. 23/486, the Inventory and Appraisement of the estate of John Wright was filed showing a value of £61.13.3:

Wright Of York County, Virginia, 1625-1850, by Thelma Ironmonger Hansford, stated the following regarding John Wright:

"4. John⁴ Wright Jr., son of John³ J. Wright and Ann his wife, was born around 1742. He married first, Elizabeth _____ and secondly, Jane _____ for Jane's name appeared on a land transaction between them and Edmund Chisman date being September 6, 1782 (York Deed Bk. 6, p. 151) The first wife's name is shown in the Charles Parish Church Register when children's births and baptisms were recorded.

This John Wright was converted to the Baptist faith and was baptized 1776 under the ministry of Elder Elijah Baker. He immediately became a local preacher and when Grafton Baptist Church was constituted in 1777 he became its first pastor. It should be noted that this was the period when the colonists were considering separation from England (and the Established Church). John Wright Jr. evidently "felt the call" to continue preaching the Gosepel but not as an Anglican. He already had a religious background for his Wright grand-father John² Wright was an ordained Minister, preaching in the Charles Parish Church.

He served at Grafton Baptist Church until his death in 1796.

While no source reference was given for the identification of 1796 John Wright as a minister of Grafton Baptist Church, the 1795 Personal Property Tax List did list a John Wright designated both as Rev and Exempt, the 1796 and later Personal Property Tax Lists did not list a John Wright as Exempt but did list Jane Wright. The result is to suggest that the John Wright designated as Exempt and as Rev was probably 1796 John Wright of York County.

From the evidence set forth above and additional evidence set forth below, the children of 1796 John Wright and Elizabeth (_____) Wright were the following:

- 1) John Wright, born on March 7, 1765, in York County, Virginia,
- 2) Betsy Wright, born on January 10, 1768, in York County, Virginia,
- 3) Mary Wright, born on February 13, 1770, in York County, Virginia,
- 4) Dudley Wright, born on March 1, 1773, in York County, Virginia,
- 5) William Wright, born on March 1, 1773, in York County, Virginia, and
- 6) Peter Wright, born on June 16, 1775, in York County, Virginia.

i. John Wright, Probably 1804 John Wright Of York County

John Wright, probably 1804 John Wright of York County, was a son of John Wright and Elizabeth (____) Wright. (1657 Edward¹, 1695 John², 1752 John³, 1796 John⁴)

Charles Parish, York County, Virginia, History And Registers, by Landon C. Bell, listed the birth of John Wright, son of John and Elizabeth Wright, on March 7, 1765:

"Wright, John, son of John and Elizabeth, b. March 7, bap. April 5, 1765."

The 1792 Personal Property Tax List for York County, Virginia, listed two John Wrights, the first on July 16, 1791, designated Exempt with 1 black tithe and 1 horse, and the second designated Col Neck with 1 white tithe above 16 and 1 horse.

The 1793 Personal Property Tax List for York County, Virginia, listed two John Wrights, the first on May 20, 1793, with 2 white tithes, 2 black tithes, and 2 horses, and the second on July 20, 1793, with 1 white tithe and 1 horse.

The 1794 Personal Property Tax List for York County, Virginia, listed only one John Wright designated as "Exempt" with 1 white tithe, 1 black tithe, and 2 horses.

The 1795 Personal Property Tax List for York County, Virginia, listed three John Wrights in August 1795, the first listed immediately adjacent to William Wright, Dudley Wright, and Peter Wright and with 1 white tithe, 1 slave age 12 to 16, and 2 horses, the second designated as both Rev and Exempt and with 1 white tithe, 2 black tithes, and 1 horse, and the third with 1 horse.

The 1796 Personal Property Tax List for York County, Virginia, listed two John Wrights, the first with 1 white tithe, 1 black tithe, and 1 horse and the second immediately adjacent to William Wright and Dudley Wright and with 2 white tithes and 2 horses.

The 1797 Personal Property Tax List for York County, Virginia, listed John Wright (Poquoson) immediately adjacent to Dudley Wright with 2 white tithes and 2 horses.

The 1798 Personal Property Tax List for York County, Virginia, listed John Wright (Pocoson) immediately adjacent to Peter Wright and Dudley Wright with 1 white tithe and 2 horses.

The 1799 Personal Property Tax List for York County, Virginia, listed John

Wright immediately adjacent to William Wright and Peter Wright and with 1 white tithe and 1 horse.

The 1800 Personal Property Tax List for York County, Virginia, listed John Wright immediately adjacent to Peter Wright and with 1 white tithe and 1 horse.

The 1801 Personal Property Tax List for York County, Virginia, listed John Wright immediately adjacent to Peter Wright and with 1 white tithe, 1 black tithe, and 1 horse.

The 1802 Personal Property Tax List for York County, Virginia, listed John Wright with 1 white tithe, 1 black tithe, and 1 horse.

The 1803 Personal Property Tax List for York County, Virginia, listed one John Wright immediately adjacent to William Wright and Peter Wright and with 1 white tithe, 1 black tithe, and 1 horse.

The 1804 Personal Property Tax List for York County, Virginia, did not list a John Wright.

On February 18, 1805, at York County, Virginia, W.&I.B. 23/666, an Inventory and Appraisement of the estate of John Wright was filed showing a value of £85, 11 shillings, 3½ pence:

This was probably John Wright, the son of 1796 John Wright of York County, but further research will be needed to confirm this identification.

The 1805 Personal Property Tax List for York County, Virginia, listed one John Wright with 1 white tithe and 1 horse.

The 1806 and 1807 Personal Property Tax Lists for York County, Virginia, did not list a John Wright.

No tax list was taken in 1808 in Virginia.

The 1809 Personal Property Tax List for York County, Virginia, listed three John Wrights, the first designated Junr with 1 white tithe, 1 black tithe age 12 to 16, and 1 horse, the second designated Senr with 1 white tithe, and the third designated (C N) with 1 white tithe and 1 black tithe age 12 to 16.

Wright Of York County, Virginia, 1625-1850, by Thelma Ironmonger Hansford, stated the following regarding John Wright:

"(1). John⁵ Wright, son of the Rev. John⁴ Wright Jr (John³ J., John², Edward¹) and his first wife Elizabeth, was born March 7, 1765. (Charles Parish Register.) He married Mary Cox March 21, 1795. (York Marriage Record)

The 1810 Census for York credits him with three slaves; three sons with two under age ten and one age sixteen to twenty-six. So a chart would look like this:

- (1) son born ca. 1796
- (2) " " " 1800
- (3) " " " 1807
- (4) " " " 1809

Nothing more is known about his lineage."

It is unclear how Ms. Hansford identified John Wright, the son of 1796 John Wright, as the husband of Mary Cox or as the John Wright listed in the 1810 Census.

ii. Betsy Wright

Betsy Wright was a daughter of John Wright and Elizabeth (____) Wright. (1657 Edward¹, 1695 John², 1752 John³, 1796 John⁴)

Charles Parish, York County, Virginia, History And Registers, by Landon C. Bell, listed the birth of Betsy Wright, daughter of John and Elizabeth Wright, on January 10, 1768:

"Wright, Betsy, dau. of John and Eliza. b. Jan. 10, bap. Feb. 21, 1768."

iii. Mary Wright

Mary Wright was a daughter of John Wright and Elizabeth (____) Wright. (1657 Edward¹, 1695 John², 1752 John³, 1796 John⁴)

Charles Parish, York County, Virginia, History And Registers, by Landon C. Bell, listed the birth of Mary Wright, daughter of John and Elizabeth Wright, on February 13, 1770:

"Wright, Mary, dau. of John and Eliza. b. Feb. 13, bap. April 8, 1770."

The 1806 Personal Property Tax List for York County, Virginia, listed Mary Wright immediately adjacent to Peter Wright and William Wright and with 1 black tithe.

The 1807 Personal Property Tax List for York County, Virginia, listed Mary Wright immediately adjacent to Dudley Wright and Peter Wright and with 1 horse.

No tax lists were taken in 1808 in Virginia.

iv. Dudley Wright And His Wife Ann (Baptist) Wright

Dudley Wright was a son of John Wright and Elizabeth (____) Wright. (1657 Edward¹, 1695 John², 1752 John³, 1796 John⁴)

Charles Parish, York County, Virginia, History And Registers, by Landon C. Bell, listed the birth of Dudley Wright, twin son of John and Elizabeth Wright, on March 1, 1773:

"Wright, Dudley, [twin with William], son of John and Eliza. b. March 1, bap. privately March 11, publicly April 4, 1773."

Virginia, U.S., Marriage Records, 1700-1850, available from Ancestry.com, listed the marriage of Dudley Wright and Ann Baptist on April 8, 1797, in York County, Virginia:

"Marriages In York County, 1794-1798

List of Marriages celebrated by the Revd Thos. Camm in Charles Parish, York Co., Va. from 3d June, 1794, to January, 1798.

April 8th, 1797. Dudley Wright to Ann Baptist."

The 1795 Personal Property Tax List for York County, Virginia, listed Dudley Wright in August 1795 immediately adjacent to John Wright, William Wright, and Peter Wright with 1 white tithe.

The 1795 Personal Property Tax List for York County, Virginia, listed Dudley Wright immediately adjacent to John Wright and William Wright with 1 white tithe.

The 1796 Personal Property Tax List for York County, Virginia, listed Dudley Wright immediately adjacent to John Wright and William Wright with 1 white tithe.

The 1797 Personal Property Tax List for York County, Virginia, listed Dudley Wright immediately adjacent to John Wright (Poquoson) with 1 white tithe.

The 1798 Personal Property Tax List for York County, Virginia, listed Dudley Wright immediately adjacent to John Wright (Pocoson) and Peter Wright and with 1 white tithe.

The 1799 Personal Property Tax List for York County, Virginia, listed Dudley Wright with 1 white tithe.

The 1800 Personal Property Tax List for York County, Virginia, listed Dudley Wright immediately adjacent to William Wright and with 1 white tithe and 1 horse.

The 1801 Personal Property Tax List for York County, Virginia, listed Dudley Wright with 1 white tithe and 1 horse.

The 1802 Personal Property Tax List for York County, Virginia, listed Dudley Wright with 1 white tithe and 1 horse.

The 1803 Personal Property Tax List for York County, Virginia, listed Dudley Wright with 1 white tithe and 1 black tithe.

The 1804 Personal Property Tax List for York County, Virginia, listed Dudley Wright with 1 white tithe.

The 1806 Personal Property Tax List for York County, Virginia, listed Dudley

Wright with 1 white tithe and 1 horse.

The 1807 Personal Property Tax List for York County, Virginia, listed Dudley Wright immediately adjacent to Peter Wright and Mary Wright and with 1 white tithe.

No tax lists were taken in 1808 in Virginia.

The 1810 Census for York County, Virginia, listed Dudley Wright with the following household on August 6, 1810:

Name of Head of Family	Free White Males	Age	Free White Female	Age	All Other Free Persons	Slaves
Dudley Wright	1	26-45	1	26-45

This record indicates that Dudley Wright and Ann (Baptist) Wright were born between about 1765 and 1784.

The 1820 Census for York County, Virginia, listed Dudley Wright with the following household on August 7, 1820:

Names of Heads of Families	Free White Males	Age	Free White Females	Age	Foreigners
Dudley Wright	1	45+	1	26-45

k. 1805 William Wright Of Fauquier County, His Wife Elizabeth (Lloyd) Wright, And His Descendants

1805 William Wright of Fauquier County was a son of 1752 John Wright of York County and Ann or Anne (Tenham) (Wright) Wilks. (1657 Edward¹, 1695 John², 1752 John³)

The will of John Wright dated on November 14, 1751, and probated on November 20, 1752, at York County, Virginia, W.&I.B. 20/273, listed William Wright as a child of John Wright by his wife Ann Wright:

" . . . And the rest of my whole Estate in any kind whatever I lend unto my said Wife during her widowhood or continues my Widow but in case she Marries then my Will and desire is that my Estate may be equally divided amongst my said Wife and my Children hereafter mentioned as meaning my Sons William, John, Dudley, Benjamin and my Daughter Elizabeth Wright all Born of this Body to me of my said welbeloved Wife Ann Wright to She them and their Heirs forever and if either of the said Children should die while my said Wife remains my Widow then Will and desire is that such Child or Children part may be equally divided amongst my said Wife and Children and so to continue amongst my said Wife and Children meaning William, John, Dudley, Benjamin and Elizabeth Wright to them and their Heirs . . . I give unto the Heirs of my daughter Ann Morland One Shilling Sterling and to my Son Edward Wright One Shilling Sterling to my Daughter Mary Morris One Shilling Sterling to my Daughter Sarah Marshall One Shilling Sterling and lastly to my Daughter Elizabeth Morland Wife of Young Morland One Shilling Sterling I also give unto my Son Lawrence Wright One Shilling Sterling . . . "

The documentation for the DAR Application #696077 of Eloise Wilma Ramsey Maynard, Shaker Heights, Cleveland, Ohio, dated October 24, 1985, included a Family Record prepared by William Wright, the son of 1805 William Wright of Fauquier County, which listed the following:

"Family Record for William Wright

William Wright (my Father) was born in York County Virga. Novembr 1st 1740.

Elizabeth Wright, (his Wife, my Mother, & daughter of Wm Lloyd) was born below York Town near Hampton Virginia Novemr. the 7th 1750.

They married Decemr. the 25th 1768.

Wm Wright Decd. August 29th, 1806 near the upper end of Fauquier Co. at his own farm near the blue Ridge & was interred in Dermonts burying ground, near the spot his Mother was placed in, many years before; whose age when she Died was said to be upwards of 80 years.

Elizabeth Wright Decd. July 25. 1830. & was Interred at the same place.

William Wright, (son of Wm. & Elizth. Wright) was born in York Town Virginia Novemr. 10th 1769.

William Wright Son of Willm and Elizabeth Wright Died august the 27th 1834 and was interred by the last above"

York County, Virginia, Land Records 1729-1763, by Mary Marshall Brewer, listed at page 153 the apprenticeship of William Wright to Nicholas Powell to be a tailor::

"17 Sep 1753. William Wright of York Co with the consent of his mother doth put himself apprentice to Nicholas Powell of the Town of York taylor to learn his art or trade till he shall come to the age of 21 Wit: Richard Ambler. Ackn 18 Sep 1753 by the parties. Attest: Thos Everard clerk. (Bk5:pg559)"

Since 1805 William Wright was born on Nov 1, 1740, in York County, Virginia, he would have been 12 years old at the time of this order, the right time to be apprenticed and yet young enough to require the consent of his parent. As set forth above, 1805 William Wright's son William was born on Nov 10, 1769, in Yorktown, Virginia, which is where the apprenticeship was made. This would appear to be sufficient circumstantial evidence to identify the William Wright of this court record as 1805 William Wright of Fauquier County, Virginia.

Although William Wright's mother was not named in the court order, the listing of her as consenting indicates that 1805 William Wright's father had died before 1753. The estate administration would have been sometime between shortly before 1805 William's birth or after approximately 1739 and the date of the court order of September 1753. As set forth above, the one estate administration which satisfies that requirement is that of 1752 John Wright of York County, whose will named one of his sons as William. Also as set forth above, 1752 John Wright's son Dudley Wright was also apprenticed in 1753 at age 16. The combination of both sons being apprenticed after their father's death would appear to confirm the identification of 1805 William Wright of Fauquier County as the son of 1752 John Wright of York County.

As set forth above, the Family Record of 1835 William Wright of Coshocton County, Ohio, in DAR Application #696077 stated that William Wright married Elizabeth Lloyd on December 25, 1768.

As set forth above, the Family Record of 1835 William Wright of Coshocton County, Ohio, in DAR Application #696077 listed the birth of William Wright, the son of 1805 William Wright of Fauquier County and Elizabeth (Lloyd) Wright, on November 10, 1769, in Yorktown, York County, Virginia.

Charles Parish, York County, Virginia, History And Registers, by Landon C. Bell, listed the birth of Nancy Wright, daughter of William and Elizabeth Wright, on March 3, 1778:

"Wright, Nancy, dau. Of William and Elizabeth, b. March 3, bap. April 17, 1778. ("Ykhpton")."

However, there were two William Wrights with wife Elizabeth Wright in York County at about this time, both of whom had a daughter Nancy: the first 1805 William Wright of Fauquier County, the son of 1752 John Wright of York County, and the second 1778 William Wright of York County, the son of 1736 William Wright of York County. As set forth below, Nancy Wright, the daughter of 1805 William Wright, was born on November 3, 1784, or in about 1785, with the result that this birth record was probably for 1778 William Wright of York County, the son of 1736 William Wright of York County, and his wife Elizabeth (____) Wright.

Fauquier County, Virginia Court Records 1776-1782, by John K. Gott, stated that on March 27, 1780, the following court order was filed:

"A Cert. signed by Charles Mynn Thurston that William Wright, William Provo, Vincent Rollins and Robert Sherrington had served as Soldiers in the last War in the second Virginia Regiment in Capt. Eustace's Company was proved to be authentic by oath of William Wright - ordered to be certified."

This record indicates that William Wright had moved to Fauquier County by March 27, 1780.

Military Records, Patriotic Service and Public Service Claims from Fauquier County, Virginia Minute Books 1759-1784, by Joan W. Peters, included the following:

A Certificate was produced and signed by Charles Mynn Thurston that Wm. Wright, Wm. Provo, Vincent Rollins and Robert Sherrington served as soldiers in the last war in the 2nd Virginia Regiment, Captain Eustace's Company. The Certificate was proved to be an authentic and true certificate by oaths of Wm. Wright who also made oath that no claim or proof had ever before been made to land for services, which was ordered certified."

In his emails dated August 18, 2009, and September 25, 2009, Frank White astutely noted that the certificate referred to "the last war" and, therefore, was referring to the French and Indian War and not the Revolutionary War. Mr. White stated that in May 1779 the Virginia Legislature gave veterans of the French and Indian War twelve months to file claims for bounty land promised by a Royal Proclamation in 1763, thus precipitating the filing of the claim by William Wright. Mr. White also noted that:

1) Charles Mynn Thruston (not Thurston) was a lieutenant in the 2nd Virginia Regiment under George Washington's command during the evacuation of Fort Duquesne in 1758 and was later known as the "Fighting Parson" in the Revolutionary War,

2) The other soldiers mentioned in the certificate had been born in York County, Virginia: William Provo in 1736 or 1739, Vincent Rollins in 1737, and Robert Sherrington in 1737.

This analysis indicates that William Wright had probably abandoned his apprenticeship in about 1757 or 1758 when he was 17 or 18 years old to join the provincial army and fight the French and Indians.

On September 5, 1780, at Fauquier County, Virginia, D.B. 7/300, William Wright of Fauquier County purchased 175 acres of land from Hezekiah and Henrietta Turner:

The presence of Edward Wright in the household identifies him as a son of William Wright and as set forth above and more fully set forth below, this was 1835 Edward Wright of Coshocton County, Ohio.

On April 7, 1794, at Fauquier County, D.B. 11/494 William Wright and his wife

Elizabeth Wright sold the land purchased by Fauquier County Deed 7/300 to John Thomas Dean:

The Common Wealth of Virginia To Burr Harrison, William Withers and Richard Rixey Gentlemen greeting. Whereas William Wright and Elizabeth his wife by their certain Indenture of bargain and Sale bearing Date the 7th day of April 1794 have sold and conveyed unto John Thomas Chunn the fee simple estate of One hundred and seventy five Acres of Land situate in the County of Fauquier and whereas the said Elizabeth cannot conveniently travel to the Court of the said County to make acknowledgment of the same. We do therefore give unto you or any two of you power to receive the acknowledgment which the said Elizabeth shall be willing to make before you of the conveyance aforesaid contained in the said Indenture which is hereunto annexed, and we do command you that you do personally go to the said Elizabeth and examine her privily and apart from the said William her husband whether she doth the same freely and voluntarily without his persuasion or threats and whether she be willing the same should be recorded in the said County Court"

The reference in the legal description to the land being the same as that purchased on September 25, 1780, clearly identifies the William Wright of Fauquier Deed 7/300 as the same William Wright of Fauquier Deed 11/494 and the listing of William Wright's wife as Elizabeth identifies this William Wright as 1805 William Wright of Fauquier County whose wife named in his will was Elizabeth.

As set forth below, the inventory of the estate of William Wright listed a lease for 202 acres of land. This record indicates that while William Wright had sold his land in 1794, he apparently had leased it back for the family residence and remained there until his death in 1805.

However, it is not clear whether this was for 1805 William Wright of Fauquier County or some other William Wright just establishing his household.

The 1805 Personal Property Tax List for Fauquier County, Virginia, did not list a William Wright, but at least one list appears to be missing.

The will of William Wright was undated, probated on April 28, 1806, at Fauquier County, Virginia, W.B. 4/203, and provided as follows:

"In the name of God, Amen, I Wm Wright of Fauquier County and State of Virginia, Considering the uncertainty of this mortal life but being of a sound & perfect mind and memory blessed be almighty God for the same do mak and publish this my last will and Testament in Manner and form following (that is to say) to my well Beloved Wife Elizabeth Wright, I bequeath all and the whole of my Estate & property whatsoever found during the State of her Widowhood or lifetime She remaining a Widow & at her Decease it shall be equally divided amongst My children or their heirs excepting the place of Land whereon My Son Wm Wright now lives which I Bestow to him during his mothers lifetime & I also advise him to sell it and make use of the mony during sd. The date of probate of the will makes clear that the Bible record of 1805 William Wright's son William Wright was incorrect in listing his death in 1806 and probably mistakenly listed the year in which probate was had of 1806 in place of the likely year of death of 1805.

On July 23, 1810, at Fauquier County, W.B. 5/166 the inventory of the estate of William Wright was filed:

Teste,
Jno. A. W. Smith CC"

In his article "Some Descendants Of Richard Wright, Gentleman, Of Lond, England, And Northumberland, Virginia, 1655" in Tyler's Quarterly Magazine, Volume I, page 127, 1919, Charles Arthur Hoppin stated that the will of John Wright, Gent., dated June 1, 1785, named:

". . . . (6) - his son William Wright whose will, proved at Warrenton, April 28, 1806 [original will filed in the 1806 bundle in Fauquier count clerk's office], names wife Elizabeth, son William Wright, Jr., and refers to his other children without naming them; but on page 372 of Fauquier will book No. 8 is the entry of the division of the estate showing, to wit: "£974:18:4½ - the sum to be divided between the fourteen children of the said Wm. Wright which will make each legatee's part £69-12-8¾." Lack of space forbids the present citation of evidence upon these fourteen children, some of whom may be recognized in the following: Sarah, who had married the administrator of William Wright's estate, John Evans; Jane, who married Lain Smith; Mary, who married Joshua Lemert; David, who married Nancy Martin; Elijah, who married Polly Brannin; Joshua, who married Susan Carroll; Joseph, who married Elizabeth McCoy; Edward, who married Elizabeth Kay. [These marriages are recorded at Warrenton, Virginia.] William Wright, the said testator of 1805, served in Capt. Eustace's company, second Virginia regiment, in the War of the Revolution, as per a certificate recorded on page 442 of Fauquier court record book for March term, 1780. Circumspection must be observed in studying the numerous records of this William Wright, who had a stormy career as a litigant, lest he be confounded with the son of William of a Richard Wright* (wife Mary Ann), who died in Prince William county, 1767, this son William being the grantor of 1787 of lands in Prince William county to sons Zealy and John.

*This Richard Wright was brother of William Wright, of Fredericksburg, Virginia, whose death is recorded in the Fredericksburg Gazette of October 15, 1789, viz.: "Died Monday last Mr Wm Wright, aged 89"; both were the orphaned sons of Richard Wright, who died, in 1700, in the house of Capt. Richard Fossaker in Stafford county, leaving a nuncupative will, in which Dade Massey deposes that Richard Wright "ye 10th day of Octor . . . lay upon his death Bed & to ye best of his knowledge he heard him say that he will give his son William Wright to Mary Ellis & his son Richd Wright to Gilbert Alsop," etc. [Stafford county will book Z, page 57.]

Mr. Hoppin apparently assumed that the William Wright named in 1792 John Wright's will was the same William Wright as the William whose will was probated in 1806 in Fauquier County, but as set forth in the material on 1809 William Wright of Franklin County, William Wright, the son of 1792 John Wright of Fauquier County, was described in Prince William County, Virginia, D.B. M/169 dated August 26, 1751, as living on his own land and since 1805 William Wright of Fauquier County was only 11 years old at that time, 1805 William Wright of Fauquier County could not be the son of 1792 John Wright of Fauquier County.

In 1932 Mr. Hoppin included a summary of information on 1805 William Wright in his work The Washington Ancestry and Records of The McClain, Johnson, and Forty Other Colonial American Families:

"Of the descendants of John⁴ Wright, some of those from his sons William and James have been ascertained from the records, but it is the present purpose to portray in detail only the records of the family of his son John⁵. Thus the other children are now dismissed from notice beyond the following summary:. . .

William⁵ Wright (senior) had a rather stormy career as a litigant, usually unsuccessful, in the county court. He married twice, Mary (____), and Elizabeth (____), who survived him. His military services are of record on page 25 of Volume I of Fauquier court minute books for September 27, 1759, his father then sitting as justice: "John Wright Present . . . John Cole, Elias Edmonds, William Wright, Armistead Churchill etc. Captains, took the usual oaths to his Majesty's person and Government and subscribed the Test." . . . Also in Fauquier court minutes for March term 1780, p. 442, viz.: "A Certificate signed by Charles Mynn Thruston that William Wright, William Provo, Vincent Rollins, and Robert Sherington had served as soldiers in the last War [Revolution] in the second Virginia Regiment in Captain Eustace's Company was proved to be an authentic and true certificate by the oath of William Wright wh also made oath that no Claim or proof had ever before been made to land for the said services, which was ordered to be certified." The land presented to him on August 26, 1751, as stated in his father's will was 185 acres in the parish of Hamilton adjoining lands of Jonas Williams and Simon Morgan, "being part of a greater Dividant taken up by Waugh Darnall, Dec'd, by patent Dated the 17th day of FFebruary 1725." Of this land William Wright and wife Mary sold August 27, 1762, to Thomas Edwards, 125 acres; and with David Williams and wife Betty he sold the remaining 60 acres, on October 145, 162, to John Waddle. [Fauquier Deeds M-169 and L-371 and L-435.]

This William Wright, Sr.'s will, proved April 28, 1806, names his (second) wife, Elizabeth, son William, Jr., (who married Elizabeth [____] and had eight children in the census of 1810), and refers to his other thirteen without giving their names or stating by which wife they were born; but on page 372 of Fauquier Will Book No. 8 is an entry of the division of his estate to wit: "£974:18:4½ - the sum to be divided between the fourteen children of the said Wm Wright." Some of them may be recognized from the marriage licenses and marriage returns recorded in the county clerk's office at Warrenton, among which are Sarah, licensed May 5, 1796, to marry John Evans, who became administrator of her father's estate; Jane, licensed December 25, 1785, to marry Lain (or Lane) Smith; Mary, licensed February 6, 1798, to marry Joshua Lemert (entered as "Jemert" on the record of the marriage "return"); David, licensed January 28, 1790, to marry Ann Mason; Susanna, licensed January 24, 1806, to marry Wm. McDowell, named in the administrator's account."

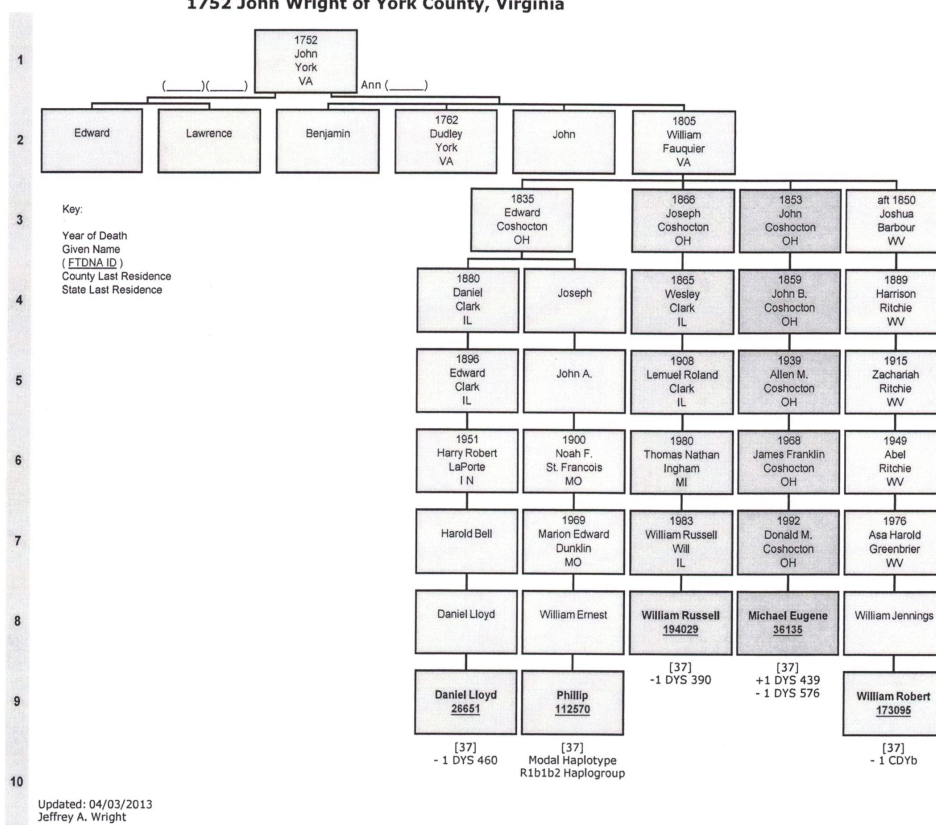

Once again, Mr. Hoppin confused William Wright, the son of 1792 John Wright of Fauquier County, with 1805 William Wright of Fauquier County. As Mr. Hoppin stated, he was focused on the line of John Wright, the son of 1792 John Wright of Fauquier County, and offered only the summary quoted above regarding William Wright, the son of 1792 John Wright of Fauquier County. The listing of a marriage to Mary _____, the acquisition of land from John Wright in 1751, and the sale of that land in 1762 all relate to 1809 William Wright of Franklin County and not to 1805 William Wright of Fauquier County.

In her book Major Francis Wright And Ann Washington With Allied Families, 1973, Anne Reed Ritchie stated that William Wright was a son of 1792 John Wright of Fauquier County and Elizabeth (Darnall) Wright, was born on November 28, 1740, at York County, Virginia, based on "Bible", or on November 1, 1740, based on "Patriot Index", married first Mary _____, but that this marriage was questionable, married second Elizabeth Lloyd on December 25, 1768, at York County, Virginia, died on August 29, 1805, at Fauquier County, Virginia, based on "Bible", or August 29, 1806, based on "Patriot Index", and was buried at Dermonte Burying Ground, Fauquier County, Virginia, and that 1805 William Wright of Fauquier County and Mary (_____) Wright had two children and that 1805 William Wright of Fauquier County and Elizabeth (Lloyd) Wright had fourteen children. The location of the Bible record was not listed. The Bible record referred to was probably the Family Record included with the documentation for the DAR Application #696077 of Eloise Wilma Ramsey Maynard, Shaker Heights, Cleveland, Ohio, listed above.

Five descendants of 1805 William Wright of Fauquier County, Virginia, have participated in the Wright DNA Project and the results of their sequencing are set forth at <http://www.wright-dna.org/assets/css/R1b1Results.html> and place them in Haplogroup R-M269, Group 15. A chart of the lines of descent from 1805 William Wright of Fauquier County, Virginia, to those participants is available at the Wright DNA Project and is set forth on the following page:

Y-DNA Contributor Descendants of 1752 John Wright of York County, Virginia

From the evidence set forth above and additional evidence set forth below, the children of 1805 William Wright and Elizabeth (Lloyd) Wright were the following:

- 1) William Wright, born on November 10, 1769, in Yorktown, York County, Virginia,
- 2) Mary (Wright) Lemert, born on June 2, 1771,
- 3) Elizabeth (Wright) White, born on September 19, 1773,
- 4) Edward Wright, born on June 1, 1776, in Virginia,
- 5) Sarah (Wright) Evans, born on April 3, 1778, in Virginia,
- 6) Joseph Wright, born in about 1780 or 1781 in Virginia,
- 7) Joshua Wright, born in about 1782 in Virginia,
- 8) Nancy (Wright) Kendall, born on November 3, 1784, or in about 1785 in Virginia,
- 9) Lucy (Wright) Norris, born on July 22, 1785, or in about 1786,
- 10) Susannah (Wright) McDowell, born between about 1765 and 1784,
- 11) Martha "Patty" or "Patsy" (Wright) Norris, born on March 12, 1786, or in about 1787 in Virginia,
- 12) John Wright, born in about 1788 or 1789 in Virginia,
- 13) Lloyd Wright, born in about 1791 or on January 28, 1792, in Virginia, and
- 14) _____ Wright.

The 1792 Personal Property Tax List for Fauquier County, Virginia, did not list a William Wright, Jr.

The 1793 Personal Property Tax List for Fauquier County, Virginia, listed a William Writ, but it is unclear whether this was William Wright, Jr., the son of William Wright.

The 1794 Personal Property Tax List for Fauquier County, Virginia, did not list a William Wright, Jr.

The 1795 Personal Property Tax List for Fauquier County, Virginia, listed a William John Wright and a William Writ, but it is unclear whether either of these listings was for William Wright, Jr., the son of William Wright.

The marriage record of William Wright and Amy Frazier was dated on September 29, 1795, in Frederick County, Virginia:

"Know all men by these Presents, That we William Wright & David Parkins are held and firmly bound unto his Excellency Robert Brooke Esq. Governor of Virginia, in the just and full sum of one hundred and fifty Dollars, to which payment well and truly to be made, to the said Governor, or his successors, we bind ourselves our heirs, executors, and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents. Sealed with our seal, and dated this 29th day of Septemr. 1795

The condition of the above obligation is such, that, whereas there is a marriage suddenly intended to be solemnized between the above bound William Wright and Amy Frazier now if there be no lawful cause to obstruct the said Marriage, then the above obligation to be void and of no effect, otherwise to remain in full force and virtue

Isaac Beall"

William Wright

As set forth above, the William Wright Family Record listed the birth of his child Edward Wright on December 8, 1815, in Washington Township, Coshocton County, Ohio, which indicates the move of William Wright and his family to Coshocton County, Ohio, in mid-1815.

The 1816 and later Personal Property Tax Lists for Fauquier County, Virginia, did not list William Wright.

Also as set forth above, the William Wright Family Record listed the death of Amy (Frazier) Wright on June 23, 1819, in Pike Township, Coshocton County, Ohio, and her burial in Joshua Lemart's burying ground.

The 1820 Census for Coshocton County, Ohio, listed William Wright with the following household in Pike Township:

Names of Heads of Families	Free White Males	Age	Free White Females	Age	Foreigners

Slaves Female	Age	Free Colored Males	Age	Free Colored Females	Age	All other Persons

This record indicates that William Wright was born before 1775. The absence of an older female in the household reflects the death Amy (Frazier) Wright in 1819.

The marriage record of William Wright and his second wife Catharine Kasner was dated on May 18, 1823, in Coshocton County, Ohio:

"No. 413 William Wright To Catharine Kasner

State of Ohio Coshocton County ss

I do hereby certify that I solemnized the marriage contract between William Wright and Catharine Kasner on the 18th day of May 1823 by License bearing date 15 May 1823. Given from under my hand and seal 18th of this Instant

William Cunningham
A minister of the Methodist Episcopal Church"

As set forth above, the William Wright Family Record also listed the marriage of William Wright to Katharine (Kasner) Wright on May 18, 1823.

Marriages, Coshocton County, Ohio, 1811-1930, by Miriam C. Hunter, also listed the marriage of William Wright and Catharine Kasner on May 18, 1823, in Coshocton County, Ohio.

As set forth above, the William Wright Family Record listed the birth of his child Martin Luther Wright on July 18, 1828, in Pike Township, Coshocton County, Ohio.

The 1830 Census for Coshocton County, Ohio, listed William Wright with the following household in Pike Township:

This record indicates that William Wright was born between 1760 and 1770.

As set forth above, the William Wright Family Record listed the birth of his child Daniel Howard Wright on July 10, 1830, in Pike Township, Coshocton County, Ohio,

And as set forth above, the William Wright Family Record listed the death of Katharine Wright on November 5, 1830, and her burial in Joshua Lemart's burying ground.

The marriage record of William Wright and his third wife Mary Morgan was dated on April 6, 1834, in Coshocton County, Ohio:

"Marriage Record
238 William Wright To Mary Morgan

This may certify that on the 6th day of April 1834 by virtue of a license from the Clerk of the Court of Common Pleas of Coshocton county William Wright and Mary Morgan were legally joined in marriage by me a Justice of the peace for said county.

April 14, 1834

John Bryan J.P."

As set forth above, the William Wright Family Record listed the death of William Wright on August 27, 1834, and his burial in Joshua Lemart's burying ground.

Enclosed with the documentation for the DAR Application #696077 of Eloise Wilma Ramsey Maynard was a photograph of the tombstone of William Wright which listed the following:

"William Wright
died Aug 27, 1834
aged 65 years"

In his letter dated September 25, 2003, Jerry Jacobs enclosed an excerpt from Coshocton County, Ohio, Cemeteries, Volume VI, Pike Township, by the Coshocton County Chapter of the Ohio Genealogical Society and published in 1988, which listed the following tombstone from Broomstick Cemetery:

"William Wright
65 yr"

Findagrave.com listed the gravestone of William Wright in Broomstick Cemetery, Coshocton County, Ohio, and his death on June 21, 1834:

"William Wright

Birth	1769
Death	21 Jun 1834 (aged 64–65)
Burial	Broomstick Cemetery Pike Township, Coshocton County, Ohio, USA
Memorial ID	137402791"

However, no photograph of the gravestone was provided.

The difference in the date of death in these records was probably due to a misreading of the tombstone inscription and the date of the will set forth below of August 15, 1834, indicates that the August 27, 1834, date of death was the correct date.

The will of William Wright was dated on August 15, 1834, probated on September 27, 1834, at Coshocton County, Ohio, Probate File 121, and provided as follows:

"Called Court Septr 27th 1834

As set forth below, Marriages, Coshocton County, Ohio, 1811-1930, by Miriam C. Hunter, listed the marriage of William Wright's daughter Polly Wright and Newman Smith on January 16, 1817, at Coshocton County, Ohio, and also listed the marriage of Newman Smith and Esther Squires on September 25, 1831, in Coshocton County, Ohio. These records indicate that William Wright's daughter Mary (Wright) Smith had died before September 25, 1831.

In his email dated April 25, 2004, Don Cathey enclosed an excerpt from

Coshocton County, Ohio - Common Pleas Court Records 1838-1840 which listed the following case:

"Apr. 1838 - Mary Wright vs. Lewis Wright et al. Petition for Dower. Filed 3-7-1837. William Wright, dec'd died seized of an estate of inheritance in 62½ acres part E 1/2 Section 19, Township 4, Range 9. Widow, Mary Wright. Heirs: Lewis Wright; Albert Wright; Mary Smith, dec'd, her children - Theodore Smith, Garrison Smith, Mary Smith and Alexander Smith, all minors; Charles Wright; William Wright; Patsy Wright; Elwood Wright; Edward Wright; Martin Wright; and Daniel Wright. (17)"

This record is consistent with the Family Record and the Mary Wright marriage records and identifies this family as that of 1834 William Wright of Coshocton County, Ohio, and indicates that William Wright married for his third wife Mary (____) Wright. As set forth above, William Wright's third wife was Mary (Morgan) Wright.

History Of Coshocton County, Ohio: Its Past And Present, 1740-1881, by N. N. Hill, Jr., and published in 1881, included the following regarding William Wright:

"The tax duplicate for 1821 shows the following additional names as resident property-holders. As land did not become taxable till after it had been entered five years, some, if not all, of these settlers were probably here as early as 1816:

William Wright, from Virginia, a local surveyor, and by trade a wheel-wright, the northeast quarter of section 22.

. . . .

Little is known of the early schools of the township. Like in all other pioneer settlements, they were irregularly held, meagerly attended, and very inefficient, as compared with the schools of the present day. A school-cabin was built about 1824 on the hill south of Hiram Noland's house, on the southeast quarter of section 12. William Wright was the first teacher in this building. He was a learned teacher, proficient in Latin, it is said, and a thorough mathematician. He remained in charge of the school for a number of years.

DAR Application #446511 for Marguerite (Rommel) Hallinan dated September 20, 1956, stated that William Wright was born on November 10, 1769, in Yorktown, Virginia, married Amy Frazier about 1795, and died on August 27, 1834, in Coshocton County, Ohio, that Amy (Frazier) Wright was born on November 18, 1778, in Chester County, Pennsylvania, and died on June 23, 1819, in Pike Township, Coshocton County, Ohio, and that William Wright and Amy (Frazier) Wright had the following child:

- 1) Lewis Wright, born on December 7, 1800, in Fauquier County, Virginia.

In his email dated May 15, 2004, Gareth R. Habel enclosed family group sheets which stated that William Wright was born on November 10, 1769, in York County, Virginia, married first Amy Frazier on September 29, 1795, married second Katherine Kasner on May 18, 1823, in Coshocton County, Ohio, married third Mary Morgan on April 6, 1834, in Coshocton County, Ohio, died on August 27, 1834, in Coshocton County, Ohio, and was buried in Broomstick Cemetery, Coshocton County, Ohio, that Amy (Frazier) Wright was born on November 1, 1778, in Chester County, Pennsylvania, and died on June 23, 1819, in Coshocton County, Ohio, and that William Wright and Amy (Frazier) Wright had the following children:

- 1) Mary (Wright) Smith, born on March 19, 1796, in Frederick County, Virginia,
 - 2) George Washington Wright, born on December 5, 1797, in Fauquier County, Virginia,
 - 3) Charles Wright, born on December 12, 1798, in Fauquier County, Virginia,
 - 4) Lewis Wright, born on December 7, 1800, in Fauquier County, Virginia,
 - 5) William Wright, born on August 10, 1802, in Fauquier County, Virginia,
 - 6) Albert Wright, born in 1803 in Fauquier County, Virginia,
 - 7) Martha "Patsy" (Wright) McMorris, born on March 20, 1806, in Fauquier County, Virginia,
 - 8) Sarah Wright, born on May 18, 1808, in Fauquier County, Virginia,
 - 9) John Wright, born on November 8, 1810, in Fauquier County, Virginia,
 - 10) Elwood Wright, born on June 12, 1813, and
 - 11) Edward Wright, born on December 8, 1815, in Coshocton County, Ohio,
- and that William Wright and Katherine (Kasner) Wright had the following children:

- 1) Martin Luther Wright, born on July 18, 1828, in Coshocton County, Ohio, and
- 2) Daniel Howard Wright, born on July 10, 1830.

From the evidence set forth above and additional evidence set forth below, the children of 1834 William Wright and Amy (Frazier) Wright were the following:

- 1) Mary (Wright) Smith, born on March 19, 1796, in Frederick County, Virginia,

- 2) George Washington Wright, born on December 5, 1797, in Fauquier County, Virginia,
- 3) Charles Wright, born on December 12, 1798, in Fauquier County, Virginia,
- 4) Lewis Wright, born on December 7, 1800, in Fauquier County, Virginia,
- 5) Albert Wright, born on August 22, 1802, in Fauquier County, Virginia,
- 6) William Wright, born on August 10, 1804, in Fauquier County, Virginia,
- 7) Martha (Wright) McMorris, born on March 20, 1806, in Fauquier County, Virginia,
- 8) Sarah Wright, born on May 18, 1808, in Fauquier County, Virginia,
- 9) John Wright, born on November 8, 1810, in Fauquier County, Virginia,
- 10) Elwood Wright, born on Jun 12, 1812, in Fauquier County, Virginia, and
- 11) Edward Wright, born on December 8, 1815, in Washington Township, Coshocton County, Ohio, and the children of 1834 William Wright and Katharine (Kasner) Wright were the following:

- 1) Martin Luther Wright, born on July 18, 1828, in Pike Township, Coshocton County, Ohio, and
- 2) Daniel Howard Wright, born on July 10, 1830, in Pike Township, Coshocton County, Ohio.

(I) Mary (Wright) Smith, Her Husband Newman Smith, And Her Descendants

Mary (Wright) Smith was a daughter of 1834 William Wright of Coshocton County, Ohio, and Amy (Frazier) Wright. (1657 Edward¹, 1695 John², 1752 John³, 1805 William⁴, 1834 William⁵)

The documentation for the DAR Application #696077 of Eloise Wilma Ramsey Maynard, Shaker Heights, Cleveland, Ohio, dated October 24, 1985, included a Family Record which listed the following:

"William Wright (son of Wm & Elizth. Wright) was born in York Town Virginia Novemr. the 10th 1769.

Amy Wright, (his wife Daughter of John & Martha Frazier was born in Chester Co. Pennsylvania Novemr. the 1st, 1778.

1. Mary Wright (Daughter of Wm & A. W was born in Frederick Co Virga
March the 19th, 1796.

The marriage record of Polly Wright and Newman Smith was dated on January 16, 1817, in Coshocton County, Ohio:

"Coshocton Ohio Mariage Record

No. 108 Newman Smith To Polly Wright.

Was Maried by me the subscriber a Justice of the peace for Coshockton County Newman Smith to Polly Wright On the 16th day of January 1817.

Samuel Hardesty J.P.

Slaves Female	Age	Free Colored Males	Age	Free Colored Females	Age	All other Persons

This record indicates that Mary (Wright) Smith and Newman Smith were born between about 1794 and 1804.

Newman Smith has not as yet been found in the 1830 Census.

The marriage record of Newman Smith and Esther Squires was dated on September 25, 1831, in Coshocton County, Ohio:

"1018 Newman Smith To Esther Squires

I do hereby certify that on the 25th of September 1831 by Virtue of a License from the Clerk of the Court of Common pleas of Coshocton County Newman Smith and Esther Squires were legally joined in marriage by me a Justice of the peace in and for Said County Given under my hand the 4th day of October 1831

Bradly Squire J. P."

Marriages, Coshocton County, Ohio, 1811-1930, by Miriam C. Hunter, also listed the marriage of Newman Smith and Esther Squires on September 25, 1831, in Coshocton County, Ohio.

These marriage records indicate that Mary (Wright) Smith had died before September 25, 1831.

U.S. General Land Office Records, 1776-2015, available from Ancestry.com, listed the Patent dated September 8, 1835, at BLM Accession No. OH0420_.340, to Newman Smith of Coshocton County, Ohio, of 32.7 acres of land in the NW ¼ of the SE ¼ of Section 2, Township 4, Range 7, of the unappropriated lands of the Military District.

In his email dated April 25, 2004, Don Cathey enclosed an excerpt from Coshocton County, Ohio - Common Pleas Court Records 1838-1840 which stated that a Petition for Dower filed March 7, 1837, in the case of Wright v. Wright, listed Mary (Wright) Smith as a daughter of William Wright:

"Apr. 1838 - Mary Wright vs. Lewis Wright et al. Petition for Dower. Filed 3-7-1837. William Wright, dec'd died seized of an estate of inheritance in 62-1/2 acres part E 1/2 Section 19, Township 4, Range 9. Widow, Mary Wright. Heirs: Lewis Wright; Albert Wright; Mary Smith, dec'd, her children - Theodore Smith, Garrison Smith, Mary Smith and Alexander Smith, all minors; Charles Wright; William Wright; Patsy Wright; Elwood Wright; Edward Wright; Martin Wright; and Daniel Wright. (17)"

This record indicates that Mary (Wright) Smith had died before March 7, 1837, and that Mary (Wright) Smith and ____ Smith had the following children:

- 1) Theodore Smith, born after March 7, 1816,

- 2) Garrison Smith, born after March 7, 1816,
- 3) Mary Smith, born after March 7, 1816, and
- 4) Alexander Smith, born after March 7, 1816.

The 1840 Census for Coshocton County, Ohio, listed Newman Smith with the following household:

In his email dated May 15, 2004, Gareth R. Habel enclosed family group sheets which stated that Mary Wright was a daughter of William Wright and Amy (Frazier) Wright, was born on March 19, 1796, in Frederick County, Virginia, and married Newman Smith on January 16, 1817, in Coshocton County, Ohio.

From the evidence set forth above, the children of Mary (Wright) Smith and Newman Smith were the following:

- 1) Theodore Smith, born after March 7, 1816,
- 2) Garrison Smith, born after March 7, 1816,
- 3) Mary Smith, born after March 7, 1816, and
- 4) Alexander Smith, born after March 7, 1816.

(A) Theodore Smith

Theodore Smith was a son of Mary (Wright) Smith and Newman Smith. (1657 Edward¹, 1695 John², 1752 John³, 1805 William⁴, 1834 William⁵, Mary)

In his email dated April 25, 2004, Don Cathey enclosed an excerpt from Coshocton County, Ohio - Common Pleas Court Records 1838-1840 which stated that a Petition for Dower filed March 7, 1837, in the case of Wright v. Wright, listed Mary (Wright) Smith as a daughter of William Wright and Theodore Smith as one of her children:

"Apr. 1838 - Mary Wright vs. Lewis Wright et al. Petition for Dower. Filed 3-7-1837. William Wright, dec'd died seized of an estate of inheritance in 62-1/2 acres part E 1/2 Section 19, Township 4, Range 9. Widow, Mary Wright. Heirs: Lewis Wright; Albert Wright; Mary Smith, dec'd, her children - Theodore Smith, Garrison Smith, Mary Smith and Alexander Smith, all minors; Charles Wright; William Wright; Patsy Wright; Elwood Wright; Edward Wright; Martin Wright; and Daniel Wright. (17)"

This record indicates that Theodore Smith was born after March 7, 1816.

(B) Garrison Smith

Garrison Smith was a son of Mary (Wright) Smith and Newman Smith. (1657 Edward¹, 1695 John², 1752 John³, 1805 William⁴, 1834 William⁵, Mary)

In his email dated April 25, 2004, Don Cathey enclosed an excerpt from Coshocton County, Ohio - Common Pleas Court Records 1838-1840 which stated that a Petition for Dower filed March 7, 1837, in the case of Wright v. Wright, listed Mary (Wright) Smith as a daughter of William Wright and Garrison Smith as one of her children:

"Apr. 1838 - Mary Wright vs. Lewis Wright et al. Petition for Dower. Filed 3-7-1837. William Wright, dec'd died seized of an estate of inheritance in 62-1/2 acres part E 1/2 Section 19, Township 4, Range 9. Widow, Mary Wright. Heirs: Lewis Wright; Albert Wright; Mary Smith, dec'd, her children - Theodore Smith, Garrison Smith, Mary Smith and Alexander Smith, all minors; Charles Wright; William Wright; Patsy Wright; Elwood Wright; Edward Wright; Martin Wright; and Daniel Wright. (17)"

This record indicates that Garrison Smith was born after March 7, 1816.

(C) Mary Smith

Mary Smith was a daughter of Mary (Wright) Smith and Newman Smith. (1657 Edward¹, 1695 John², 1752 John³, 1805 William⁴, 1834 William⁵, Mary)

In his email dated April 25, 2004, Don Cathey enclosed an excerpt from Coshocton County, Ohio - Common Pleas Court Records 1838-1840 which stated that a Petition for Dower filed March 7, 1837, in the case of Wright v. Wright, listed Mary

(Wright) Smith as a daughter of William Wright and Mary Smith as one of her children:

"Apr. 1838 - Mary Wright vs. Lewis Wright et al. Petition for Dower. Filed 3-7-1837. William Wright, dec'd died seized of an estate of inheritance in 62-1/2 acres part E 1/2 Section 19, Township 4, Range 9. Widow, Mary Wright. Heirs: Lewis Wright; Albert Wright; Mary Smith, dec'd, her children - Theodore Smith, Garrison Smith, Mary Smith and Alexander Smith, all minors; Charles Wright; William Wright; Patsy Wright; Elwood Wright; Edward Wright; Martin Wright; and Daniel Wright. (17)"

This record indicates that Mary Smith was born after March 7, 1816.

(D) Alexander Smith

Alexander Smith was a son of Mary (Wright) Smith and Newman Smith. (1657 Edward¹, 1695 John², 1752 John³, 1805 William⁴, 1834 William⁵, Mary)

In his email dated April 25, 2004, Don Cathey enclosed an excerpt from Coshocton County, Ohio - Common Pleas Court Records 1838-1840 which stated that a Petition for Dower filed March 7, 1837, in the case of Wright v. Wright, listed Mary (Wright) Smith as a daughter of William Wright and Alexander Smith as one of her children:

"Apr. 1838 - Mary Wright vs. Lewis Wright et al. Petition for Dower. Filed 3-7-1837. William Wright, dec'd died seized of an estate of inheritance in 62-1/2 acres part E 1/2 Section 19, Township 4, Range 9. Widow, Mary Wright. Heirs: Lewis Wright; Albert Wright; Mary Smith, dec'd, her children - Theodore Smith, Garrison Smith, Mary Smith and Alexander Smith, all minors; Charles Wright; William Wright; Patsy Wright; Elwood Wright; Edward Wright; Martin Wright; and Daniel Wright. (17)"

This record indicates that Alexander Smith was born after March 7, 1816.

(II) George Washington Wright

George Washington Wright was a son of 1834 William Wright of Coshocton County, Ohio, and Amy (Frazier) Wright. (1657 Edward¹, 1695 John², 1752 John³, 1805 William⁴, 1834 William⁵)

The documentation for the DAR Application #696077 of Eloise Wilma Ramsey Maynard, Shaker Heights, Cleveland, Ohio, dated October 24, 1985, included a Family Record which listed the following:

"William Wright (son of Wm & Elizth. Wright) was born in York Town Virginia Novemr. the 10th 1769.

Amy Wright, (his wife Daughter of John & Martha Frazier was born in Chester Co. Pennsylvania Novemr. the 1st, 1778.

2. George Washington Wright was born in Fauquier Co. Virginia Decemr. the 5th 1797.

In his email dated April 25, 2004, Don Cathey enclosed an excerpt from Coshocton County, Ohio - Common Pleas Court Records 1838-1840 which listed a Petition for Dower filed March 7, 1837, in the case of Wright v. Wright and which listed the heirs of William Wright:

"Apr. 1838 - Mary Wright vs. Lewis Wright et al. Petition for Dower. Filed 3-7-1837. William Wright, dec'd died seized of an estate of inheritance in 62-1/2 acres part E 1/2 Section 19, Township 4, Range 9. Widow, Mary Wright. Heirs: Lewis Wright; Albert Wright; Mary Smith, dec'd, her children - Theodore Smith, Garrison Smith, Mary Smith and Alexander Smith, all minors; Charles Wright; William Wright; Patsy Wright; Elwood Wright; Edward Wright; Martin Wright; and Daniel Wright. (17)"

The absence of George Washington Wright from the list of heirs suggests that he had died before March 7, 1837.

In his email dated May 15, 2004, Gareth R. Habel enclosed family group sheets which stated that George Washington Wright was a son of William Wright and Amy (Frazier) Wright and was born on December 5, 1797, in Fauquier County, Virginia.

(III) 1873 Charles Wright Of Coshocton County, Ohio, His Wife Elizabeth (Cray or Croy) Wright,
And His Descendants

1873 Charles Wright of Coshocton County, Ohio, was a son of 1834 William Wright of Coshocton County, Ohio, and Amy (Frazier) Wright. (1657 Edward¹, 1695 John², 1752 John³, 1805 William⁴, 1834 William⁵)

The documentation for the DAR Application #696077 of Eloise Wilma Ramsey Maynard, Shaker Heights, Cleveland, Ohio, dated October 24, 1985, included a Family Record which listed the following:

"William Wright (son of Wm & Elizth. Wright) was born in York Town Virginia Novemr. the 10th 1769.

Newspapers.com listed the following obituary for John Gault dated on February 3, 1916, in The Lebanon Rustic, Lebanon, Missouri:

"Death of John Gault.

John Gault died at his home in the Corkery neighborhood, Tuesday of last week, aged 77 years.

Burial was in the Atchley graveyard, in the Blackfoot neighborhood, last Thursday. The services were conducted by Elder J. E. Clinkenbeard, of the Baptist church.

He is survived by his wife, to whom he was united in marriage about fifty years ago, two sons and a daughter. Mrs. Gault's maiden name was Ellen Wright.

Mr. Gault enlisted in the Union army in Company F, 80th Ohio Volunteer Infantry, and served more than three years."

Newspapers.com also listed the following obituary for John Gault dated on February 11, 1916, in The Laclede County Republican, Lebanon, Missouri:

"John Gault, Sr.

On Tuesday, January 25, 1916, at 1:30 p. m., John Gault, Sr., passed into a world where sorrow and care are unknown. "Uncle John," as he was called by many, was in as good health as usual until Monday at 11 o'clock, when he was taken suddenly ill.

He was born February 14, 1839, near West Carlyle, Ohio. He entered the Civil War, as a member of Company 2, Eightieth Ohio Volunteers, December 7, 1861, and received honorable discharge January 12, 1865. He was married to Miss Ellen Wright on November 16, 1865. She still survives him. To this union five children were born. Two have preceded him to eternity. Three children survive him and were present at the funeral: Mrs. Nellie Lockett, of Ponca City, Oklahoma; C. W. Gault, of Coulterville, Illinois, and Johnie Gault, Jr., of Brice. Two brothers, James Gault, of Sedalia, and Stewart Gault, of Florida; one sister, Mrs. Jane Kidd, of Ohio, and five grand-children also survive him.

"Uncle John" was a highly respected citizen, a man of few words, a devoted husband and a noble father.

Interment was in Blackfoot cemetery. Rev. Mr. Clinkenbeard officiating.

The following is an extract from the soldiers' prayer book, which he carried throughout the war, and was one of his favorites:

The pains of death are past;
Labor and sorrow ceased
And life's long warfare closed at last.
His soul is found in peace.

Soldier of Christ, well done;
Praise be thy new employ
And while eternal ages run
Rest in thy Savior's joy.

A Friend."

The listing of William Wright as the father of Ellen (Wright) Gault probably represented a confusion of Charles W. Gault of his father's father, William Gault, with his mother's father, Charles Wright. The listing of Unknown Croix as the mother of Ellen (Wright) Gault is a phonetic rendition of Elizabeth (Croy) Wright's surname.

Findagrave.com listed the gravestone of Ellen Wright Gault in Blackfoot-Atchley Cemetery, Lebanon, Laclede County, Missouri:

"Ellen Wright
Gault
1845 - 1919"

Illinois Deaths and Stillbirths, 1916-1947, available from FamilySearch.org, listed the death record of Charles Gault dated on May 12, 1927, in Pinckneyville, Perry County, Illinois, which listed his parents as John Gault and Ellen Wright and his birth on October 26, 1874, in Missouri.

Newspapers.com listed the following obituary for Charles F. Wright dated on September 20, 1931, in The Coshocton Tribune, Coshocton County, Ohio:

"Infirmities of Age Cause Death of C. F. Wright

Charles F. Wright, aged 83, died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Brown Underwood, Cooperdale, Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock from infirmities of age and heart trouble.

He was born April 6, 1848, on a farm about three-quarters of a mile east of Cooperdale, and his entire life was lived in this county.

Mr. Wright is survived by four children, J. H. Wright of Seligman, Arizona; R. Russell Wright of Kingman, Arizona; Mrs. Ethel Kanavel, this city, and Mrs. Underwood of Cooperdale. Three daughters, Mrs. Joe Lake, Mrs. Frank Lash and Mrs. Ford Ramsey, have preceded him in death. His wife, Emily McMorris Wright, died 22 years ago.

Funeral services will be held Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the West Carlisle M. E. church. Burial will be made in the church cemetery."

As set forth above, Findagrave.com listed the joint gravestone of Emily Wright and Charles F. Wright in West Carlisle Cemetery, Coshocton, Coshocton County, Ohio.

Findagrave.com listed the gravestone of Alfred J. Abshear in Maynard Cemetery, Diehlstadt, Scott County, Missouri:

"Alford J. Abshear

Birth	6 Dec 1852 Spencer County, Indiana, USA
Death	28 Feb 1915 (aged 62) Diehlstadt, Scott County, Missouri, USA
Burial	Maynard Cemetery Diehlstadt, Scott County, Missouri, USA
Memorial ID	81984543"

However, no photograph of the gravestone was provided and the source of information was listed as "Muddy Roots" Mississippi County Genealogical Society Volume 16, Number 4, December 1998, and Nunnelee Funeral Home Death Records.

The 1920 Census for Newark, Licking County, Ohio, listed Winnie Abshira in the William Metz household on January 2, 1920, her relationship as sister in law, her age as 65 and born in Ohio, indicating a date of birth in about 1855, and her marital status as widowed. Although Levina was listed as Winnie, I suspect that this was a mis-listing of her nickname of Vinnie.

The death record of Levina Abshier was dated on April 12, 1929, in Coshocton, Coshocton County, Ohio:

Newspapers.com listed the following obituary for Lavina Abshier dated on April 13, 1929, in The Coshocton Tribune, Coshocton, Ohio:

"Mrs. Abshier, 78, Once Resident of Cooperdale, Dies

Mrs. Lavina Abshier, aged 78, a former resident of Cooperdale and Diehlstadt, Mo., died at the home of Lecta Jolly, 349 North Second st., last evening at 4:30 o'clock from complications. She had been cared for at the Jolly home for some time.

Mrs. Abshier had been living with her sister, Mrs. Mary A. Metz of Newark, until the latter's death last fall.

Lavina Wright, the daughter of the late Charles and Elizabeth Wright, was born June 24, 1850, near Cooperdale, where she spent her early life. She united with the Baptist church at Wakatomika at an early age.

Several years ago she was married to Alfred J. Abshier of Diehlstadt, Mo. Mr. and Mrs. Abshier resided in that city until the former's death 12 years ago, and since that time had made her home with her sister in Newark.

One brother, Charles Wright of Cooperdale, who is visiting in Arizona, and several nieces and nephews survive, among them being Mrs. Ethel Kanavel, 342 Chestnut st.; Mrs. H. B. Underwood of Cooperdale, Mrs. Charles Smith of Dresden and Charles F. Metz of Newark.

Funeral services will be held at Union Hill church Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock. The procession will leave the home of the niece, Mrs. Kanavel, Chestnut st, at 1 o'clock for the church. Burial will be made in Broomstick Valley cemetery, south of West Carlisle. The body has been moved to the Kanavel home."

Findagrave.com listed the gravestone of Lavina Wright Abshier in Broomstick Cemetery, Coshocton County, Ohio:

"Lavina Wright

1849 Lewis Wright of Coshocton County, Ohio, was a son of 1834 William Wright of Coshocton County, Ohio, and Amy (Frazier)
Wright. (1657 Edward¹, 1695 John², 1752 John³, 1805 William⁴, 1834 William⁵)

The documentation for the DAR Application #696077 of Eloise Wilma Ramsey Maynard, Shaker Heights, Cleveland, Ohio, dated October 24, 1985, included a Family
Record which listed the following:

"William Wright (son of Wm & Elizth. Wright) was born in York Town Virginia

The marriage record of Lewis Wright and Eliza Smith was dated on July 7, 1825, in Coshocton County, Ohio:

"548 Lewis Wright To Eliza Smith

The State of Ohio Coshocton County ss

I hereby certify that I joined in matrimony Lewis Wright and Eliza Smith both of Lawful age on the seventh day of July 1825. Given under my hand this 22 Aug.

James Pierce. Justice of the Peace."

This record indicates that Elizabeth (Smith) Wright was born before July 7, 1804.

Marriages, Coshocton County, Ohio, 1811-1930, by Miriam C. Hunter, also listed the marriage of Lewis Wright and Eliza Smith on July 7, 1825, in Coshocton County, Ohio.

The 1830 Census for Virginia Township, Coschocton County, Ohio, listed Lewis
Wright with the following household:

This record indicates that Lewis Wright and Eliza (Smith) Wright were born between about 1800 and 1810.

The will of William Wright dated on August 15, 1834, and probated on September 27, 1834, at Coshocton County, Ohio, Probate File 121, listed Lewis Wright as one of his children:

I William Wright of the County of Coshocton in the State of Ohio do make and publish this my last will and testament

. . . .

Second it is my will that my plantation which I now reside on to be equally divided amongst my heirs that is to Say Charles, Lewis, Albert, William, Martha Sarah Elwood Edward Martin Luther, Daniel Howard. The said farm to be rented to the best advantages for the benefit of my two youngest Sons Martin Luther and Daniel Howard towards boarding clothing and Schooling until each becomes the age of fourteen years at which time I wish them bound to some trade or profession by my son Charles whom I appoint as their guardian. The farm then to be sold and the proceeds equally divided amongst the above named heirs and the portion of Martin Luther and Daniel Howard to be put at interest until they become of age.

In his email dated April 25, 2004, Don Cathey enclosed an excerpt from Coshocton County, Ohio - Common Pleas Court Records 1838-1840 which listed a Petition for Dower filed March 7, 1837, in the case of Wright v. Wright and which listed Lewis Wright as a son of William Wright:

"Apr. 1838 - Mary Wright vs. Lewis Wright et al. Petition for Dower. Filed 3-7-

This record indicates that Lewis Wright and Eliza (Smith) Wright were born between about 1800 and 1810.

In his email dated February 15, 2024, Frank White included a biographical sketch of Lewis Wright which included the following record of the dismissal of Lewis Wright from Milfork Church:

"1843-Milfork Church, Virginia Twp, Church Records, Covenant Members Baptism. Page 13, in list dated Aug 1843, Lewis Wright is shown as Number 38. On page 35, entry for 21 February 1846 states, "Church in session and after preaching and ordinary preliminaries Lewis Wright was dismissed by letter and Samuel Norris was restored to full Fellowship being guilty of disorderly conduct and acknowledging and asking forgiveness it was granted." Copies of these records provided by Karen & Michael Wright of Coshocton Genealogical Society in early June 2008."

In his email dated June 2, 2008, Frank White stated that Broomstick Cemetery listed a grave with the following:

"Wright, very old stone (sandstone) 7-1849"

Frank White also stated that the stone was in the same style as that of 1834 William Wright of Coshocton County and the stone was two burial plots south of William Wright's stone. As set forth above, Lewis Wright was born on December 7, 1800, and as set forth below, died at age 48. Given the date of birth and age at death, this tombstone was probably that of 1849 Lewis Wright of Coshocton County.

The 1850 Census for Muskingum County, Ohio, listed Elizabeth Wright with the following household on October 12, 1850:

Name	Age	Sex	Color	Occupation	Value of Real Estate

History Of Coshocton County, Ohio: Its Past And Present, 1740-1881, by N. N. Hill, Jr., and published in 1881, listed the following with regard to Lewis Wright:

"Moscow, the one little village in the township, is situated on lot 20 in the northwestern part of the township. It was laid out in March, 1835, by Lewis Wright, and consisted of 42 lots. Mr. Wright was both the surveyor and proprietor of the village."

In his email dated June 2, 2008, Frank White enclosed an excerpt from Biographical Record Huron & Lorain County, Ohio, Vol. II, published by J. H. Beers & Co., Chicago, Illinois, in 1894, which included the following biography of D. S. Wright:

"D. S. Wright, dealer in stoves and tinware, Elyria, is a native of Coshocton county, Ohio, born in 1830. He is a son of Lewis and Eliza (Smith) Wright, who were both born in the Blue Ridge Mountain region, West Virginia.

They came to Ohio, and were married in Coshocton county, where they passed the rest of their days, rearing a family of children, as follows: Willis (who was shot); William (died of consumption); Martha (deceased in childhood); D. S. (subject of this sketch); Charles (drowned in the Cuyahoga river); John and Henry (twins, the latter of whom was editor of a Kansas paper, and committed suicide in 1867); Thomas, Robert, Laura, Ferdinand and Frank. The father was a farmer, civil engineer, school teacher, justice of the peace, and to some extent a lawyer. He died at the age of forty-eight years, the mother when fifty-three years old.

Our subject was reared and educated in his native county, and at the age of sixteen became engineer on a canal boat, a vocation he followed for some time. Afterward he learned his trade of tinsmith in Muskingum county, Ohio, and after a residence for a time in Cleveland, he, in 1852, located permanently in Elyria, two years thereafter opening out a general business in stoves, tinware, etc., in which he has been remarkably successful. His stock is at all times replete with everything in his line. He was married to Miss Mary Freer, and has three children living, as follows: Ruby, Alice, Bessie, Blossom and Don; Josephine married to E. P. Lord, and has one child, Lawrence; and Alice, who married F. H. Quayle, and has three children: Mable, Jonas and Milton (she keeps house for her father, her mother having died January 18, 1891."

DAR Application #446511 for Marguerite (Rommel) Hallinan dated September 20, 1956, stated that Lewis Wright was a son of William Wright and Amy (Frazier) Wright, was born on December 7, 1800 in Fauquier County, Virginia, married Ann Smith in 1823, and died in 1850 or 1851 in Coshocton County, Ohio, that Ann (Smith) Wright was born in 1804 and died in Coshocton County, Ohio, and that Lewis Wright and Ann (Smith) Wright had the following child:

- 1) Daniel Smith Wright, born on November 30, 1830, in Coshocton County, Ohio.

In his email dated May 15, 2004, Gareth R. Habel enclosed family group sheets which stated that Lewis Wright was a son of William Wright and Amy (Frazier) Wright, was born on December 7, 1800, in Fauquier County, Virginia, married Ann Elizabeth Smith on July 7, 1825, in Coshocton County, Ohio, and that Ann Elizabeth (Smith) Wright was born in 1804.

In his GenForum Posting dated August 24, 2006, Frank White stated that Thomas Wright was a son of Lewis Wright and was born in 1833 in New Moscow, Virginia Township, Coshocton County, Ohio.

From the evidence set forth above and additional evidence set forth below, the children of 1849 Lewis Wright and Elizabeth (Smith) Wright were the following:

- 1) Willis Wright,
- 2) William Wright,
- 3) Martha Wright,
- 4) Daniel Smith Wright, born on November 30, 1830, or in about 1831 in Coshocton County, Ohio,
- 5) Charles W. Wright, born in about 1831 in Ohio,
- 6) John Wright, born in about 1832 in Ohio,
- 7) Henry Clay Wright, born in about 1832 or 1833 @ Ohio,
- 8) Thomas Wright, born in about 1833 or on December 25, 1835, in New Moscow, Coshocton County, Ohio,
- 9) Robert Wright, born in about 1837 in Ohio,
- 10) Ferdinand Wright, born in about 1839 in Ohio,
- 11) Rachel or Laura Wright, born in about 1841 in Ohio, and
- 12) Benjamin Franklin Wright, born in about 1848 in Ohio.

In his letter dated May 14, 2008, Frank White enclosed four letters written by Daniel Smith Wright to Thomas Wright's daughter Sadie Beth (Wright) Myer in Louisville, Kentucky:

First Letter:

"D. S. Wright
Dealer in Stoves & House Furnishing Goods
And
Manufacturer of Tinware, Etc.,
No 15 East Broad St.

Elyria, O., July 10th 1889

Dear Sadie & Conrad

my time has been taken up with business matters that I could not get an opportunity to write you sooner. we arrived home all safe and sound and in good ___ition. we arrive_ in ___ at noon and stayd there until until half past Eleven at night. we took the street cars and went out three miles to the zoological
Garden and spent the afternoon looking at the various collection of anim__ birds &c &c we passed the afternoon verry pleasantly.

Tom is verry much in love with our little city, he wants to make it his future home, has been looking around with a view of buying a samll place, he says he can buy one on the installment plan, he has not got through looking as yet, but is going out to look at a place today. I think he has Improved a great deal since I met him in Louisville he can do more tramping around than I can. Ettie seems to like this place verry much, she is getting the tan off from her face and hands and is getting to look verry nice. our folks were all at home on the 4th. there was quite a large family of us. Just nineteen, and we had a good time, nearl all of them went to a picnick yesterday. it was held at Vermillion the lake shore 14 miles from Elyria. they report having a good time. it is verry hot here at this time, the thermometer ranges up into the nineties. "Ugh, it is hot"

Second Letter:

"D. S. Wright
Dealer in Stoves & House Furnishing Goods
And
Manufacturer of Tinware, Etc.,
No. 60 East Broad St.

Elyria, O., July 20, 1889

Dear Con & Sadie

At Toms request I write you to get your opinion about moving to this place. and in case you do not want to come, he wants to know if you will kindly have his things packed and have them shipped to Elyria. he dont want to go back to Louisville to get his things as it would cost him over twenty dollars to make the trip, he has taken quite a fancy to Elyria and has made up his mind to stay here, he says that you could do much better here than you can in Louisville. he says if you come you can all live together for a time until you can do better I dont think con will have much trouble in finding work of some kind, of course this is our dull time here but it will not be long before things will begin to improve. If you conclude to come he wants to know how long it will be before you can get ready to move. State the matter clearly so he will know what to do himself, he has been looking at a number of houses with a view of buying, but has not settled on anything as yet, he can buy a small place by paying one or two hundred dollars down and get a long time to pay the balance, he will probably wait to hear from you before doing anything in the matter, I think it will all turn out satisfactory, he sends his Key in this letter and wants you to send him his voucher for next pension pay also his certificate showing him to be a pensioner, he says you will know what they are. get a large envelope and put them into it, place two stamps on the envelope. Tom is looking much better he has gained five or six pounds. Etty is well and seems to be satisfied. I will now close.

Your uncle D. S. Wright

to Con & Sadie Meyer"

Third Letter:

"D. S. Wright
Dealer in
Stoves & House Furnishing Goods

And
Manufacturer of Tinware, Etc.,
No. 60 East Broad St.

Elyria, O., July 31, 1889

Dear Con & Sadie

your Father wants you to get a furniture man to pack his things carefully and ship them to him here, when you find out what the cost is for packing and shipping write and he will send you the money, he wants you to send all of his things, he says you know just what they are, he seems to be much better than he has been. he things that you will come here after a while, I cant understand just what he will do, he is paying his addresses to a Widdow and I would not be surprised if they make a match of it, she is a verry nice woman about the same age of himself. I thin if he is bound to get married he cannot do better, the woman owns a house and lot but there is a mortgage on it, but they could soon pay that up and he would have a home and a woman to look after him, this may not happen but as he wants his furniture I think it is quite likely to take place.

Ettie is quite well and seems to be contented.

I will keep a look out for a job for con but think it will be a month or six weeks before business will start up. I could give con work after about the 20th of September but it would only last three months or so. but it would give you a chance to hunt for something better

Yours
D S Wright"

Fourth Letter:

"D. S. Wright
Dealer in Stoves & House Furnishing Goods
And
Manufacturer of Tinware, Etc.,
No. 60 East Broad St.

Elyria, O., Aug 1st, 1889

Dear Con & Sadie

I wrote you yesterday, but forgot to direct to street and number, and thinking that you might not go to the P. O. I write this to let you know how it is, I directed the let__ to Sadie Meyer care of ____right Louisville Ky. If you will call at the P. O. you will get it and find directions for sending Toms furniture &c, for fear that you may not get the letter I will repeat his instructions. get furniture man to pack his goods in good shape, have them shipped by O & M R R.

Send the bill for packing &c to Tom, he will send you the money, "in some cases the R. Roads require that the freight on Household goods should be paid in advance better see fi they will send them without prepayment. Call at the General Office of the O & M on the same Street that the Galt House is on. Enquire for the general freight agent J. R. Clark, he will give you the information that you want, Inquire of him also about the Transfer co, he is _____ stock holders and will tell you all about it. I will see that he Tom sends you the money at once, "as soon as you let him know what it is, or what it will cost.

from your Uncle
D. S. Wright"

In his email dated June 2, 2008, Frank White enclosed an excerpt from Biographical Record Huron & Lorain County, Ohio, Vol. II, published by J. H. Beers & Co., Chicago, Illinois, in 1894, which included the following biography of D. S. Wright:

"D. S. Wright, dealer in stoves and tinware, Elyria, is a native of Coshocton county, Ohio, born in 1830. He is a son of Lewis and Eliza (Smith) Wright, who were both born in the Blue Ridge Mountain region, West Virginia.

They came to Ohio, and were married in Coshocton county, where they passed the rest of their days, rearing a family of children, as follows: Willis (who was shot); William (died of consumption); Martha (deceased in childhood); D. S. (subject of this sketch); Charles (drowned in the Cuyahoga river); John and Henry (twins, the latter of whom was editor of a Kansas paper, and committed suicide in 1867); Thomas, Robert, Laura, Ferdinand and Frank. The father was a farmer, civil engineer, school teacher, justice of the peace, and to some extent a lawyer. He died at the age of forty-eight years, the mother when fifty-three years old.

Our subject was reared and educated in his native county, and at the age of sixteen became engineer on a canal boat, a vocation he followed for some time. Afterward he learned his trade of tinsmith in Muskingum county, Ohio, and after a residence for a time in Cleveland, he, in 1852, located permanently in Elyria, two years thereafter opening out a general business in stoves, tinware, etc., in which he has been remarkably successful. His stock is at all times replete with everything in his line. He was married to Miss Mary Freer, and has three children living, as follows: Ruby, Alice, Bessie, Blossom and Don; Josephine married to E. P. Lord, and has one child, Lawrence; and Alice, who married F. H. Quayle, and has three children: Mable, Jonas and Milton (she keeps house for her father, her mother having died January 18, 1891."

This record identifies Daniel Smith Wright as a son of Lewis Wright and Elizabeth (Smith) Wright.

Newspapers.com listed the following obituary of Daniel Smith Wright dated on February 2, 1897, in the Akron Beacon and Republican, Akron, Ohio:

"Former Akronian Dead.

Daniel Smith Wright, died at his home at Bridge street, Elyria, Saturday, Jan. 30, aged 66 years and 2 months. Mr. Wright was a former resident of Akron, and a member of the hardware firm of Wright & Freer, doing business on Howard street some 20 years ago. Previous to coming to Akron, he lived at Peninaula, where he married Miss Mary Freer, Jan. 13, 1852. Mrs. Wright died in 1891. Three children are left to mourn the loss of the parents, Mrs. James Thompson, of Elyria; Mrs. E. P. Lord, of Cleveland, and Mrs. F. H. Quayle, of Elyria. Two other children, Willie and Dan, died first in 1863, aged 11 years, the latter in 1882. The funeral services were held to-day at Elyria."

In his email dated May 9, 2008, Frank White stated that he located Sadie Beth Evans in Hoopeston, Indiana, that she was a great great granddaughter of Thomas Wright, and that she provided him with a transcription of her grandmother's 1936 recollections of the family history which included the following story:

"Supposedly, a traveling salesman from Elyria, Ohio, who had a business relationship with Daniel Smith Wright there, chatted, by chance, with Thomas Wright in the lobby of the Galt House in Louisville, Kentucky. The conversation revealed that Daniel and Thomas were perhaps long lost brothers who had not had contact since boyhood in Coshocton County. Upon his return to Elyria, the salesman told Daniel about the chance meeting, and Daniel immediately contacted Thomas in Louisville. Shortly thereafter, Daniel and his wife traveled to Louisville to meet with Thomas. Thomas and his youngest daughter, thirteen year old Etta, returned with them to Elyria where a family reunion was held to celebrate the brothers finding one another.

Infirm and unemployed, Thomas had been living with the Meyers after his wife had been committed to the Indiana Hospital For The Insane. Daniel's letters, dated 10 and 20 July 1889, seemly written on behalf of the visiting, but illiterate Thomas, asked the Myers to ship Thomas' personal effects to Elyria. Thomas apparently wanted to start a new life there with the assistance of his successful mercantile brother. As it turns out, Thomas traveled back to Louisville, probably returning daughter Etta, declined in health and died in March 1890 in nearby Birdseye, Indiana."

DAR Application #446511 for Marguerite (Rommel) Hallinan dated September 20, 1956, stated that Daniel Smith Wright was a son of Lewis Wright and Ann (Smith) Wright, was born on November 30, 1830, in Coshocton County, Ohio, married Mary Freer on January 13, 1852, and died on January 30, 1897, in Elyria,

Lorain County, Ohio, that Mary (Freer) Wright was born on November 6, 1835, in Penninsula, Ohio, and died on January 18, 1891, in Elyria, Lorain County, Ohio, and that Daniel Smith Wright and Mary (Freer) Wright had the following child:

1) Frances Melissa (Wright) Thomson, born on May 24, 1854, in Elyria, Lorain County, Ohio.

In his letter dated May 14, 2008, Frank White enclosed four letters written by Daniel Smith Wright to Thomas Wright's daughter Sadie Beth (Wright) Myer in Louisville, Kentucky, in 1889:

First Letter:

"D. S. Wright
Dealer in Stoves & House Furnishing Goods
And
Manufacturer of Tinware, Etc.,
No 15 East Broad St.

Elyria, O., July 10th 1889

Dear Sadie & Conrad

my time has been taken up with business matters that I could not get an opportunity to write you sooner. we arrived home all safe and sound and in good ____ition. we arrive_ in ____ at noon and stayd there until until half past Eleven at night. we took the street cars and went out three miles to the zoological Garden and spent the afternoon looking at the various collection of anim__ birds &c &c we passed the afternoon verry pleasantly.

Tom is verry much in love with our little city, he wants to make it his future home, has been looking around with a view of buying a samll place, he says he can buy one on the installment plan, he has not got through looking as yet, but is going out to look at a place today. I think he has Improved a great deal since I met him in Louisville he can do more tramping around than I can. Ettie seems to like this place verry much, she is getting the tan off from her face and hands and is getting to look verry nice. our folks were all at home on the 4th. there was quite a large family of us. Just nineteen, and we had a good time, nearl all of them went to a picnick yesterday. it was held at Vermillion the lake shore 14 miles from Elyria. they report having a good time. it is verrry hot here at this time, the thermometer ranges up into the nineties. "Ugh, it is hot"

Second Letter:

"D. S. Wright
Dealer in Stoves & House Furnishing Goods
And
Manufacturer of Tinware, Etc.,
No. 60 East Broad St.

Dear Con & Sadie

At Toms request I write you to get your opinion about moving to this place. and in case you do not want to come, he wants to know if you will kindly have his things packed and have them shipped to Elyria. he dont want to go back to Louisville to get his things as it would cost him over twenty dollars to make the trip, he has taken quite a fancy to Elyria and has made up his mind to stay here, he says that you could do much better here than you can in Louisville. he says if you come you can all live together for a time until you can do better I dont think con will have much trouble in finding work of some kind, of course this is our dull time here but it will not be long before things will begin to improve. If you conclude to come he wants to know how long it will be before you can get ready to move. State the matter clearly so he will know what to do himself, he has been looking at a number of houses with a view of buying, but has not settled on anything as yet, he can buy a small place by paying one or two hundred dollars down and get a long time to pay the balance, he will probably wait to hear from you before doing anything in the matter, I think it will all turn out satisfactory, he sends his Key in this letter and wants you to send him his voucher for next pension pay also his certificate showing him to be a pensioner, he says you will know what they are. get a large envelope and put them into it, place two stamps on the envelope. Tom is looking much better he has gained five or six pounds. Ettie is well and seems to be satisfied. I will now close.

Your uncle D. S. Wright

to Con & Sadie Meyer"

Third Letter:

"D. S. Wright
Dealer in

Stoves & House Furnishing Goods
And
Manufacturer of Tinware, Etc.,
No. 60 East Broad St.

Elyria, O., July 31, 1889

Dear Con & Sadie

your Father wants you to get a furniture man to pack his things carefully and ship them to him here, when you find out what the cost is for packing and shipping write and he will send you the money, he wants you to send all of his things, he says you know just what they are, he seems to be much better than he has been. he things that you will come here after a while, I cant understand just what he will do, he is paying his addresses to a Widdow and I would not be surprised if they make a match of it, she is a verry nice woman about the same age of himself. I thin if he is bound to get married he cannot do better, the woman owns a house and lot but there is a mortgage on it, but they could soon pay that up and he would have a home and a woman to look after him, this may not happen but as he wants his furniture I think it is quite likely to take place.

Ettie is quite well and seems to be contented.

I will keep a look out for a job for con but think it will be a month or six weeks before business will start up. I could give con work after about the 20th of September but it would only last three months or so. but it would give you a chance to hunt for something better

Yours
D S Wright"

Fourth Letter:

"D. S. Wright
Dealer in Stoves & House Furnishing Goods

The death record of Sadie R. (Wright) Myers dated on November 5, 1931, in Louisville, Jefferson County, Kentucky, listed her parents as Thomas F. Wright and Mary J. Stackhouse and her birth on September 23, 1866, in Indiana.

In his email dated May 9, 2008, Frank White stated that he located Sadie Beth Evans in Hoopeston, Indiana, that she was a great great granddaughter of Thomas Wright, and that she provided him with a transcription of her grandmother's 1936 recollections of the family history which included the following story:

"Supposedly, a traveling salesman from Elyria, Ohio, who had a business relationship with Daniel Smith Wright there, chatted, by chance, with Thomas Wright in the lobby of the Galt House in Louisville, Kentucky. The conversation revealed that Daniel and Thomas were perhaps long lost brothers who had not had contact since boyhood in Coshocton County. Upon his return to Elyria, the salesman told Daniel about the chance meeting, and Daniel immediately contacted Thomas in Louisville. Shortly thereafter, Daniel and his wife traveled to Louisville to meet with Thomas. Thomas and his youngest daughter, thirteen year old Etta, returned with them to Elyria where a family reunion was held to celebrate the brothers finding one another.

Infirm and unemployed, Thomas had been living with the Meyers after his wife had been committed to the Indiana Hospital For The Insane. Daniel's letters, dated 10 and 20 July 1889, seemly written on behalf of the visiting, but illiterate Thomas, asked the Myers to ship Thomas' personal effects to Elyria. Thomas Apparently wanted to start a new life there with the assistance of his successful mercantile brother. As it turns out, Thomas traveled back to Louisville, probably returning daughter Etta, declined in health and died in March 1890 in nearby Birdseye, Indiana."

In his GenForum Posting dated August 24, 2006, Frank White stated that Thomas Wright was a son of Lewis Wright, was born in 1833 in New Moscow, Virginia Township, Coshocton County, Ohio, resided in 1860 in Orange County, Indiana, married Mary Jane Stackhouse, and served in the 53rd Indiana Infantry in the Civil War.

In his email dated May 15, 2004, Gareth R. Habel enclosed family group sheets which stated that Albert Wright was a son of William Wright and Amy (Frazier) Wright, was born in 1803 in Fauquier County, Virginia, married first Evaline Graves on April 3, 1834, in Coshocton County, Ohio, married second Elizabeth Campbell on January 15, 1853, in Coshocton County, Ohio, died on May 13, 1854, in Coshocton County, Ohio, and was buried in Christian Chapel Cemetery, Coshocton County, Ohio, and that Evaline (Graves) Wright was born in 1816 and died in 1851.

From the evidence set forth above and additional evidence set forth below, the children of 1854 Albert Wright and Evelina (Graves) Wright were the following:

- 1) Nancy (Wright) Dawson, born in about 1835 or 1836 in Ohio,
- 2) George Wright, born in October 1837 or on October 30, 1838, in Ohio,
- 3) Albert Wright, born on January 21, 1840, in Ohio,
- 4) John Wesley Wright, born on December 1, 1842, or in about 1843 in Coshocton County, Ohio,
- 5) Evaline (Wright) Reed, born in about 1841 or 1844 or on September 18, 1845, in Ohio, and
- 6) William Wright, born on September 9, 1850, or in about 1851 or 1853 in Coshocton County, Ohio.

(A) Nancy (Wright) Dawson, Her Husband
William Dawson, And Her Descendants

Nancy (Wright) Dawson was a daughter of 1854 Albert Wright of Coshocton County, Ohio, and Evelina (Graves) Wright. (1657 Edward¹, 1695 John², 1752 John³, 1805 William⁴, 1834 William⁵, 1854 Albert⁶)

The 1850 Census for Coshocton County, Ohio, listed Nancy Wright in the Albert Wright household on October 31, 1850, and her age as 14 and born in Ohio, indicating a date of birth in about 1836.

The 1850 Census for Coshocton County, Ohio, listed William Dawson in the Marcus Dawson household on October 31, 1850, his age as 17 and born in Ohio, indicating a date of birth in about 1833, and his occupation as farmer. As set forth below, Nancy Wright married William Dawson as his first wife.

The marriage record of Nancy Wright and William Dawson was dated on October 1, 1854, in Coshocton County, Ohio:

"No. 550

Newspapers.com listed the following obituary for William Dawson dated on November 18, 1908, in the Coshocton Daily Times, Coshocton, Ohio:

"Wm. Dawson Is Claimed By Reaper

Life Long Coshocton County Resident and War Veteran Succumbs.

Death claimed William Dawson of South Eighth street, late Friday afternoon, after a long illness with stomach trouble. He was a retired farmer, and had resided with his daughter, Miss Abbie Dawson and Mrs. Ora Dawson, in Coshocton for the past three years.

Mr. Dawson was born in Virginia township 75 years ago and lived in that vicinity all of his life, until he came to this city. He was a member of Company G of the 123rd O. V. I. during the Civil war.

Mr. Dawson was twice married, but both wives have preceded him to the grave. The first was Miss Nancy Wright, of Lafayette, and the second Miss Augusta Adams, of Keene township. Seven children survive: Mrs. C. W. Teale, Coshocton; Mrs. C. E. Bantum, Warsaw; Mrs. G. W. Nosker, Hanover; Miss Abbie Dawson, Coshocton; John Dawson, Coshocton; Dr. E. M. Dawson, Granville; Prof. W. M. Dawson, of Yellow Springs, O. There are 23 grandchildren. He has one sister, Mrs. Louisa Parrish, of Conesville, and the following half brothers and sisters: Mrs. E. Taylor, Willow Brook; J. R. Dawson, Roscoe; Lindsay Dawson, Coshocton; Benjamin and Israel Dawson.

He became a member of the Willow Brook Christian church 46 years ago and was a trustee for twenty years.

The funeral will take place at the Christian church, Coshocton, Sunday at 1:30 o'clock, though the body will lie in state there for an hour preceding the services. Rev. Mr. Peters will be the officiating clergyman and the interment will be made at South Lawn Cemetery.

The pall bearers will be a number of old sodier comrades and life long friends, as follows: Henry King, N. C. Bush, Andrew Carr, L. T. Smith, Jos. Love and A. H. Thomson"

Newspapers.com listed the following obituary for George Wright dated on April 1, 1915, in The Coshocton Tribune, Coshocton, Ohio:

"Stricken By Heart Trouble

George Wright, 77, Dies Short Time After Unexpected Attack

Born At Willow Brook And Lifelong Resident of The County

Stricken by an attack of heart trouble, George Wright, aged 77, died at his home on South River road Wednesday afternoon at 4:45 o'clock. He suffered his first attack of heart trouble about three weeks ago but recovered and, although suffering from a heavy cold, he was in comparatively good health previous to being stricken Tuesday afternoon. He ate dinner Tuesday with his family and while sitting in a chair a short time later, was stricken. A physician was called and everything possible was done to revive the victim but he was beyond all earthly aid.

Mr. Wright moved from Willow Brook to the South River road about two years ago. He was born at Willow Brook and with the exception of a few years spent at Antioch while his children were receiving a college education, he spent his entire life in this county.

A faithful member of the Willow Brook Christian church he was well known and highly respected throughout the county. The news of his sudden death comes as a great shock to his many friends.

Mrs. Wright preceded her husband to the grave about six years ago and a son died last year. One daughter, Etta Wright, of the home, a brother, William of Des Moines, Iowa, and a sister, Mrs. L. H. Reed, of South Third street, survive.

Funeral services will be held at the Willow Brook Christian church Friday afternoon at 2:00 o'clock with Rev. C. H. Rank in charge. Burial will be made at the Willow Brook cemetery. The cortege will leave the late home at noon."

As set forth above, Fiindagrave.com listed the joint gravestone of Adah Wright and George Wright in Christian Chapel Cemetery, Coshocton County, Ohio.

This record indicates that John Wesley Wright was born in December 1842 and that Esther Maria (Crown) Wright were born in February 1843.

Centennial History Of Coshocton County, Ohio, by William J. Bahmer and published in 1909, included the following biographical sketch of John Wesley Wright:

"REV. JOHN WESLEY WRIGHT.

Rev. John Wesley Wright is a force in the moral development of Danville and Coshocton county and in those departments of activity which uplift humanity and work for the betterment of various classes. He is a native son of this county, born in Virginia township, December 1, 1842. His parents, Albert and Eveline (Graves) Wright, were farming people of this locality.

The son was reared on the home farm, early becoming familiar with the duties and labors that fall to the lot of the agriculturist. His elementary education was acquired in the district schools and, deciding upon the ministry as a life work, he became a student in Starkey's Seminary at Eddytown, New York, later attending the Christian Biblical Institute at Stanfordville. New York. Graduating from the latter institution, he returned to Ohio and supplied various pulpits, maintaining his residence in Willowbrook, where his parents still resided.

During the progress of the Civil war, on the 5th of August, 1862, Mr. Wright enlisted as a member of Company I, Ninety-seventh Ohio Volunteer Infantry, and served until the close of hostilities. He was in the Army of the Cumberland and at the battle of Missionary Ridge, November 25, 1863, was severely wounded. The hospital being crowded, he was sent home on a furlough and after recuperating his health returned to his regiment and again saw active service. He was mustered out June 10, 1865, at Nashville, having made a creditable military record.

When his services were no longer needed by the government, Mr. Wright returned to Coshocton county and took up his pastoral duties. His first call was at Rosebud, Ohio, and for sixteen years he preached five miles west of West Carlisle. He then came to Danville, where for a number of years he has been pastor of the Christian church. He is a man of high ideals and has always exerted a wide influence for good wherever he has labored as a minister and in the community in which he has so long made his home.

It was in June, 1866, that Mr. Wright was united in marriage to Miss Esther M. Crown, a daughter of Joseph and Margaret Crown, of Jackson township. Their union has been blessed with four children, as follows: Charles E.; Othelia M., now the wife of John L. Shaw, a prominent contractor of Coshocton; Mary C, the wife of John McCann; and John C, who has departed this life. Mr. Wright gives his political support to the republican party and for a number of years has been a member of the schoolboard, while for two years he served as assessor of Virginia township. He is a man of scholarly attainments and one who throughout his entire life has been actuated by high principles and purposes. He has ever used practical methods in working toward the ideal, which have found their proof in his effective work in connection with the Danville Christian church."

Newspapers.com listed the following obituary for Esther Maria (Crown) Wright dated on September 28, 1938, in The Coshocton Tribune, Coshocton, Ohio:

"Local Pioneer Woman Dies At Age of 96

Mrs. Esther M. Wright Succumbs at Home of Daughter

Mrs. Esther Maria Wright, 96, believed to have been the oldest woman in Coshocton county and one of the last of the pioneers, died Tuesday night at the home of her daughter, Mrs. John L. Shaw, River rd.

"Aunt" Hester, as she was familiarly known to scores of Coshocton county residents, had been in failing health for months. Death was due to illness incident to her age.

Esther Maria Crown was born at Steubenville on Feb. 13, 1842, the daughter of Joseph and Margaret Graham Crown.

The tide of westward emigration to the "Ohio country" was in full swing when "Aunt Hester" was two years of age and her father decided to try his hand at the rich country to the west. A Conestoga covered wagon was the vehicle that brot Aunt Hester and the family to Coshocton county over the rough roads of those days. They settled near Willowbrook.

Aunt Hester's memory was excellent for a person of her age and in February of this year, on her birth anniversary, gave a detailed account of pioneer life in Coshocton county that was carried in the columns of The Tribune of that date.

Her schooling was received in a one-room log school house in Jackson township.

In June of 1866 she was united in marriage with the Rev. J. W. Wright, an early-day minister, and the family home was made in Willowbrook. Aunt Hester maintained her home there to the time of her death, altho since 1934 she had been an almost continuous resident with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. John L. Show.

Four children were born to the union, two boys who preceded her in death, Charles E. Wright and J. C. Wright, and two daughters who survive, Mrs. Shaw and Mary C. McCann, 301 North Tenth st. There are two grandchildren and sixgreat-grandchildren.

Aunt Hester was a lifelong member of the Christian church, uniting with that denomination while a child at Willowbrook.

Funeral services will be held at 2 p. m. Thursday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Shaw and at 2:30 p. m. the funeral cortege will go to the Virginia Christian chapel at Willowbrook, where further services will be held. The Rev. R. H. Long of Centerburg, lifelong friend of the family, will be in charge. Burial will be in Willowbrook cemetery."

As set forth above, Findagrave.com listed the joint gravestone of J. W. Wright and Esther M. Wright in Christian Chapel Cemetery, Coshocton County, Ohio.

(E) Evaline (Wright) Reed, Her Husband
Lewis H. Reed, And Her Descendants

Evaline (Wright) Reed was a daughter of 1854 Albert Wright of Coshocton County, Ohio, and Evelina (Graves) Wright. (1657 Edward¹, 1695 John², 1752 John³, 1805 William⁴, 1834 William⁵, 1854 Albert⁶)

The 1850 Census for Coshocton County, Ohio, listed Elvina Wright in the Albert Wright household on October 31, 1850, and her age as 5 and born in Ohio, indicating a date of birth in about 1845.

Evaline Wright has not as yet been found in the 1860 Census.

The 1860 Census for Coshocton County, Ohio, listed Lewis Reed in the James W. Reed household on June 21, 1860, his age as 18 and born in Ohio, indicating a date of birth in about 1842, and his occupation as apprentice. The occupation of James W. Reed was wagon maker, so Lewis H. Reed was probably an apprentice wagon maker.

The marriage record of Eveline Wright and Lewis Reed was dated on August 17, 1862, in Coshocton County, Ohio:

Newspapers.com listed the following news article regarding the marriage of William Wright's daughter Minnie Wright with Joseph Bell dated January 2, 1890, in the Weekly Republican-Traveler, Arkansas City, Kansas:

"Bell-Wright.

Tradition and custom has made New Years eve one of cupid's favored times, and last evening was not an exception. Rumor had it that several nuptial knots would be tied at this time in Arkansas City, but who the blessed ones wouldbe was quite a matter of doubt. When, however, Dr. DeLong at precisely 8 o'clock alighted at the residence of Colonel William Wright, it was evident that his daughter, Miss Minnie and Mr. Joseph Bell, one of the city's most worthy young men, were to begin the new year as husband and wife, and it was so. The occasion was extremely enjoyable, as everyone would expect in such company with Colonel and Mrs. Wright as host and hostess. The wedding was a quiet one, only the intimate friends being present. The new couple will commence housekeeping in Mr. Bell's Second ward residence which he fitted up for the occasion. We extend our best wishes to the new couple."

Newspapers.com listed the following obituary for Ellen Wright dated on August 24, 1893, in the Weekly Republican-Traveler, Arkansas City, Kansas, and her death on August 24, 1893:

"Died - This morning at her home in the Second ward of malarial fever, Mrs. Ellen Wright, wife of Col William Wright. The deceased has been an invalid for several years and was recently taken sick with fever, resulting in her death. She leaves a husband and two children to mourn her death, besides numerous friends. The funeral arrangements will not be made until relatives are heard from in Ohio."

Findagrave.com listed the following obituary for Ellen Wright dated August 25, 1893, in the Arkansas City Daily Traveler, Arkansas City, Kansas:

"The funeral of Mrs. Ellen Wright, who died yesterday, occurred this afternoon from the residence, at 3 o'clock under the auspices of the I.O.O.F. and K. and P. lodges. The burial was in Riverview cemetery."

Findagrave.com listed the gravestone of Ellen Wright in Riverview Cemetery, Arkansas City, Cowley County, Kansas:

Newspapers.com listed the following news article regarding the marriage of William Wright and Emmas Lynch dated on December 29, 1900, in the Arkansas City Daily Traveler, Arkansas City, Kansas:

"Col. Wright Married.

Well Known Arkansas City Man Takes Unto Himself a Bride.

An announcement of the marriage of Colonel William Wright and Miss Emmas Lynch, of Coshocton, Ohio, has been in the city. The wedding ceremony occurred Christmas eve at the home of the bride's aunt in Coshocton, Rev. Dr. Toland being the officiating minister. The Coshocton News says of Mr. Wright and Miss Lynch:

For several years Miss Lynch has been known as a highly successful saleslady at the Ransom Dry Goods Co's place, and as a charming sweet voiced vocalist her fame has reached far beyond the confines of Ohio. Mr. Wright is a traveling representative of the Tuscarora Advertising Company, and a few years since was a well known business man of this city, at one time a member of the shoe firm of Stanford & Wright, who were succeeded by Baker & McCoy.

Mr. and Mrs. Wright are now on their wedding tour visiting relatives in the east. The groom is well known in this city, and has been connected with various business houses here, and made this city his home for several years. In fact he still claims this city as his home, although he is on the road the most of the time. The many friends of Mr. Wright will unite with the Traveler in wishing he and his bride all the happiness that can be crowded into their married life. Mr. and Mrs. Wright will probably be here in a short time."

It is unclear how William Wright obtained the title of Colonel.

Newspapers.com listed the following obituary for Albert Wright dated December 28, 1901, in the Coshocton Daily Age, Coshocton, and which stated that his brother William Wright then resided in Des Moines, Iowa:

"Death Of Albert Wright.

This record indicates that William Wright was born in about 1853 and that Miriam Emeline (Lynch) Wright was born in about 1855.

Newspapers.com listed the following news article regarding William Wright and his family dated on August 7, 1913, in the Arkansas City Daily Traveler, Arkansas City, Kansas:

"Here For A Visit.

Colonel Wright and Wife Here From Des Moines, Iowa.

Col. William Wright and wife of Des Moines, Iowa, are in the city for a several weeks visit with the colonel's daughters, Mrs. Joe Bell and Mrs. Harry McNeil. Colonel Wright spent many years in this city and he and his wife were considered among our best citizens. At one time the Colonel was engaged in business in this city, but after several years disposed of his interests here and engaged in traveling for an Ohio Novelty company. At present Col. Wright is assistant secretary of the Kenyon Printing and Manufacturing company of Des Moines, Iowa. He is no longer on the road but his duties keep him in the house. He says that business is very quiet at present. At the beginning of the year his firm started 150 traveling men on the road, but because of the unsettled conditions and the dry hot weather the number has gradually dwindled down to about 25 at the present time. Col. Wright and his wife will remain here for some time and will be glad to meet all of their old friends and enjoy a visit with them."

Findagrave.com listed the following obituary for Mrs. Lewis H. Reed dated July 6, 1916, in the Coshcoton Morning Tribune, and which stated that her brother William Wright then resided in Des Moines, Iowa:

"Mrs. Lewis H. Reed, aged 70, died suddenly Tuesday evening at her home on South Third Street, She is survived by a brother, William Wright of Des Moines, IA.
. . . ."

Findagrave.com listed the obituary of Minerva "Minnie" Wright Bell dated on December 27, 1919, in the Arkansas City Daily Traveler, Arkansas City, Kansas, which provided in part as follows:

"Funeral of Mrs. Bell

. . . .
Col. Wm. Wright, of Des Moines, Iowa, father of the deceased, Mrs. Nellie McNeil, a sister, accompanied the body here also. All members of the family are well known in the city, as all formerly resided here."

Newspapers.com listed the following obituary for Mrs. William (Lynch) Wright dated on June 13, 1927, in The Coshocton Tribune, Coshocton, Ohio:

"Mrs. Wm. Wright Dies at Clark Home, Second-st

Mrs. William Wright, aged 71, of Phoenix, Arizona, former county resident, died at the home of her niece, Mrs. Archie Clark, 232 North Secon-st, Sunday morning, from anemia.

She was a daughter of Hugh and Lucinda Ricketts Lynch, and was born in this county September 12, 1855.

Since early girlhood, she has been an active member and worker in the church. She was a member of Grace M. E. church until her marriage, after which she transferred her membership to a Phoenix, Ariz. church.

When a young girl she became a member of Grace M. E. church choir, and for 35 years, sang herself into the hearts of her friends in this city.

December 24, 1900, she was united in marriage to William Wright, a former resident and business man of this city. Mr. and Mrs. Wright moved to the west, where they resided for years.

Besides her husband, one step-daughter, Mrs. Harry McNeil, of Phoenix, Arizona; one sister, Mrs. F. R. Egbert, of Columbus; one brother, Allen R. Lynch, of Dennison; two nieces, Mrs. Archie Clark and Miss Nelle Henderson, 232 North Second-st; and two nephews, Roland N. Decker, Colorado Springs, Colorado, and Hugh Lynch Decker, of Toledo, survive.

After short services at the home on Second-st, Tuesday afternoon, the body will be removed to Grace M. E. church where services will be conducted by Rev. J. M. Baxter, pastor of Grace M. E. church, at two o'clock. Burial will be made in Oak Ridge cemetery."

Findagrave.com listed the gravestone of Emma (Lynch) Wright in Oak Ridge Cemetery, Coshocton, Coshocton County, Ohio:

Based on the obituary of Miriam Emeline (Lynch) Wright, the death of William Wright was after June 12, 1927.

(VI) William Wright, Probably 1875 William Wright
Of Muskingum County, Ohio, His Wife Elizabeth Anna (Dove) Wright, And His Descendants

William Wright, probably 1875 William Wright of Muskingum County, Ohio, was a son of 1834 William Wright of Coshocton County, Ohio, and Amy (Frazier) Wright. (1657 Edward¹, 1695 John², 1752 John³, 1805 William⁴, 1834 William⁵)

The documentation for the DAR Application #696077 of Eloise Wilma Ramsey Maynard, Shaker Heights, Cleveland, Ohio, dated October 24, 1985, included a Family Record which listed the following:

"William Wright (son of Wm & Elizth. Wright) was born in York Town Virginia Novemr. the 10th 1769.

Amy Wright, (his wife Daughter of John & Martha Frazier was born in Chester Co. Pennsylvania Novemr. the 1st, 1778.

6. William Wright was born at ditto [Fauquier County] August the 10th 1804.
...."

The will of William Wright dated on August 15, 1834, and probated on September 27, 1834, at Coshocton County, Ohio, Probate File 121, listed William Wright as one of his children:

"....

I William Wright of the County of Coshocton in the State of Ohio do make and publish this my last will and testament

....

Second it is my will that my plantation which I now reside on to be equally divided amongst my heirs that is to Say Charles, Lewis, Albert, William, Martha Sarah Elwood Edward Martin Luther, Daniel Howard. The said farm to be rented to the best advantages for the benefit of my two youngest Sons Martin Luther and Daniel Howard towards boarding clothing and Schooling until each becomes the age of fourteen years at which time I wish them bound to some trade or profession by my son Charles whom I appoint as their guardian. The farm then to be sold and the proceeds equally divided amongst the above named heirs and the portion of Martin Luther and Daniel Howard to be put at interest until they become of age.

...."

Coshocton County, Ohio - Common Pleas Court Records 1838-1840 which listed a Petition for Dower filed March 7, 1837, in the case of Wright v. Wright and which listed William Wright as a son of William Wright:

"Apr. 1838 - Mary Wright vs. Lewis Wright et al. Petition for Dower. Filed 3-7-1837. William Wright, dec'd died seized of an estate of inheritance in 62-1/2 acres part E 1/2 Section 19, Township 4, Range 9. Widow, Mary Wright. Heirs: Lewis Wright; Albert Wright; Mary Smith, dec'd, her children - Theodore Smith, Garrison Smith, Mary Smith and Alexander Smith, all minors; Charles Wright; William Wright; Patsy Wright; Elwood Wright; Edward Wright; Martin Wright; and Daniel Wright. (17)"

In his email dated May 15, 2004, Gareth R. Habel enclosed family group sheets which stated that William Wright was a son of William Wright and Amy (Frazier) Wright, was born on August 10, 1802, in Fauquier County, Virginia, married Elizabeth Ann Dove on August 2, 1835, in Muskingum County, Ohio, died on May 29, 1875, in Muskingum County, Ohio, and was buried in Fazeysburg Cemetery, Muskingum County, Ohio, and that Elizabeth Ann (Dove) Wright was born in 1811 and died in 1875.

However, no documentary evidence has as yet been found that clearly identifies 1875 William Wright of Muskingum County, Ohio, as the son of 1834 William Wright of Coshocton County, Ohio.

Nevertheless, there is circumstantial evidence which makes that identification probable.

First, the dates of birth of both persons are similar. As set forth above, William Wright, the son of 1834 William Wright of Coshocton County, Ohio, was born on August 10, 1804. As set forth below, 1875 William Wright of Muskingum County, was born on August 10, 1802, or in about 1805 or 1808. Although the years differ, the same month and day of birth is striking.

Second, the place of birth of both persons are the same. As set forth above, the place of birth of William Wright, the son of 1834 William Wright of Coshocton County, Ohio, was Fauquier County, Virginia, and as set forth below, the 1850, 1860, and 1870 census records all list the place of birth of 1875 William Wright of Muskingum County, Ohio, as Virginia.

Third, the place of residence of both persons were near to each other. As set forth above, 1834 William Wright lived in Pike Township, Coshocton County, Ohio, and 1875 William Wright of Muskingum County, Ohio, was buried in Frazeytsburg, Jackson Township, Muskingum County, Ohio, and Jackson Township is immediately adjacent to the southern border of Pike Township and Frazeytsburg is some two or three miles south of the southern border of Pike Township.

Fourth, as set forth above, William Wright, the son of 1834 William Wright of Coshocton County, Ohio, survived until at least March 7, 1837, and as set forth below, 1875 William Wright of Muskingum County, Ohio, married in 1835 and lived until 1875.

Fifth, Joshua Lemert was a brother in law of 1834 William Wright of Coshocton County, Ohio, and Joshua Lemert was the justice of the peace who married 1875 William Wright and Elizabeth Anna Dove in 1835.

Sixth, the 1840 Census for Coshocton County, Ohio, listed no William Wright while the 1840 Census of Muskingum County, Ohio, listed a William Wright in Jackson Township who was age 30 to 40, which would be the correct age range for both William Wright, the son of 1834 William Wright, and 1875 William Wright.

Seventh, as set forth above, one of the brothers of William Wright, the son of 1834 William Wright of Coshocton County, Ohio, was 1854 Albert Wright of Coshocton County, Ohio, and as set forth below, 1875 William Wright of Muskingum County, Ohio, named his youngest son Albert Wright.

And eighth, as set forth below, 1834 William Wright's daughter Sarah (Wright) Miller was buried in Frazeytsburg Cemetery, Frazeytsburg, Muskingum County, Ohio, as was 1875 William Wright of Muskingum County, Ohio.

This circumstantial evidence indicates that 1875 William Wright of Muskingum County, Ohio, was probably a son of 1834 William Wright of Coshocton County, Ohio, but further research will be needed to confirm this identification. The remainder of this section will set forth the documentation that has been found for 1875 William Wright of Muskingum County, Ohio.

The marriage record of William Wright and Elizabeth Anna Dove was dated on August 2, 1835, in Muskingum County, Ohio:

"I hereby certify that on the 2nd day of August 1835 I joined in marriage relation William Wright of Muskingum County Jackson and Elizabeth Anna Dove, township State of Ohio.

Joshua Lemert J. Peace"

On December 20, 1837, at Muskingum County, Ohio, D.B. U/486, William Wright purchased from James and Susannah Morgan Lot 10, East ½ in Quarter Township 1, Township 3, Range 9, in Muskingum County, Ohio.

The 1840 Census for Jackson Township, Muskingum County, Ohio, listed William Wright with the following household:

Item 1st I give and bequeath to my beloved wife Anna Wright, in lieu of her dower, the farm on which we now reside, Situate in Jackson Township, Muskingum County and State of Ohio, containing about 180 acres, during her natural life or while she remains a Widow. At the death of my said wife the real Estate aforesaid I give and devise to my children Minerva Lemert a daughter Henry Wright my son Azariah Wright my son Samantha McGinnis my daughter Albert Wright my son and Mary Addie Ruckle my daughter and their heirs, to be equally divided among each of them

Item 2" It is my will that my beloved wife Anna shall have such household and kitchen furniture that she may need for her comfort, also that she have two cows for her use

Item 3d It is my will that all my personal property except the above stated be sold to pay all my just debts and charges and if there be not enough of my personal property to meet such claims, it is my will that an amount of my real Estate sufficient for the same be sold by my Executors and the proceeds applied for such purposes. It is my will that if any of my Real Estate has to be sold for the above purpose, that it be the interest I hold in the Mill known as the Wright & Gourley Mill or the piece of land upon which William Norman now lives supposed to contain 20 acres.

Item 4th I hereby nominate and appoint Henry Wright, Azariah Wright and Albert Wright, executors of this my last will and testament hereby authorizing and empowering them to compromise, adjust, release and discharge in such manner as they may deem proper the debts and claims due me. I do also authorize and empower them if it shall become necessary in order to pay my debts to sell by private sale or in such manner upon such terms of credit or otherwise as they may think proper such of my Real or Personal property as may be necessary, and deeds to purchasers to execute acknowledge and deliver in fee simple.

I do hereby revoke all former wills by me made.

In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal, this 26th day of May
A. D. 1875

Findagrave.com listed the following obituary for William Henry Wright and Pleasant (Bryan) Wright undated and with no newspaper listed:

"William Henry Wright was born near Frazeysburg, Ohio, October 21, 1841, and departed this life at his home in Frazeysburg, Ohio, Jan. 22, 1914, aged 72 years, 3 months, 1 day. Pleasant Bryan was born near West Carlisle, Ohio, June 27, 1848, and departed this life at her home in Frazeysburg, Ohio, Jan. 22, 1914, aged 65 years, 6 months, 22 days. Mr. Wright and Miss Bryan were united in marriage Nov. 6, 1868. One daughter, Mrs. Joseph Little, of Newark, Ohio, came to bless this union. For over 45 years they walked down life's pathway together, sharing each other's joys and sorrows and always happy in each other's love. We can not understand the mystery of their tragic death, but it is beautiful to think that after so long and happy a married life they were not separated in death.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Wright spent most of their lives in Frazeysburg and had won the confidence and respect of all who knew them. They leave to cherish their memories their only daughter, Mrs. Little, of Newark, three grandchildren, two brothers and one sister of Mr. Wright, and two brothers and four sisters of Mrs. Wright and a wide circle of relatives and friends. Precious memories of their life will linger with these friends and loved ones until death shall re-unite them in that realm where all mysteries shall be cleared away."

Findagrave.com listed the joint gravestone of William H. Wright and Pleasant B. Wright in Frazeysburg Cemetery, Frazeysburg, Muskingum County, Ohio:

The will of William Wright dated on August 15, 1834, and probated on September 27, 1834, at Coshocton County, Ohio, Probate File 121, listed Martha Wright as one of his children:

I William Wright of the County of Coshocton in the State of Ohio do make and publish this my last will and testament

". . . .

Second it is my will that my plantation which I now reside on to be equally divided amongst my heirs that is to Say Charles, Lewis, Albert, William, Martha Sarah Elwood Edward Martin Luther, Daniel Howard. The said farm to be rented to the best advantages for the benefit of my two youngest Sons Martin Luther and Daniel Howard towards boarding clothing and Schooling until each becomes the age of fourteen years at which time I wish them bound to some trade or profession by my son Charles whom I appoint as their guardian. The farm then to be sold and the proceeds equally divided amongst the above named heirs and the portion of Martin Luther and Daniel Howard to be put at interest until they become of age.

In his email dated April 25, 2004, Don Cathey enclosed an excerpt from Coshocton County, Ohio - Common Pleas Court Records 1838-1840 which listed a Petition for Dower filed March 7, 1837, in the case of Wright v. Wright and which listed Patsy Wright as a daughter of William Wright:

"Apr. 1838 - Mary Wright vs. Lewis Wright et al. Petition for Dower. Filed 3-7-1837. Findagrave.com listed the following obituary for Lindsey McMorris dated on January 29, 1891, in the Shelbyville Democrat, Shelbyville, Illinois:

"Died, Saturday evening, January 24, '91, Mr. Lindsay McMorris of West Main Street. The funeral services were observed at the Presbyterian Church, Monday at 2 p.m., Rev. W. H. Lloyd preaching the sermon, and being assisted by Revs. Orr and Styles. Lindsay McMorris was born in Frederick County, Virginia, March 7, 1806 and was aged 85 years, 7 months and 10 days, when death overtook him. He emigrated to Ohio in 1827. Married Miss Martha Wright, 1830. Five children all now living, were born of this union. Of these children, two sons, Joseph Louis reside in Walla Walla, Washington, and Charles resides in Weston, Oregon; and the two daughters reside here, Mesdames Emma Craig and Sarah Funk. Left five grandchildren and one great-grandchild. He came to Shelby County in 1839 and settled on a farm near where Tower Hill now is. Those were pioneer times here when the wild deer was a considerable menace to the farmer by reason of herds of them eating down and tramping up the wheat and corn fields. Then the night air was filled with panther shriek and wolf howl. He moved from his first settlement, after a few years, to a farm that is now in Ridge. Moved from there to Shelbyville about 30 years ago and had lived here since, except a year, when he went back to the farm. In 1846 death took his wife and in 1847, he was united in marriage with Elizabeth Killam who yet survives. In 1841 he united with the Baptist Church that being the most convenient for him to attend. He assisted in organizing the first Sunday School in his neighborhood and was always a consistent Christian and a faithful church worker. United with the Presbyterian Church in 1858 and has since been a patriotic adherent to the creeds of that denomination. Was for 25 years, an elder in the Presbyterian church here. His father was a Virginian and fought through the eight years of the Revolution. A sturdy, patriotic, honest stock was his. He used to delight in talking to his children from his fund of traditional lore of the days of the colonies and their young statehood. Mr. McMorris died ripe in years and honor and with hosts of friends."

Findagrave.com listed the following biographical sketch of Lewis McMorris citing as the source Lyman's History of Old Walla Walla County, by William Denison Lyman and published in 1918:

"LEWIS McMORRIS - Among those who merit consideration as distinctive pioneers of the northwest is he whose name initiates this review. Air. Mr McMorris is a native of the Buckeye state, having been born in Ohio on the 12th of August, 1831. When he was a lad of eight years he accompanied his parents on their removal to Shelby county, Illinois, where he received his educational discipline and grew to man's estate.

In the month of March, 1852, our subject started on the long and perilous journey across the plains and mountains, making the trip by means of the primitive ox-team equipment and arriving in the Willamette valley, Oregon, in the fall of the same year. There he was for a time engaged in mining, finally going from southern Oregon to Yreka, California, whence he returned to Oregon, in the year 1855, and engaged in packing for the troops during the Indian wars, as an employe of the quartermaster's department of the Oregon volunteers.

In the fall of the year mentioned he accompanied the soldiers on an expedition to Yakima and thence to Walla Walla, where they had an engagement with the hostile Indians. Of this and other conflicts with the red men a detailed report may be found on other pages of this work. Eventually Mr. McMorris returned to The Dalles, Oregon, where he was employed in the quartermaster's department with the United States regulars, with whom, in 1856, he made another expedition to Yakima, under Colonel Wright of the Ninth Infantry, returning with him to The Dalles, from which point he accompanied Colonel Steptoe to Walla Walla, their purpose being to establish an army post here.

He continued in the government employ until the following year, when he again went to The Dalles, purchased an ox-team and engaged in freighting, in company with Mr. McGlinchey and Captain Freedman, for whom he built the first house on the south side of Main street in Walla Walla, the same being then the third house in the town. It was located at the corner of Third. He continued to be associated with the gentlemen mentioned until this section of the country was thrown open to settlement, whereupon he availed himself of the privileges accorded, by securing a pre-emption claim two miles south of the town, where he was engaged in stock raising for several years, simultaneously operating a pack train to Boise, Idaho.

His next venture was at Weston, Oregon, where he was engaged in the mercantile business with his brother. Subsequently he was for four years a contractor on the stage then operating between Dayton, Washington, and Lewiston, Idaho. Now venerable in years, crowned with the honors of a busy and useful life and secure in the esteem of all who know him as one of the pioneers of the Inland Empire, Mr. McMorris is practically retired from active business pursuits, though he gives his personal supervision to his real estate interests, a considerable amount of which he owns in various parts of the country. He has always maintained a public-spirited attitude and has contributed his quota to the advancement and substantial upbuilding of this favored section of our national domain.

It should be mentioned in this connection that Mr. McMorris laid out the town of Wallula and also donated to the railroad company the land which they use for depot purposes there. He is a member of the Indian War Veterans of the Pacific Northwest, and his reminiscences of the early days are very interesting."

Lyman's History Of Old Walla Walla County, Volume 2, included the following biographical sketch of Lewis McMorris:

"LEWIS McMORRIS.

Among the honored early settlers of Washington was Lewis McMorris, who in 1852 came to the Pacific coast and throughout the remainder of his life was identified with the interests of this section of the country. He was here before the city of Walla Walla was founded and he saw its development and assisted in its making. With his brother Joseph and his sisters, Mrs. Sarah Funk and Mrs. Emma Craig, he lived for years in the evening of his days on First street in Walla Walla. He was born in Coshocton, Ohio, August 12, 1831, and came of Scotch ancestry, the family having been founded in America in 1774 by a representative of the name who served in the Revolutionary war and who settled near Winchester, Virginia. After the establishment of American independence the family was founded in Ohio and in later generations representatives of the name went to Shelby county, Illinois, and there engaged in farming.

Lewis McMorris was one of the family who went to Illinois and on attaining his majority he was fitted out by his father to accompany a bachelor neighbor and a party to California. It was in the month of March, 1852, that they started west with ox teams, crossing the plains and meeting with many of the hardships and privations which fell to the lot of the pioneers. It was in that year that the cholera proved so terrible a scourge and all the way from the Missouri river graves dotted the trail. With only a sheet for a shroud and without a casket the bodies were lowered into their graves and the traveler, starting out full of hope, was laid to his last sleep. Often five newly made graves were to be seen in a day. The party with which Mr. McMorris traveled consisted of a train of three wagons at the start but they were afterward joined by six wagons en route at St. Joseph, Missouri, and on the 15th of September, 1852, they reached Fosters, near Oregon City. There the oxen and wagons were sold and horses were purchased by those who desired to go on to the mines. They made pack saddles, loaded the horses and pressed on to southern Oregon, where a year and a half was spent at Sutter Creek, at Crescent City and at other mines. They were not successful there, however, and pressed on to Yreka, California, where Mr. McMorris again engaged in mining. The Rogue River Indian war, however, broke out in southern Oregon, causing him to change his location and he made his way to the northern part of the state. He became a packer, rushing goods from Portland to the mines at Colville. After one of these trips he hired the team of mules to the quartermaster of the Oregon Volunteers to haul supplies to their headquarters at The Dalles. On the second trip the Indians stole both mules and supplies. On the 7th of December, 1855, the battle of the Walla Walla with the Indians was begun on Walla Walla river west of the present site of the city, a battle that lasted for four days and in which several thousand Indians were lined up against a few hundred white volunteers. The white men, however, were victorious and it was a memorable battle because it was a victory of a few over many and also because it marked the beginning of a lasting peace between the Indians and the white settlers in that vicinity. Mr. McMorris was one of the active participants in that battle. In 1856, when the troops camped at what became old Fort Walla Walla they moved about four miles up Mill creek but decided that the first stopping place was best and returned. It was this that decided the location of Walla Walla. Mr. McMorris assisted in building the canton, as the old fort was called, which was made from the various trees which grew along the banks of Mill creek. Years later when this land was sold for building purposes in order to extend the present city, it was desired to save intact some of the old fort buildings, to place them in the city park as historic relics, but it was found that the timber had rotted so that they crumbled away. In 1857 Mr. McMorris made the trip to the Willamette valley to buy teams for the government. On his return he began freighting for McClinchey & Freedman, who were proprietors of the first mercantile house in this city, located at the corner of Third and Main streets. In 1859 he began buying cattle and to secure a watering place for his herd he purchased land which included the present site of Wallula. The winter of 1861-2 was an exceedingly hard one and by spring his herd of two hundred and seventy head had decreased to forty. He next turned his attention to the mercantile business, in which he engaged with his brother, but this enterprise did not prove profitable and he sold his interest in the business. When land was thrown open to settlement he secured a preemption claim at a dollar and a quarter per acre, his place being located two miles south of the town now known as the Hammond Farm. It was there that he conducted his stock-raising venture for several years and at the same time operated a pack train to Boise, Idaho. After closing out his mercantile interests with his brother he was for four years the owner of a stage line operating between Dayton, Washington, and Lewiston, Idaho. He laid out the town of Wallula and donated to the railroad company the land which they used for depot purposes there.

His long and useful life was ended in 1915. He passed away at his home in Walla Walla at the ripe old age of eighty-four years. He had never married but he left a brother and two sisters. The brother, however, died in the spring of 1917. There are also four nephews and one niece: the Funk brothers, who are engaged in merchandising in Walla Walla; the Craig brothers, of Illinois; and Agnes Lillian Purdy, of Portland, Oregon. Mr. McMorris was a member of the Oregon Pioneer Society, the Inland Empire Pioneers Association and the Indian War Veterans. Throughout the long years of his residence in this locality he became very widely and favorably known and he left many friends as well as relatives to mourn his loss. He performed an important part in promoting the early development and upbuilding of this section of the country and with many events which have left their impress upon the history of the northwest his name is inseparably associated."

Sarah E. (McMorris) Funk was a daughter of Martha (Wright) McMorris and Lindsey McMorris. (1657 Edward¹, 1695 John², 1752 John³, 1805 William⁴, 1834 William⁵, Martha⁶)

The marriage record of Sarah E. McMorris and Hosea H. Funk was dated on February 6, 1860, in Shelby County, Illinois:

"Marriage Record C 1854-71

Although only "Hosea H" was written in this record for the head of the household, the earlier marriage record and the 1870 census and other records make clear that this was the household of Hosea Hammac Funk. The person in the household immediately preceding this record was listed as "H. B. Tank" which is probably a mis-listing of Hosea's father H. B. Funk. This record indicates that Sarah E. (McMorris) Funk was born in about 1842 and that Hosea Hammac Funk was born in about 1837.

The 1880 Census for Shelbyville, Shelby County, Illinois, listed Hosa H. Funk with the following household on June 14, 1880:

"An obituary published in the Shelbyville Democrat on September 18, 1930 for Hosea H. Funk, states that he had died at his home on South Third Street, Sunday [September 14, 1930]. Mr. Funk was born in Ohio and was the last of nine children born to his parents. He had lived in Shelby county a number of years and for some time was the owner and operator of a large stock farm a few miles southwest of Shelbyville. He also operated the flour mill on West Main Street as a member of the firm, Funk and Cooper, his partner being the late John Cooper. Mr. Funk was also president of the Shelby County Agricultural Association for several seasons. Thirty-nine years prior to his death, Mr. and Mrs. Funk had moved to Missouri but had returned to Shelbyville in April to make their home. Besides his wife, he was survived by two sons, L. M. Funk and O. B. Funk of Walla Walla, Washington. Funeral services were to be held from the Lantz Brothers Chapel, Rev. A. P. Jordan of the Methodist Church, officiating. Burial was to be in Glenwood Cemetery."

Findagrave.com listed the gravestone of H. H. Funk in Glenwood Cemeteery, Shelbyville, Shelby County, Illinois:

(VIII) Sarah (Wright) Miller, Her Husband William Miller, And Her Descendants

Sarah (Wright) was a daughter of 1834 William Wright of Coshocton County, Ohio, and Amy (Frazier) Wright. (1657 Edward¹, 1695 John², 1752 John³, 1805 William⁴, 1834 William⁵)

The documentation for the DAR Application #696077 of Eloise Wilma Ramsey Maynard, Shaker Heights, Cleveland, Ohio, dated October 24, 1985, included a Family Record which listed the following:

"William Wright (son of Wm & Elizth. Wright) was born in York Town Virginia Novemr. the 10th 1769.

Amy Wright, (his wife Daughter of John & Martha Frazier was born in Chester Co. Pennsylvania Novemr. the 1st, 1778.

8. Sarah Wright was born at ditto [Fauquier County] May the 18th 1808

...."

The marriage record of ____ and William Miller was dated on January 26, 1825, in Coshocton County, Ohio:

"644

... Also William Miller on the 26 day of January 1825 this maby I thik I did return but if it is their will do no hurt. Given under my hand this first day of January 1827 -

Richard Tilton J.P."

Although Richard Tilton stated that he may have previously filed a return for the marriage of William Miller, no such return has as yet been found. In addition, although the name of the bride was not listed by Richard Tilton, the gravestone set forth below identifies Sarah Wright as the wife of William Miller.

The 1830 Census for Coshocton County, Ohio, did not list a William Miller and the 1830 Census for Muskingum County, Ohio, listed two William Millers and it is unclear whether either was the William Miller who married Sarah Wright.

The will of William Wright dated on August 15, 1834, and probated on September 27, 1834, at Coshocton County, Ohio, Probate File 121, listed Sarah Wright as one of his children:

I William Wright of the County of Coshocton in the State of Ohio do make and publish this my last will and testament

....

Second it is my will that my plantation which I now reside on to be equally divided amongst my heirs that is to Say Charles, Lewis, Albert, William, Martha Sarah Elwood Edward Martin Luther, Daniel Howard. The said farm to be rented to the best advantages for the benefit of my two youngest Sons Martin Luther and Daniel Howard towards boarding clothing and Schooling until each becomes the age of fourteen years at which time I wish them bound to some trade or profession by my son Charles whom I appoint as their guardian. The farm then to be sold and the proceeds equally divided amongst the above named heirs and the portion of Martin Luther and Daniel Howard to be put at interest until they become of age.

This record indicates that Sarah (Wright) Miller was born between about 1800 and 1810 and that William Miller was born between about 1790 and 1800.

Findagrave.com listed the gravestone of Sarah Miller, wife of William Miller, in Mount Zion Christian Church Cemetery, Fazeysburg, Muskingum County, Ohio:

"Sarah
Wife Of
Wm Miller
Died
Nov. 24, 1842.
Aged
34 Yr. 6 M & 6 D."

This record indicates that Sarah (Wright) Miller was born on May 18, 1808. Since that is the same date of birth as listed in the Family Record of William Wright for the birth of his daughter Sarah, this record identifies Sarah (Wright) Miller, the daughter of 1834 William Wright and Amy (Frazier) Wright, as the wife of William Miller.

Findagrave.com listed the gravestone of William Miller in Mount Zion Christian Church Cemetery, Fazeysburg, Muskingum County, Ohio, and his death on November 29, 1842:

"William Miller

However, no photograph of the gravestone was provided.

The death record of Eliza Jane Olmstead dated on October 6, 1920, in Indianapolis, Marion County, listed her parents as William Miller and Sarah Wright and her birth on August 10, 1833, in Ohio.

In his email dated May 15, 2004, Gareth R. Habel enclosed family group sheets which stated that Sarah Wright was a daughter of William Wright and Amy (Frazier) Wright and was born on May 18, 1808, in Fauquier County, Virginia.

From the evidence set forth above and additional evidence set forth below, the child of Sarah (Jane) Miller and Justus Olmstead was the following:

1) Eliza Jane (Miller) Olmstead, born on August 18, 1833, or in August 1836 or in about 1841 in Ohio.

(A) Eliza Jane (Miller) Olmstead, Her Husband Justus Olmstead, And Her
Descendants

Eliza Jane (Miller) Olmstead was a daughter of Sarah (Jane) Miller and Justus Olmstead. (1657 Edward¹, 1695 John², 1752 John³, 1805 William⁴, 1834 William⁵, Sarah⁶)

The marriage record of Justice Olmstead and Sarah Jane Gaines was dated on February 11, 1848, in Bartholomew County, Indiana:

Newspapers.com listed the following obituary for Elizabeth Olmstead dated on October 6, 1920, in The Republic, Columbus, Indiana:

"Mrs. Elizabeth Olmstead.

Mrs. Martha Olmstead, 84 years old, formerly of this county, died this morning at 2 o'clock at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Ira Walford, at Indianapolis, following a long illness. The body will be taken to Ogilville for burial.

Mrs. Olmstead formerly resided in Ogilville, leaving there about thirteen years ago for Indianapolis to make her home. Last winter she suffered an attack of influenza from which she never fully recovered and two weeks ago she fell and was severely injured although no bones were broken. Her son, George F. Olmstead, of 1447 Sycamore street, went to Indianapolis this morning, following a message announcing the death of his mother and will accompany the remains to Ogilville.

Besides Mr. Olmstead, she leaves another son, Albert Olmstead, of Ogilville, and four daughters, Mrs. Walford, with whom she lived; Mrs. M. O. Brown, of Indianapolis; Mrs. Mary ester, east of this city; Mrs. Ida Hatton, of Vincennes, and Mrs. Lizzie Thompson, of Minneapolis, survive."

Findagrave.com listed the following obituary of Eliza Olmstead dated on October 7, 1920, in The Evening Republican, Columbus, Indiana:

"The remains of Mrs. Eliza Olmstead, who died yesterday morning at her home in Indianapolis, will arrive in this city tomorrow morning at 9:05 o'clock over the Pennsylvania and be taken to Aspy Chapel, in Ohio township where funeral services will be held at 10 o'clock, conducted by Rev. Lewis King. Burial in the adjoining cemetery.

Mrs. Olmstead formerly resided in Ogilville, coming to this county when a small child, from Ohio. She had spent the greater part of her life here, going to Indianapolis a few years ago to make her home with her daughter. She was 84 years old, and a very well known woman."

Findagrave.com listed the gravestone of Eliza Jane Miller Olmstead in Saint Pauls Cemetery, Ogilville, Bartholomew County, Indiana:

"Eliza Jane Miller Olmstead

Birth	10 Aug 1836 Ohio, USA
Death	6 Oct 1920 (aged 84) Indianapolis, Marion County, Indiana, USA

(IX) John Wright

John Wright was a son of 1834 William Wright of Coshocton County, Ohio, and Amy (Frazier) Wright. (1657 Edward¹, 1695 John², 1752 John³, 1805 William⁴, 1834 William⁵)

The documentation for the DAR Application #696077 of Eloise Wilma Ramsey Maynard, Shaker Heights, Cleveland, Ohio, dated October 24, 1985, included a Family

Record which listed the following:

"William Wright (son of Wm & Elizth. Wright) was born in York Town Virginia Novemr. the 10th 1769.

Amy Wright, (his wife Daughter of John & Martha Frazier was born in Chester Co. Pennsylvania Novemr. the 1st, 1778.

9. John Wright was born at ditto [Fauquier County] Novemr the 8th 1810
...."

The will of William Wright dated on August 15, 1834, and probated on September 27, 1834, at Coshocton County, Ohio, Probate File 121, did not list John Wright as one of his children, indicating that he had probably died before August 15, 1834.

In his email dated April 25, 2004, Don Cathey enclosed an excerpt from Coshocton County, Ohio - Common Pleas Court Records 1838-1840 which listed a Petition for Dower filed March 7, 1837, in the case of Wright v. Wright and which listed the heirs of William Wright:

"Apr. 1838 - Mary Wright vs. Lewis Wright et al. Petition for Dower. Filed 3-7-1837. William Wright, dec'd died seized of an estate of inheritance in 62-1/2 acres part E 1/2 Section 19, Township 4, Range 9. Widow, Mary Wright. Heirs: Lewis Wright; Albert Wright; Mary Smith, dec'd, her children - Theodore Smith, Garrison Smith, Mary Smith and Alexander Smith, all minors; Charles Wright; William Wright; Patsy Wright; Elwood Wright; Edward Wright; Martin Wright; and Daniel Wright. (17)"

The absence of John Wright from this list of heirs indicates that he probably died before March 7, 1837.

In his email dated May 15, 2004, Gareth R. Habel enclosed family group sheets which stated that John Wright was a son of William Wright and Amy (Frazier) Wright and was born on November 8, 1810, in Fauquier County, Virginia.

(X) Elwood Wright

Elwood Wright was a son of 1834 William Wright of Coshocton County, Ohio, and Amy (Frazier) Wright. (1657 Edward¹, 1695 John², 1752 John³, 1805 William⁴, 1834 William⁵)

The documentation for the DAR Application #696077 of Eloise Wilma Ramsey Maynard, Shaker Heights, Cleveland, Ohio, dated October 24, 1985, included a Family

....

10. Elwood Wright born at ditto [Fauquier County] June the 12th 1813

The will of William Wright dated on August 15, 1834, and probated on September 27, 1834, at Coshocton County, Ohio, Probate File 121, listed Elwood Wright as one of his children:

"....

I William Wright of the County of Coshocton in the State of Ohio do make and publish this my last will and testament

....

Second it is my will that my plantation which I now reside on to be equally divided amongst my heirs that is to say Charles, Lewis, Albert, William, Martha Sarah Elwood Edward Martin Luther, Daniel Howard. The said farm to be rented to the best advantages for the benefit of my two youngest Sons Martin Luther and Daniel Howard towards boarding clothing and Schooling until each becomes the age of fourteen years at which time I wish them bound to some trade or profession by my son Charles whom I appoint as their guardian. The farm then to be sold and the proceeds equally divided amongst the above named heirs and the portion of Martin Luther and Daniel Howard to be put at interest until they become of age.

In his email dated April 25, 2004, Don Cathey enclosed an excerpt from Coshocton County, Ohio - Common Pleas Court Records 1838-1840 which a Petition for Dower filed March 7, 1837, in listed the case of Wright v. Wright and which listed Elwood Wright as a son of William Wright:

"Apr. 1838 - Mary Wright vs. Lewis Wright et al. Petition for Dower. Filed 3-7-1837. William Wright, dec'd died seized of an estate of inheritance in 62-1/2 acres part E 1/2 Section 19, Township 4, Range 9. Widow, Mary Wright. ....

Daniel Howard Wright was born in Ditto [Pike Township, Coshocton County], July the 10th 1830.

The will of William Wright dated on August 15, 1834, and probated on September 27, 1834, at Coshocton County, Ohio, Probate File 121, listed Daniel Howard Wright as one of his children:

"....

I William Wright of the County of Coshocton in the State of Ohio do make and publish this my last will and testament

....

Second it is my will that my plantation which I now reside on to be equally divided amongst my heirs that is to Say Charles, Lewis, Albert, William, Martha Sarah Elwood Edward Martin Luther, Daniel Howard. The said farm to be rented to the best advantages for the benefit of my two youngest Sons Martin Luther and Daniel Howard towards boarding clothing and Schooling until each becomes the age of fourteen years at which time I wish them bound to some trade or profession by my son Charles whom I appoint as their guardian. The farm then to be sold and the proceeds equally divided amongst the above named heirs and the portion of Martin Luther and Daniel Howard to be put at interest until they become of age.

In his email dated April 25, 2004, Don Cathey enclosed an excerpt from Coshocton County, Ohio - Common Pleas Court Records 1838-1840 which listed a Petition for Dower filed March 7, 1837, in the case of Wright v. Wright and which listed Daniel Wright as a son of William Wright:

"Apr. 1838 - Mary Wright vs. Lewis Wright et al. Petition for Dower. Filed 3-7-1837. These last two records indicate that Joshua Lemert was born on July 11, 1775.
History Of Crawford County And Ohio, published in 1881, listed the following regarding Joshua Lemert in a biographical sketch of Lewis Lemert:

"Lewis Lemert, retired farmer; P.O. Melmore; was born in Loudoun Co., Va.,

Aug. 5, 1802. His father, Joshua Lemert, was born in that State, his parents being emigrants from Germany, and when only 8 years old, his father died. He was apprenticed to a hatter, but never never worked at the trade after his apprenticeship expired. He was married to Mary Wright, and, in 1808, moved his family to this State, and settled in Coshocton Co. He was in humble circumstances, but with the help he received from his sons cleared up a farm. He was an officer in the war of 1812 , and it is said was the strongest man in his regiment. He died in 1858, in Muskingum Co., his wife having died several years previous.

The Lemert Family In America: The Story Of Lewis Lemert And His Descendants, compiled by Amy Lemert Hake and published in 1968, listed the following for Joshua Lemert:

"Section II

Descendants of Joshua² Lemert

3. Joshua² Lemert (Lewis¹), son of Lewis¹ and Anne Lemert.
 - b. ca 1776, Loudoun Co., Va.
 - d. 1858, Muskingum Co., Ohio. Buried in Duncan Falls, Ohio
- m. Mary Wright, 6 Feb. 1798 in Fauquier Co., Va.
 - b. ca 1775, Va.
 - d. 1830-48 (?) Ohio

Joshua² Lemert, the youngest son of Lewis¹ and his wife, Anne, was born about 1776 in Loudoun Col, Va. When he was eight years old, his father died and he was apprenticed to a hatter. (Written accounts say he never worked at this trade after his apprenticeship expired.) In 188 his mother, having remarried a widower named Solomon Dixon, left Virginia for Georgia, but no record can be found that Joshua accompanied them.

On 6 Feb. 1798 Joshua married Mary Wright. She was one of the 14 children of William and Elizabeth Wright who lived on the Manor of Leeds. Mary was a member of the Washington family, claiming her descent from Col. John and Anne Pope Washington whose daughter, Anne, married Major Francis Wright. Mary's father, William, was a sergeant in the War of the Revolution, serving with the Virginia Troops. (A complete genealogy of the Washington-Wright family, including Joshua² Lemert line is being planned by a Phoenix, Arizona descendant.

Joshua was raised in the Quaker faith, his mother having been a member of a Pennsylvania Meeting and his father becoming a member in 1773 in Va. When Joshua married Mary, however, he was "disowned" for "marrying out of unity" and this was noted in the Goose Creek Monthly Meeting records of South Fork Meeting House, Va., on 27 July, 1798.

After their marriage, Joshua and Mary remained in Va. helping Mary's widowed mother attend to her business affairs. Several of their children, including Lewis³ and William, were born in the Old Dominion. In 1808 they took their family to Coshocton Co., Ohio settling in Washington Township in 1810 and then moving to Pike Township and buying land there on 7 June, 1814. Joshua's farming was interrupted by the War of 1812, and he was drafted at "Old Town" (Duncan Falls), Muskingum Co., Ohio, on or about 15 June, 1812. Before being honorably discharged on 17 Feb. 1813 at Fort Meigs, he attained the rank of lieutenant and the reputation for being the strongest man in his regiment. He served under Cap't. Issac Evans in the Ohio Militia.

Returning again to farming the northeast quarter of section 12 in Pike Township, Joshua built a small horse-mill for grinding corn and mashes. His neighbors soon availed themselves of this convenience, especially during the dry season when mills on the small streams closed for lack of power and grists had to be shipped to Owl Creek in Knox County or on to Zanesville. It is said the mill worked night and day grinding out the coarse grade of cornmeal the settlers liked.

Ann Lemert Dixon, Joshua's mother, is believed to have come to live with him in Ohio about 1821. She had become a widow again in 1798 in Georgia and had returned to Virginia to live until she joined Joshua in Pike Township. At her death she probably was buried in "Joshua Lemert and Payne Clark's Burying Ground" near the later-built Broomstick Church.

The 1830 census of Pike Township lists Joshua and Mary as residents, but an item in "The Coshocton Spy" newspaper in the year 1830 reported that Joshua's property was sold at a sheriff's sale. The family was probably preparing to move to Muskingum Co., Ohio.

Joshua and Mary had at least nine children but four of them, all probably daughters, are not definitely known. Undoubtedly one was named Elizabeth and probably was born in Va. 1798-1804. Mary Wright Lemert died between 1830 and 1848 in Ohio, as on 15 June 1848, Joshua married his second wife, Sarah Sheppard, in Muskingum Co. Also a native of Va., Sarah was about five years younger than Joshua and according to the 1850 Census, they lived in House Number 61 in Jackson Township. Their household included Sarah Rickets, age 33, and Edward Lemert, age 22, both born in Ohio.

In April of 1855 Joshua² applied for Military Bounty Land on Warrant No. 14301. He received the warrant for 80 acres of land in Ringold County, Iowa, on 26 Nov. 1855 and promptly assigned it to a man names John Kilpatrick, another Frazeysburg, Ohio resident.

Joshua² died in 1858 and according to the Graves Registrations in the Ohio Adjutant General's Office, is buried in Duncan Falls Cemetery, Duncan Falls, Ohio. The charter for the Duncan Falls Cemetery, however, was not issued until 1882 so his resting place may actually be in an older township cemetery beside this newer one.

The reference in this work to descent from the Washington family appears to be based on the erroneous identifications of 1805 William Wright as a son of 1792 John Wright and 1792 John Wright as a son of 1729/30 John Wright and grandson of 1713 Francis Wright published by Charles Arthur Hoppin and discussed above.

From the evidence set forth above and additional evidence set forth below, the children of Mary (Wright) Lemert and Joshua Lemert were the following:

- 1) Lewis Lemert, born on August 5, 1802, or in about 1803 in Loudoun County, Virginia,
- 2) William Lemert, born on March 31, 1804, or on April 10, 1804, or in about 1806 in Virginia,
- 3) Lloyd Lemert, born on September 12, 1805, or in about 1806 in Virginia, and
- 4) Edward L. Lemert, born on April 14 or 15, 1828, in Frazeyburg, Muskingum County, Ohio.

(I) Lewis Lemert, His Wife Ruth (Perdew) Lemert,
And His Descendants

Lewis Lemert was a son of Mary (Wright) Lemert and Joshua Lemert. (1657 Edward¹, 1695 John², 1752 John³, 1805 William⁴, Mary⁵)

The marriage record of Lewis Lemert and Ruth Perdew was dated on January 2, 1823, in Coshocton County, Ohio:

"No. 390 Lewis Lemert To Ruth Perdew

I do certify that I joined Lewis Lemert and Ruth Perdew to-gether as man and wife in the Holy State of Matrimony on the 2nd day of January A. D. 1823 -

History Of Crawford County And Ohio, published in 1881, listed the following biographical sketch of Lewis Lemert:

"Lewis Lemert, retired farmer; P. O. Melmore; was born in Loudoun Co., Va., Aug. 5, 1802. His father, Joshua Lemert, was born in that State, his parents being emigrants from Germany, and, when only 8 years old, his father died. He was apprenticed to a hatter, but never worked at the trade after his apprenticeship expired. He was married to Mary Wright, and, in 1808, moved his family to this State, and settled in Coshocton Co. He was in humble circumstances, but with the help he received from his sons cleared up a farm. He was an officer in the war of 1812, and it is said was the strongest man in his regiment. He died in 1858, in Muskingum Co., his wife having died several years previous. Lewis obtained only a meager education; but by tact and care now possesses a fair business knowledge. He was married, Jan. 2, 1823, to Ruth, daughter of William and Rachel Perdew. She was born in Bedford Co., Penn., April 4, 1802, and accompanied her parents to Coshocton Co., Ohio, in 1816. In the spring of 1826, he bought 80 acres of land in this township, and, after raising his crop, came here, and cleared a small 'patch,' which he put in wheat. He built a cabin and moved here, where he has since lived, and carried on a vigorous warfare with the elements of nature for many years. His farm has increased in size, as well as value, and yearly yields its bounties to its grateful possessor. His marriage has been blessed with nine children, three of whom died in infancy. Those living are Laban J.; Sarah, wife of William Davis; Eliza, who was united to Andrew Gregg; Joshua; Mahala, who married William Gregg, but is now deceased, and Wilson C. All three sons have taught school, and Laban and Wilson attended the Ohio Wesleyan University at Delaware, Ohio, from which Wilson graduated. In the late war, Joshua served three years in the 7th O. V. I., and then raised a company, of which he was captain, for more than one year, or, till the "close of the war." Wilson was in Indiana, studying law, entered the 7th Regiment of that State, and held a Colonel's commission. Mr. Lemert and wife have devoted a lifetime to Christianity, joining the M. E. Church soon after coming to this county, and often had services in their house, before the church was built. To this cause, they have contributed financially as well as spiritually, and are now waiting for the "Master's call." He has held various township offices, and was Land Appraiser in 1860. He commenced business on the "cash basis," and has strictly adhered to this through life, and, although he was partly raised in a still-house, he has used neither liquor nor tobacco for many years. He is a Republican."

The Lewis³ Lemert Family

Lewis³ Lemert
1802-1882

Lewis and Ruth Perdew Lemert were the parents of Laban, Sarah, Eliza, Mahala, Joshua and Wilson C. Lemert.

4*. Lewis³ Lemert (Joshua², Lewis¹), son of Joshua² and Mary Wright Lemert

b. 4 Aug. 1802, Fauquier or Loudoun Co., Ohio

d. 4 Aug. 1882, Crawford Co., Ohio. Buried in "Pipetown" Cemetery near Bucyrus, Ohio

m. Ruth Perdew, 12 Jan. 1823, Coshocton Co., Ohio

b. 4 April 1802, Bedford Co., Penn.

d. 12 May 1880, Crawford Co., Ohio

Lewis³, eldest son of Joshua² and Mary Wright Lemert, was born in Virginia and accompanied his parents to Ohio when he was about six years old. He helped his father clear the land for their farms and undoubtedly became the "man of the family" while his father served in the War of 1812. It was said that Lewis obtained a "meager education", but farming, his life's occupation, was best taught then by actual experience.

On Jan. 12, 1823 Lewis³ was married to Ruth Perdew in Coshocton County. A native of Pennsylvania, Ruth came to Ohio with her parents, William and Rachel Broadcut Perdew, in 1816. Her parents and grandparents were all natives of Southampton Township, Bedford County, Pennsylvania, and were of French ancestry.

In the spring of 1826 Lewis³ bought 80 acres of land in Texas Twp., Crawford Co., and moved his family into the cabin he had built. This home also served for the Methodist-Episcopal church services held in the area before an actual church building was erected. After assisting in the 1834 construction of the church, called the Ebenezer M.E.Church and located near "Pipetown", Lewis became one of the first trustees. (The name "Pipetown" was given a store at a crossing on the Crawford and Wyandot County boundary line. The proprietor of the store, seeing the fondness of the Indians for tomahawk pipes, brought in large quantities of cheap clay pipes and hung them all over his establishment. He became known as "Old Pipes") and the crossroads as Pipetown. Lewis³ held various township offices and was Land Appraiser in 1860. In politics he was a Republican. He and his wife had nine children; three of whom died in infancy. On his 80th birthday Lewis³ died. He is buried in the Pipetown graveyard, presumably beside Ruth who died in 1880. They were both life-long members of the church there."

(II) William Lemert, His Wife Nancy (Cessna)
Lemert, And His Descendants

William Lemert was a son of Mary (Wright) Lemert and Joshua Lemert. (1657 Edward¹, 1695 John², 1752 John³, 1805 William⁴, Mary⁵)

No primary or contemporaneous evidence has as yet been found which identifies William Lemert as a son of Mary (Wright) Lemert and Joshua Lemert, but since the secondary evidence makes that identification, this section will set forth the documentation that has been found for William Lemert.

On June 16, 1826, at BLM Accession No. OH0360___.084, William Lemert patented 66.94 acres of land in the W½ of the SW¼ of Section 6, Township 3 North, Range 9 West, of the Military District in Ohio. The BLM map of this patent places it in the northwest corner of Muskingum County, Ohio

The marriage record of William Lemert and Nancy Cisney was dated on November 27, 1828, in Coshocton County, Ohio:

"777 William Lemert To Nancy Cisney

I do certify that I joined William Lemert and Nancy Cisney to-gether in the Holy State of Matrimony as husband and wife on the 27th day of November 1828 - Given under my hand and seal this 6th day of February A. D. 1829.

He was raised in Ohio where he had held the office of Justice of the Peace. He was a Democrat and a member of the United Brethern Church. He married Rebecca Cessna, daughter of John and Mary McVicker Cessna. She was the sister of Mrs. William Lemert. Lloyd was a farmer and also he served as a trustee."

(IV) Edward Lemert, His Wife Minerva A. (Wright)
Lemert, And His Descendants

Edward Lemert was a son of Mary (Wright)

Lemert and Joshua Lemert. (1657 Edward¹, 1695 John², 1752 John³, 1805 William⁴, Mary⁵)

No primary or contemporaneous evidence has as yet been found which identifies Edward Lemert as a son of Mary (Wright) Lemert and Joshua Lemert. Nevertheless, this couple has been discussed above in Section XXIII.A.2.k.i.(VI).(A) and that section sets forth the documentation that has been found for Edward Lemert.

iii. Elizabeth (Wright) White, Her Husband Augustine
White, And Her Descendants

Elizabeth (Wright) White was a daughter of 1805

William Wright of Fauquier County and Elizabeth (Lloyd) Wight. (1657 Edward¹, 1695 John², 1752 John³, 1805 William⁴)

The marriage record of Elizabeth Wright, daughter of Elizabeth Wright, and Augustine White was dated on September 17, 1806, in Fauquier County, Virginia:

"Septr 17th 1806. I hereby certify that Augustine White hath my consent to take out a licence form the office of the H.C. of F. County to enter in to holy State of Matrimony with my Daughter Elizabeth Wright. Given under my hand in witness of

In their letter dated August 11, 2006, Mike and Karen Wright also enclosed a photograph of the tombstone of Augustine White in Broomstick Cemetery, Coshocton County, Ohio, which listed the following:

"Augustine
White
Died
Nov. 5, 1853
Aged
78 yr 8 mo 25 ds"

These last two records indicate that Augustine White was born on February 10, 1775, and died on November 5, 1853.

The will of Augustine White was dated on January 27, 1851, probated on November 9, 1853, at Coshocton County, Ohio, Probate File 253, and provided as follows:

"I, Augustine White of the County of Coshocton in the State of Ohio do make and publish this my last Will and testament in manner and form following, that is to say

First, It is my will that my funeral expences and all my just debts be fully paid

Second, I give devise and bequeath to my beloved wife Mary White the interest on one third of all I possess, so long as she remains my widow.

Third, I give and devise to my eldest daughter Fanny Miller two hundred dollars, to be paid out of my estate

Fourth, The balance of my estate to be equally divided between my remaining five children, namely, Lewis, Eliza, Lloyd, Emily and Susan or their heirs.

And lastly I hereby constitute and appoint Isaac Botts and Robert Seevers to be the executors for this my last will and testament revoking and annulling all former wills by me made and ratifying and confirming this and no other to be my last will and testament.

In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this 27th day of January 1851

Augustine White

Proof of Will
The State of Ohio Coshocton county, ss

Be it remembered that on this 9th day of November Anno Domini 1853 personally appeared in open Court Montraville Cochran and Daniel M Crouch who being duly sworn according to law depose and say that they are the subscribing witnesses to the last will and testament of Augustine White of Coshocton County Ohio deceased, that said Augustine White was of full age of sound and disposing mind and memory and not under any restraint within the knowledge of these deponents, that they saw the Testator subscribe the said will and that they attested and subscribed the same as witnesses in his presence and at his request

Montraville Cochran
Daniel M. Crouch"

This record identifies the family of Augustine White as follows:

Wife: Mary White

Children: 1) Fanny (White) Miller,
2) Lewis White,
3) Eliza White,
4) Lloyd White,
5) Emily White, and
6) Susan White.

Given that no minor children were listed in the 1850 Census and Mary (Lyons) White was about 45 years old when she married Augustine White, these children were probably all the children of Elizabeth (Wright) White and Augustine White.

The Inventory and Appraisement of the estate of Augustine White was undated and filed at Coshocton County, Ohio, Probate File 253:

The 1816 and later Personal Property Tax Lists for Fauquier County, Virginia, did not list an Edward Wright.

The 1820 Census for Coshocton County, Ohio, listed Edward Wright with the following household:

Names of Heads of Families	Free White Males	Age	Free White Females	Age	Foreigners

This record indicates that Edward Wright and Elizabeth (Kay) Wright were born between 1780 and 1790.

In her email dated May 12, 2001, Nola Miles Rogers enclosed a copy of a Wright Family Bible which included the following:

"My father Edward Wright died December 10 1835
My mother Elizabeth Wright died January 19, 1883
Mary died age 19 yrs 3 mo 2 days Feb 27 1847
Lers(?) Lamuch(?) died June 10, 1843 age 17 (11 or 12?)"

In their letter dated August 11, 2006, Mike and Karen Wright enclosed a photograph of the tombstone of Edward Wright in Broomstick Cemetery, Coshocton County, Ohio, which listed the following:

"Edward
Wright
Died
Dec 16, 1835
Aged
59 Y 6 M 16 D"

This record indicates that Edward Wright was born on May 31 or June 1, 1776.

Findagrave.com listed the gravestone of Edward Wright in Broomstick Cemetery, Coshocton County, Ohio:

"Edward Wright
died Dec. 16, 1835.
aged, 59 years 6 mo. & 16 days.
The mortal body here is laid,
No more to [unreadable]"

In his letter dated September 25, 2003, Jerry Jacobs enclosed an excerpt from Coshocton County, Ohio, Cemeteries, Volume VI, Pike Township, by the Coshocton County Chapter of the Ohio Genealogical Society, 1988, which listed the following tombstone from Broomstick Cemetery:

"Edward Wright

Elizabeth Wright
1/19/1873
83y 10m 20d"

These last two records indicate that Edward Wright was born on May 31 or June 1, 1776.

The 1840 Census for Coshocton County, Ohio, listed Elizabeth Wright with the following household:

This record indicates that Elizabeth (Kay) Wright was born in about 1789.

Findagrave.com listed the gravestone of Elizabeth Wright in Broomstick Cemetery, Coshocton County, Ohio:

"Elizabeth
Wife Of Edward
Wright
Died
Jan. 13, 1873
Aged
83 Y. 10 M. 2 D."

This record indicates that Elizabeth (Kay) Wright was born on March 11, 1789.

As set forth above, in his letter dated September 25, 2003, Jerry Jacobs enclosed an excerpt from Coshocton County, Ohio, Cemeteries, Volume VI, Pike Township, by the Coshocton County Chapter of the Ohio Genealogical Society, 1988, which listed the tombstone of Elizabeth Wright in Broomstick Cemetery.

The death record of Lloyd Wright dated on January 10, 1902, in Greene County, Indiana, stated that his parents were Edward Wright and Elizabeth (Kay) Wright and that he was born on March 17, 1814, in Virginia.

In her email dated October 14, 2001, Nola Rogers stated that Edward Wright was born on June 1, 1776, married Elizabeth Kay, and died on December 16, 1835 and that Elizabeth (Kay) Wright was born on February 27, 1789, resided with her son John Wright in 1870 in Coshocton County, Ohio, and died on January 18, 1873, even though the Bible record appears to say 1883.

From the evidence set forth above and additional evidence set forth below, the following table of children of Edward Wright and Elizabeth (Kay) Wright can be constructed:

Sons	Age in 1810 Census	Age in 1820 Census	Age in 1830 Census	Age in 1840 Census	Identification
1.	0-10	10-16			_____, b. 1804-1810 or c. 1808

3.		0-10	10-15		_____, b. 1815-1820
4.			0-5	10-15	Mary, b. c. 1828

From the evidence set forth above and additional evidence set forth below, the children of 1835 Edward Wright and Elizabeth (Kay) Wright were the following:

- 1) Joshua Wright, born between 1804 and 1810 or in about 1808 in Virginia,
- 2) _____ Wright, a daughter, born between 1804 and 1810, possibly Delilah (Wright) Shelton,
- 3) _____ Wright, a daughter, born in about 1810, probably Margaret (Wright) Clark, born in about 1810 or 1811 in Virginia or Ohio,
- 4) William Wright, born in about 1812 in Virginia,
- 5) Lloyd Wright, born on March 17, 1814, in Virginia,

- 6) John Wright, born on June 26, 1816, in Ohio,
- 7) Joseph Wright, born between 1816 and 1820 or in about 1818 in Ohio,
- 8) _____ Wright, a daughter, born between 1816 and 1820,
- 9) probably Lewis Wright, born in about 1820 or on March 29, 1821, in Ohio,
- 10) Edmund Wright, born on March 3, 1823, in Ohio,
- 11) _____ Wright, a son, probably Daniel Marion Wright, born in about 1825,
- 12) Mary Wright, born in about 1828, and
- 13) probably Alexander Wright, born on January 13, 1830, in Ohio.

(I) Joshua Wright, His Wives Elizabeth (Johnson)
Wright, Alice "Alsey" (Donley) (Shrout) Wright, And Marcy (Sebring) Wright, And His Descendants

Joshua Wright was a son of 1835 Edward Wright of Coshocton County, Ohio, and Elizabeth (Kay) Wright. (1657 Edward¹, 1695 John², 1752 John³, 1805 William⁴, 1835 Edward⁵)

Y-DNA sequencing has confirmed that Joshua Wright was a son of 1835 Edward Wright of Coshocton County, Ohio. Phillip Wright is a descendant of Joshua Wright as follows:

- 1) Joshua Wright, but identified as Joseph Wright in Phillip's records,
- 2) John A. Wright,
- 3) 1900 Noah Frank or Franklin Wright of St. Francois County, Missouri,
- 4) 1969 Marion Edward Wright of Dunklin County, Missouri,
- 5) William Ernest Wright, and
- 6) Phillip Wright.

Phillip Wright is also a participant in the Wright DNA Project and his Kit No. 112570 matches 37/37 markers for the modal haplotype of other descendants of 1805 William Wright of Fauquier County. So it seems clear that Phillip Wright descends from one of the sons of 1805 William Wright of Fauquier County.

1805 William Wright's son 1834 William Wright had no son named Joshua or Joseph.

1805 William Wright's son 1866 Joseph Wright had no son named Joshua, but did have a son Joseph and as set forth below, that son Joseph has been identified as 1893 Joseph Wright of Coshocton County, Ohio, who married Rebecca Wickersham.

1805 William Wright's son 1835 Edward Wright had an unnamed son born between 1804 and 1810 and another son named Joseph born in about 1818. As more fully set forth below, 1835 Edward's son Joseph Wright married Esther Casteel. The evidence set forth below indicates that the older unnamed son was Joshua Wright, born in about 1808.

In his email dated April 4, 2013, Phillip Wright identified his ancestor as a son of Edward Wright and Elizabeth (Kay) Wright and as the Joseph Wright who married Elizabeth (____) Wright and who was listed in the 1850 Census in Coschocton County, Ohio. One of his sources for this information was Evelyn (Wright) Baker, a great great granddaughter of Edward Wright through Edward's son Lloyd Wright who had an extensive genealogy of her family line back to 1805 William Wright of Fauquier County. A second source for this information was Bernice (Kirkman) Noel who was also a great great granddaughter of Joseph Wright who married Elizabeth (____) Wright. However, as set forth below, I believe the listing in the 1850 Census was a scrivener's error and the name listed should have been Joshua Wright rather than Joseph Wright.

As noted by Phillip Wright, the children of the Joseph and Elizabeth (____) Wright of the 1850 Census moved to Greene County, Indiana, in the 1850's. 1835 Edward Wright's son 1902 Lloyd Wright of Greene County, Indiana, also moved to Greene County, Indiana, in the 1850's and lived about one mile from Joseph's son John A. Wright. 1902 Lloyd Wright married first Elizabeth Clark and 1835 Edward Wright's son 1902 William Wright of Coshocton County, Ohio, married Elizabeth's sister Martha Clark. These residential proximities and family connections are additional circumstantial evidence that the Joseph Wright who married Elizabeth (____) Wright was probably a brother of 1902 Lloyd Wright and 1902 William Wright and therefore, a son of 1835 Edward Wright.

The result is to establish a Y-DNA identification through a descendant of Joseph/Joshua Wright to 1805 William Wright of Fauquier County.

The documentation related to Joshua Wright is set forth below.

The 1810 Census for Fauquier County, Virginia, listed Edward Wright with one son aged 0 to 10, indicating a date of birth between the marriage in 1804 and 1810.

The 1820 Census for Coshocton County, Ohio, listed Edward Wright with one son aged 10 to 16, indicating a date of birth between 1804 and 1810.

The marriage record of Joshua Wright and Elizabeth Johnson was dated on September 12, 1827, in Coshocton County, Ohio:

"Coshocton County Ohio -

689 Joshua Wright to Elizabeth Johnson

I do Certify that I have Joined Joshua Wright and Elizabeth Johnson on the 12th day of September, together as husband and wife in the holy state of matrimony Given under my hand and Seal this 19th day of September 1827

Payne Clark J.P"

Marriages, Coshocton County, Ohio, 1811-1930, by Miriam C. Hunter, also listed the marriage of Joshua Wright and Elizabeth Johnson on September 12, 1827, in Coshocton County, Ohio.

The 1830 Census for Pike Township, Coshocton County, Ohio, listed Joshua Wright with the following household:

This record indicates that Joshua Wright was born between 1800 and 1810.

The marriage record of Else Donley and Jesse Smout was dated on September 11, 1834, in Coshocton County, Ohio:

"Marriage Record

295

Jesse Smout to Else Donley

I do hereby that on the 11th day of September A D 1834 by virtue of a license from the Clerk of the Court of Common Pleas of Coshocton county, Jesse Smout and Else Donley were legally joined in marriage by me a Justice of the peace in and for said county. Given under my hand September the 26th 1834.

Hugh McClintock J.P."

As set forth below, Alice "Alsey" (Donley) (Shrout) Wright was the second wife of Joshua Wright.

Some family trees posted online also list Joshua Wright as married second to Emily Graves on March 6, 1836, in Coshocton County, Ohio. However, this is incorrect. Marriages, Coshocton County, Ohio, 1811-1930 listed the marriage of Emily Graves as to Josiah Wright, not Joshua Wright, and, as set forth below, the gravestone of Josiah Wright is in Willowbrook Cemetery, also known as Slaughter Cemetery, in Coshocton County, Ohio, and that gravestone listed Josiah Wright as the son of John and Nancy Wright, who would be Edward Wright's brother 1853 John Wright of Coshocton County, Ohio, and his wife Nancy (Graves) Wright. So unless Joshua Wright was the same person as Josiah Wright, there were two different families involved in these marriages.

The 1840 Census for Coshocton County, Ohio, listed Joshua Wright with the following household:

This record indicates that Joshua Wright and Elizabeth (Johnson) Wright were born between 1810 and 1820, which is inconsistent with the 1830 Census.

The 1850 Census for Coshocton County, Ohio, listed Joseph Wright with the following household on July 19, 1850:

This record indicates that Joseph/Joshua Wright was born in about 1808 and that Elizabeth (____) Wright was born in about 1809.

As mentioned above, this listing of Joseph Wright in this household was probably a scrivener's error by the census taker and the name should have been Joshua Wright. An example of such an error is provided in connection with this Joshua Wright's uncle Joshua Wright, a son of 1805 William Wright of Fauquier County. As more fully set forth below, in Barbour County, Virginia (now West Virginia), Deed 3/132 dated September 12, 1847, the grantor was first referred to as Joseph Wright and then later in the document correctly referred to as Joshua Wright, thus giving an example of a scrivener's confusing the names of Joseph and Joshua. In addition, no prior or subsequent record of the Joseph and Elizabeth Wright listed in the 1850 Census has been found in Coshocton County, Ohio, or in Greene County, Indiana, whereas Joshua Wright was listed as married to Elizabeth Johnson and in the 1830 and 1840 Coshocton County Censuses and Joshua Wright was listed with his later marriages in Lawrence and Greene Counties, Indiana, and in the 1860 Lawrence County Census and 1880 Greene County Census.

Although unusual, this evidence seems to establish that the Joseph Wright of the 1850 Coshocton County Census was actually Joshua Wright.

The 1850 Census for Greene County, Indiana, listed Alesey Shrout in the Jesse Shrout household on September 10, 1850:

Findagrave.com listed the following obituary for John Wesley Overman, undated and no newspaper listed:

"John Wesley Overman was born near Koleen in 1848.

He was married to Harriett Neldon in 1874. Eleven children were born to them, nine of whom preceded him to the heavenly home. His beloved wife departed this life in 1893.

In 1896 he was married to Miss Iva Wight. To this union four children were born. His wife and one of the four children went before him to the life beyond.

Mr. Overman left his early home June 3, 1915, being sixty-seven years old.

He leaves five children to mourn their loss. He also leaves one brother, Jacob Overman, of Arkansas, and three sisters as follows: Mrs. Lyda Booher, of Maryville, Missouri; Mrs. Luvina Dean, of Lewis, and Mrs. Lucinda Moffett, of Bloomfield.

He united with the Methodist church about thirty-five years ago, and lived a devoted and consecrated life. He was a good neighbor and friend and was held in highest esteem.

He was a member of the Farmers Union, and the Union held services at the grave.

The funeral sermon was preached at Ashcraft Chapel last Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock by Elder J. A. Spencer in the presence of a large audience of relatives and friends."

Findagrave.com listed the gravestone of John Wesley Overman in Ashcraft Chapel Cemetery, Bloomfield, Greene County, Indiana:

"Grandfather
John Wesley Overman
1848 - 1915
Father of John Benjamin Overman"

The marriage record of Lucinda Ethel Overman and George H. Webb dated on June 10, 1915, in Koleen, Greene County, Indiana, listed her parents as John W. Overman and Ivy Wright.

The marriage record of Theodore R. Overman and Gladys C. Koons dated on January 8, 1945, in Clark County, Washington, listed his parents as John Overman and Ivy Wright and his birth in about 1902 in Koleen, Indiana.

The death record of Ellen Goosey dated on May 12, 1968, in Moberly, Randolph County, Missouri, listed her parents as John Wesley Overman and Iva Wright and her birth on March 12, 1897, in Indiana.

(II) Wright, Possibly Delilah (Wright) Shelton
 And Her Husband Thomas Shelton

 Wright, possibly Delilah (Wright) Shelton was a daughter of 1835 Edward Wright of Coshocton County, Ohio, and Elizabeth (Kay) Wright. (1657 Edward¹, 1695 John², 1752 John³, 1805 William⁴, 1835 Edward⁵)

The 1810 Census for Fauquier County, Virginia, listed Edward Wright with two daughters aged 0 to 10, indicating a date of birth between the marriage in 1804 and

The 1820 Census for Coshocton County, Ohio, listed Edward Wright with one daughter aged 10 to 16, indicating a date of birth between 1804 and 1810.

No direct documentary evidence has been found which identifies Delilah (Wright) Shelton as a daughter of Edward Wright and Elizabeth (Kay) Wright. Nevertheless, a number of Ancestry.com family trees list that identification.

There is limited circumstantial evidence to support this identification.

The marriage record of Delilah Wright and Thomas Shelton was dated on March 31, 1825, in Coshocton County, Ohio:

"526 Thomas Shelton To Delilah Wright

I do certify on the 31st day of March Instant I joined Thomas Shelton and Delilah Wright to-gether in the Holy State of Matrimony as husband and wife. Given under my hand and seal this 3rd day of April A. D. 1825.

Payne Clark - J.P."

A marriage in 1825 of a female born between 1804 and 1810 would be appropriate and no other marriage record of a female Wright between 1820 and 1830 in Coshocton County, Ohio, except for Margaret Wright discussed below, has as yet been found.

No further record of this couple has as yet been found and the result is that further research will be required to either confirm or deny this identification.

(III) Wright, Probably Margaret (Wright)
Clarke And Her Husband James Clarke
Wright, probably Margaret (Wright)

Clarke, was a daughter of 1835 Edward Wright of Coshocton County, Ohio, and Elizabeth (Kay) Wright. (1657 Edward¹, 1695 John², 1752 John³, 1805 William⁴, 1835 Edward⁵)

The 1810 Census for Fauquier County, Virginia, listed Edward Wright with two daughters aged 0 to 10, indicating a date of birth between the marriage in 1804 and 1810.

The 1820 Census for Coshocton County, Ohio, listed Edward Wright with one daughter aged 0 to 10, indicating in conjunction with the 1810 Census a date of birth in about 1810.

No direct documentary evidence has been found which identifies Margaret (Wright) Clark as a daughter of Edward Wright and Elizabeth (Kay) Wright. However, the following circumstantial evidence indicates that this identification is probable.

First, the marriage of Margaret Wright and James Clarke was dated in 1830 in Coshocton County, Ohio. A marriage in 1830 of a female born in about 1810 would be appropriate and no other marriage record of a female Wright between 1820 and 1831 in Coshocton County, Ohio, except for Delilah Wright discussed above, has as yet been found.

Second, as set forth below, William Wright, the son of Edward Wright and Elizabeth (Kay) Wright, married Martha Clark in 1832 in Coshocton County, Ohio. It was not uncommon for a brother and sister to marry another sister and brother.

Third, the 1850 Census listed the children of Margaret (Wright) Clarke and James Clarke and the names selected for the children suggest a family connection to Edward Wright and Elizabeth (Kay) Wright:

- 1) Delila Clark, probably named for Margaret's sister Delilah (Wright) Shelton,
- 2) Edward Clark, probably named for Margaret's father Edward Wright,
- 3) Elizabeth Clark, probably named for Margaret's mother Elizabeth (Kay) Wright,
- 4) Louis Clark, probably named for Margaret's probable brother Lewis Wright, and
- 5) Alexander Clark, probably named for Margaret's probable brother Lewis Wright.

And fourth, the 1860 Census for Licking County, Ohio, listed Margaret's daughter Delilah Clark in the Joseph Wright household and that Joseph Wright was 1885 Joseph Wright of Greene County, Indiana, a probable son of Edward Wright and Elizabeth (Kay) Wright.

This circumstantial evidence makes probable the identification of Margaret (Wright) Clark as the daughter of Edward Wright and Elizabeth (Kay) Wright.

The remainder of this section will set forth the records that have been found for this couple.

The marriage record of Margaret Wright and James Clarke was dated on June 10, 1830, in Coshocton County, Ohio:

"913 James Clarke To Margaret Wright

I do certify on the 10th of June 1830 last by virtue of a License from the Clerk of Court of Common Pleas Coshocton County James Clarke and Margaret Wright were legally married by me a Justice of the Peace in and for said County - July 31 - 1830.

This record indicates that Margaret (Wright) Clark was born in about 1810 and that James Clark was born in about 1808.

The 1880 Census for Coshocton County, Ohio, listed Margaret Clark in the Sarah Clark household on June 10, 1880, her relationship as mother, her age as 70 and born in Virginia, indicating a date of birth in about 1810, and her marital status as widowed.

From the evidence set forth above and additional evidence set forth below, the children of Margaret (Wright) Clark and James Clark were the following:

- 1) Delila (Clark) Johnson, born in June 1829 or in about 1831 or 1832 in Ohio,
- 2) Edward F. Clark, born in August 1832 or in about 1833 or 1834 in Ohio,

"Mrs. Delilah Johnson Dies at West Bedford

Funeral services over the remains of Mrs. Delilah Johnson who died at her home in West Bedford at an early hour Sunday morning were held Monday morning at 10:30 at the West Bedford Methodist Episcopal church, Rev. Harvey officiating.

Mrs. Clark, since the death of her husband a number of years ago has made her home with her brother Alexander Clark. Her death followed a brief illness of less than twenty-four hours duration. Mrs. Clark had not been feeling well during the day and Saturday evening was stricken with paralysis to which she succumbed at 8o'clock Sunday morning. For a number of years Mrs. Clark had been in frail health and she was afflicted with blindness for the last ten years of her life. In spite of her affliction she was known as a woman of unusually cheerful disposition and during the eighty years of her useful life she had won to herself a wide circle of firm and loving friends who will miss the inspiration of her beautiful life.

In addition to the brother Alexander with whom she made her home, Mrs. Clark is survived by another brother Louis, also of West Bedford."

This record indicates that Edward F. Clark was born in August 1832. However, this record is confused regarding the ages of Mariah Clark and Homer Clark. The original record listed her birth in February 1834, which would indicate an age of 66, but her age was originally listed as 56 and then crossed out and 66 inserted, apparently to be consistent with a birth in 1834. What seems more probable is that the original age of 56 was correct and her birth should have been listed as February 1844. Similarly, Homer Clark's birth was listed as February 1886, which would make his age 14, but his age was listed as 34, which would indicate that a birth in February 1866, which is consistent with the prior census records.

Findagrave.com listed the following obituary for Nancy M. (Carney) Clark dated on October 7, 1908, in The Marshal Herald, Marshall, Illinois:

"OBITUARY

Nancy M. Carney was born in Tomkins Co, NY, Feb. 14th 1843 and departed this life Oct 2nd 1908, aged 65 years, 7 months and 18 days.

When she was a small child her parents moved to Coshocton Co., Ohio where she grew to womanhood. She was married to Edward F. Clark April 7th 1864, who departed this life May 5th 1906.

They came to Clark county Illinois in the spring of 1865, and have lived near Marshall ever since. She made her home with her only child since the death of her husband.

Words are too feeble to portray the devotion of her life to her family and friends. She did not neglect the little things in life in search of greater ones. Especially will her gifts of flowers be remembered which brought so much cheer and comfort to the sick besides many, many either acts of kindness which will pass on through eternity though her life here is ended.

She leaves one grandchild besides other relatives and a host of friends to mourn her death.

The funeral services were held Sunday following her death at the Clarksville Church, Rev David Black officiating. Interment in the Cemetery nearby.

A friend"

This record indicates that Lewis Clark was born in about 1843 and that Elizabeth J. (Thompson) Clark was born in about 1852.

Newspapers.com listed the following obituary for Elizabeth (Thompson) Clark dated on Sunday, May 6, 1917, in The Coshocton Tribune, Coshocton, Ohio:

"Elizabeth Clark Answers Summons

John W. Clark, of Bank street, received a communication from Massillon Saturday evening stating that Mrs. Elizabeth Clark, aged 65, had died at the Massillon hospital Saturday afternoon. Mrs. Clark was admitted to the hospital April 21 and since that time her health had steadily declined.

Elizabeth Thompson was born September 21, 1841, at West Bedford, the daughter of Patrick and Rebecca Thompson. She was a member of the West Bedford M. E. church and was loved by the people of the community for her kindness and lovable disposition.

Relatives who survive are: the husband, two brothers, George Thompson, of South Lawn avenue; Thompson Thompson, of near Warsaw;; one sister, Mrs. Ada Spencer, of Bridgeport, Ill., and one step-son, J. W. Clark.

The body will be brot to this city this evening on the Wheeling & Lake Erie train by John W. Clark and taken to his home on Bank street. The funeral cortege will leave the Clark home on Bank street Monday morning. Services will be held Monday morning at ten o'clock (sun time) at the West Bedford church, the pastor of the church officiating. Burial will be made at the West Bedford cemetery."

Although the obituary listed her birth in 1841, the census records set forth above indicate that the year of birth should have been 1851.

Newspapers.com listed the following obituary for Lewis Clark dated on Monday, January 27, 1919, in The Coshocton Tribune, Coshocton, Ohio:

"Lewis Clark Dies Sunday At Bank-St Home Of His Son

Lewis Clark, aged 73, died Sunday afternoon at 1:30 at the home of his son, Wesley Clark, Bank-st, Coshocton. Death was caused by a stroke of paralysis which he suffered Sunday morning at 6:00 o'clock. Up to that time he had enjoyed fairly good health for one of his age.

Lewis Clark was born October 4, 1845, near Fallsburg, Ohio. His entire life, with the exception of a few years spent in Illinois, was lived in Licking and Coshocton-cos.

He was married to Sarah J. Wolfe on October 13, 1865. To them were born five children, four of whom have preceded the father in death. The wife and mother died June 6, 1886.

Mr. Clark's second wife, Elizabeth Thompson, died May 5, 1917.

One son, with whom he lived; one brother, Alexander, Coshocton; 11 grandchildren and three great grandchildren survive.

He was a member of the Methodist church at West Bedford and took an active interest in the church activities as long as his health permitted. He lived a consecrated Christian life, the influence of which will long endure.

Short funeral services were held at the late home at 620 Bank-st Monday afternoon at 2:00 o'clock in charge of the Rev. H. E. Truitt, pastor of the First Christian church of Coshocton.

Funeral services were arranged for Tuesday morning at 10:30 at the West Bedford M. E. church in charge of the Rev. H. R. Chalfant, with burial following in the West Bedford cemetery."

"An Old Injury Causes Death

Mrs. Alex Wright Dies at Her Home Near New Guilford

Mrs. Alexander Wright, aged 78 years, died at an early hour Tuesday morning at her home between New Guilford and West Carlisle. Death was caused by peritonitis and a hip fracture which Mrs. Wright suffered last January when she fell on the ice.

Mrs. Wright was a lifelong resident of the New Guilford and West Carlisle vicinity and was known and respected by a host of friends in that vicinity. She was a member of the Christian church for a great many years and always lived a consistent Christian life.

Besides the husband there are four daughters; Mrs. John Crawford, Mrs. Louis Cullison, Mrs. Barcus and Mrs. Burrell, all of the community about the home.

Funeral services will be held Thursday morning at 10 o'clock from the home. Rev. Kilpatrick officiating. Burial will be made in the West Carlisle cemetery."

Findagrave.com listed the following obituary for Mrs. Alexander Wright undated and with no newspaper listed:

"Injury Proves Fatal

As the result of a fall in which she sustained a broken hip, four months ago, Mrs. Alexander Wright, aged 77 years, died at her home near West Carlisle, at 1 o'clock Tuesday morning. Following the accident, peritonitis set in, and despite all that medical science and loving care could accomplish, proved fatal.

The deceased was one of the best known and most highly esteemed residents of the West Carlisle vicinity. She was a member of the Christian church for many years. Surviving are the husband and four daughters, as follows: Mrs. John Crawford, Mrs. Louis Cullison, Mrs. Barcus and Mrs. Burrell, all of the home community.

Funeral services will be conducted at 10 o'clock Thursday morning, Rev. Kilpatrick of Perryton, officiating. Interment will take place in the West Carlisle cemetery."

Newspapers.com listed the following obituary of Alexander Wright dated on Saturday, December 13, 1913, in The Coshocton Tribune, Coshocton, Ohio, and his death on December 12, 1912:

"Alexander Wright Dies at Home in Cooperdale

Alexander Wright, aged 77, a well known resident of the Cooperdale vicinity and a civil war veteran died at the home of his daughter Mrs. Albert Barker in Cooperdale shortly after noon Friday. For some time past, Mr. Wright had suffered from heart trouble and complications but his death Friday came as a shock to the members of the family. Mr. Wright had been about the house and was apparently as well as usual when he was stricken with an attack of heart trouble which resulted fatally before the physician summoned, had arrived.

Alexander Wright was born in Coshocton county and during the entire seventy-seven years of his life this county was his home. He was a farmer and was known as an industrious and honest man. He was for years a member of Mt. Zion church. The greater part of his life was spent on a farm but since the death of his wife he had made his home much of the time with his daughter Mrs. Barker in the village of Cooperdale. Three other daughters survive. They are Mrs. Frank Cullison of Warsaw, Mrs. Anna Banks and Mrs. Sarah Crawford both of Winding Fork.

The funeral cortege will leave the Barker home Sunday at 1 o'clock (standard time) and proceed to West Carlisle where services will be held in the Presbyterian church. Burial will take place in the West Carlisle cemetery"

"Aged Cooperdale Resident Dies at Son's Residence

Mrs. Florida Dickerson Wright, a native and life-long resident of Coshocton county, died at 1:45 a.m. today at the home of her son Fred Dickerson, near Cooperdale. She was 83.

Mrs. Wright had been in failing health for a year. Death was due to complications.

She was born near Cooperdale April 2, 1855, and was the last of a family of 12 children. In 1890 she was married to Henry Wright, who died several years ago. She was a member of the Union M. E. Church.

She leaves her son, Fred, one grandson, and two step sons, Scott Wright, Coshocton Route 1, and Addison Wright, Cooperdale.

The funeral procession will leave the Dickerson home at 1:30 p. m. Monday, with services at the Union church at 2 p. m. in charge of the Rev. O. L. Ashburn, West Bedford. Burial will be in Union cemetery."

Newspapers.com listed the following news article regarding the divorce of Isaac Wright and Mary (Thompson) Wright:

"First Live Apart: Now Seek Divorce

Isaac Wright, of Jackson Township, Invokes Probate Court for Divorce After Having Entered Contract With Wife to Live Apart

After thirty six years of married life, Mr. and Mrs. Isaac right of Jackson township, have found themselves unable to keep their marital bark afloat any longer, and the former seeks relief in the courts.

Isaac Wright vs. Mary Wright is the title of the divorce suit that was filed in probate court last Monday. Attorney Thomas C. Roche is counsel for the plaintiff.

In his petition Mr. Wright cites the fact that they were married in Coshocton county, January 31, 1869. He claims that his wife has been guilty of gross neglect of duty. Two years ago she went to Illinois on a visit without the plaintiff's knowledge of her whereabouts or departure. Previous to this disappearance she had threatened to leave him and never return to his home again. Finally the husband found out where his wife was, wrote to her and persuaded her to come back.

Since then, he says, she frequently refused to cook for him, mend his clothing, do his washing or make his bed. In addition the wife soon afterwards went to Coshocton and remained away from home several days so that he had to do all the household work as well as his farm work.

On June 17, Mrs. Wright told her husband that she wanted to leave if he would give over her share of the furniture. They finally agreed on separation on the basis that he would give her $2,000 in cash. This he did and the separation took place. Now Mr. Wright desires to have the affair made complete by being granted a decree of divorce from his wife.

The troubles of the Wrights have occasioned a good deal of comment over in the cvmunity where they live. They are a prominent, well to do family and have many friends. They have four children, all grown, and several grand children."

Newspapers.com listed the following obituary for Susan McKee dated on December 28, 1942, in The Coshocton Tribune, Coshocton, Ohio:

"Mrs. Susan McKee Dies at her Home Near Frazeyburg

Mrs. Susan McKee, 87, who has been ill for a number of years, died at her home at Frazeyburg Route 1 at 1:15 p. m. Saturday. Mrs. McKee was seriously ill for three days preceding her death of complications.

Mrs. McKee was born May 31, 1855 at West Carlisle, the daughter of Mrs. and Mrs. William Wright. She was married to James Riley McKee who died in April, 1936.

Mrs. McKee leaves two sons, Arley McKee of Wakatomika and Lawrence McKee of the home. Another son, Joseph died in 1940.

Mrs. McKee, who is the last of a family of 12 children, was a member of the Mt. Pleasant Christian church.

Funeral services will be held Tuesday at 2 p. m. at the West Carlisle Presbyterian church, with the Rev. W. H. Koppert officiating. Burial will be at Frazeysburg. Friends may call at the Baughman funeral home."

As set forth above, Findagrave.com listed the joint gravestone of James Riley McKee and Susan McKee in Frazeysburg Cemetery, Frazeysburg, Muskingum County, Ohio.

(V) 1902 Lloyd Wright Of Greene County, Indiana,
His Wives Elizabeth (Clark) Wright, Nancy
Cathy (Meeks) Wright, And Sarah F. (Priest)
(Gee) (Hudson) Wright, And His Descendants
1902 Lloyd Wright of Greene County, Indiana, was a son of 1835 Edward Wright of Coshocton County, Ohio, and Elizabeth (Kay) Wright. (1657 Edward¹, 1695 John², 1752 John³, 1805 William⁴, 1835 Edward⁵)

The marriage record of Lloyd Wright and his first wife Elizabeth Clarke was dated on March 13, 1834, in Coshocton County, Ohio:

"247. Lloyd Wright To Elizabeth Clarke.

I do hereby certify that no the 13th day of Mach 1834 by virtue of a license from the Clerk of the Court of Common Pleas of Coshocton County Lloyd Wright and Elizabeth Clarke were legally joined in marriage by me a Justice of the Peace in and for said County aforesaid Apl. 21, 1834.

Danl. Forker J. P."

Marriages, Coshocton County, Ohio, 1811-1930, by Miriam C. Hunter, also listed the marriage of Lloyd Wright and Elizabeth Clarke on March 13, 1834, in Coshocton County, Ohio.

Findagrave.com listed the gravestone of Elizabeth Wright in Varner Cemetery, Licking County, Ohio:

"Elizabeth
Wife of
Lloyd Wright
[unreadable]"

Findagrave.com also listed the following for Elizabeth Clark Wright:

"Elizabeth Clark Wright

Birth	29 Jan 1810 USA
Death	25 May 1840 (aged 30) Licking County, Ohio, USA
Burial	Varner Cemetery Fallsbury Township, Licking County, Ohio, USA
Memorial ID	64472423

I realize that Elizabeth's death date is shown as May 25, 1842 on the marker, but she died from complications of Samuel's birth May 12, 1840. Lloyd was remarried to Nancy Cathy Meeks in 1841 and their first child was born May 17, 1842."

Lloyd Wright has not as yet been identified in the 1840 Census.

The marriage record Lloyd Wright and his second wife Nancy Cathy (Meeks) Wright has not as yet been found.

The 1850 Census for Greene County, Indiana, listed Floyd Wright with the following household on September 10, 1850:

This record indicates that Lloyd Wright was born in about 1815 and that Sarah F. (Preas) (Gee) (Hudson) Wright was born in about 1837.

In his Rootsweb posting dated January 13, 1999, Robert L. Jackson listed the following news article about Lloyd Wright dated on March 29, 1900, from The Bloomfield News:

"The Bloomfield Democrat, Floomfield, Greene County, Indiana, March 29, 1900, "Celebrates 87th Birthday."

Saturday March 18, friends and relatives number eighty-nine gathered at the home of Lloyd Wright to celebrate his eighty-seventh birthday. Uncle Lloyd, as he is familiarly known, was born in Virginia 1814, came to Indiana over fifty years ago, when it was inhabited by deer, bear, turkey and many other wild games. The writer failed to get accurate dates of his coming to this country, also dates of his marriages. He was married first to Elizabeth Clark and they lived happily together for eight years, when she left this earth to enter that home where happiness reigns forever. To this union was born six children, three of them are living and three of them have joined their mother. Uncle Lloyd being left with several small children, and much in need of a help-mate was in a short time married again, this time to Nancy Meeks. This this union was born twelve children. She was stricken with that dreaded disease consumption and medical aid failing her spirit returned to God who gave it. Uncle Lloyd was advanced in years and feeling the he need a companion to comfort him in his old days, was in a short time married again to Sarah Gee his present wife, although he is eighty-seven years old he can jump up and crack his feet together and informed the crowd that he could throw the best man there. The noon hour arriving, two large table were prepared and almost everything that one could wish for was placed on it to eat. After all had satisfied their hunger, the afternoon was spent in singing and listening to stories of Mr. Wright's young life. He is the father of eighteen children, has eighty-eight grandchildren, sixty-three great-grandchildren.

We would love to give a fuller biography of Mr. Wright but only being acquainted with him for a few years, without the aid of others who know more about his life we are unable to do so. We can say to our personal knowledge the few years we have known him, that he has been an honest, upright citizen, respected by all who know him. The crowd returned to their homes feeling that the day had been an enjoyable one and wishing him many more such happy birthdays.

M.M.A."

In his Rootsweb posting dated September 3, 1999, Robert L. Jackson listed the obituary of Samuel Wright, a son of Lloyd Wright, dated on May 14, 1925, from The Bloomfield News which stated that Samuel Wright was born on May 12, 1840, in Coshocton County, Ohio, indicating that Lloyd Wright resided in 1840 in Coshocton County, Ohio.

Findagrave.com included the following excerpt from Gone But Not Forgotten An Anthology of Fact and Folklore : a History of Walnut Grove and Surrounding Areas, by Mildred Uland and published in 1986:

"Lloyd Wright came from Chillicothe, Coshocton County, Ohio, about 1850. Many of the early settlers in this part of Greene County came from there. His first wife and two infants were buried there. He brought three children to Indiana with him: Martha (Page), Alex, 13 years old and Samuel, 10 years old.

At this time (1850) he bought land in Jackson Township on what we now call Dry Branch Road. This is a valley about three miles long with hills on each side. There isn't a lot of farming land but the early settlers weren't so much concerned about farming land. Their main concern was to settle where they could have good spring water.

Lloyd married Cathy Meek for his second wife and had 12 more children. Seven of them, when they married, built houses up and down the Branch - a few scattered out to the hills.

Lloyd was buried at Kentucky Ridge but five generations of his descendants are buried at Ashcraft Chapel. He had three children, 8 grandchildren, 4 great grandchildren, 2 great, great grandchildren and one great, great, great grandchild buried there.

One of Lloyd's great granddaughters still lives in part of his original log house on Dry Branch. She and her daughters are the only descendants still living on the Branch."

In his booklet Four Lloyd Wrights Of Coshocton County, Ohio, revised February 8, 1995, Howard L. Bowers stated as follows:

"Lloyd Wright No. 4

This Lloyd Wright was born in Virginia in 1814, the son of William Frederick Wright and Mary Elizabeth McKay of Patrick County, Virginia. Lloyd's brothers were Joshua, William, John, Joseph, Lewis, Edmund, Daniel and Alexander. Lloyd married (1) Elizabeth Clarke on 13 March 1834 in Coshocton County. Their children were: Mary (1835-1846), William (?-1848), Willis (?-1837), infant (1836), Alexander (1838-1913), Samuel (1840-1925) and Martha (1842-1925). Elizabeth died in 1842 and is buried in Varner Cemetery, Licking County (next to Coshocton County to the southwest) beside their son William. Lloyd married (2) Nancy Meek(s) about 1843 possibly in Licking County. Their children were: Mariah (1844), Elizabeth (1845-1875), Richard (1847-1919), David (1848-?), Louisa Jane (1850-?), Eliza (1852-?), Daniel (1854-1871), Harriet (1855-?), Mahala (1856-1927), Sarah Margaret (1860-?) and Adam (1864-?). They moved to Greene County, Indiana in 1848 where Lloyd died in 1902 and is buried in Pleasant Ridge Cemetery, Jackson Township."

In his email dated September 20, 2003, and his Rootsweb.com posting dated July 16, 2005, Jerry Jacobs enclosed a family group sheet which stated that Lloyd Wright was born on March 17, 1814, in Virginia, married first Elizabeth Clark on March 13, 1834, in Coshocton County, Ohio, married second Nancy Cathy Meeks in about 1843, married third Sarah F. Preas on April 30, 1878, in Greene County, Indiana, and died on January 10, 1902, in Koleon, Jackson Township, Greene County, Indiana, that Elizabeth (Clark) Wright was born on January 29, 1810, in Ohio, died in May 1842 in Ohio, and was buried in the Varner Cemetery, Fallsbury Township, Licking County, Ohio, that Nancy Cathy (Meeks) Wright was born in about 1818 in Ohio and died in November 1874, that Sarah F. (Priest) Wright was born in about 1839 in Kentucky, died on December 21, 1920, in Greene County, Indiana, and was buried in Taylor Township, Greene County, Indiana, and that Lloyd Wright and Elizabeth (Clark) Wright had the following children:

- 1) William Wright, born in 1836 in Ohio,
- 2) Alexander Wright, born on July 8, 1838, in Coshocton County, Ohio,
- 3) Samuel Wright, born on May 12, 1840, in Coshocton County, Ohio,
- 4) Mary Wright, born before 1842 in Ohio,
- 5) Willis Wright, born before 1842 in Ohio,
- 6) Martha (Wright) McBride, born on May 17, 1842, in Ohio, and that Lloyd Wright and Nancy Cathy (Meeks) Wright had the following children:

- 1) Mariah Francis (Wright) Hill, born on February 22, 1844, in Ohio,
- 2) Elizabeth (Wright) Fine, born on August 1, 1845, in Ohio,
- 3) Richard Wright, born on October 3, 1846 in Ohio,
- 4) David Wright, born in July 23, 1848, in Ohio,
- 5) Louisa Jane (Wright) Reed, born on March 25, 1850 in Indiana,
- 6) Eliza (Wright) Shrout, born in 1852 in Indiana,
- 7) Daniel B. Wright, born in 1854 in Indiana,
- 8) Harriet A. (Wright) Neldon, born in 1855 in Indiana,
- 9) Mahala (Wright) Hill, born in 1858 in Indiana,
- 10) Sarah Margaret (Wright) Page, born in March 1860 in Robison, Jackson Township, Greene County, Indiana, and
- 11) Adam Wright, born in about 1864 in Indiana.

From the evidence set forth above and additional evidence set forth below, the children of 1902 Lloyd Wright and Elizabeth (Clark) Wright were the following:

- 1) Mary Wright, born in about 1834 and before 1842 in Ohio,
 - 2) Willis Wright, born in about 1836 and before 1842 in Ohio,
 - 3) William Wright, born in about 1836 or in July 1837 in Ohio,
 - 4) Adam Wright, born in July 1837 in Ohio,
 - 5) Alexander Wright, born on July 8, 1838, in Coshocton County, Ohio,
 - 6) Samuel Wright, born on May 12, 1840, or in about 1841 in Coshocton County, Ohio,
 - 7) Martha (Wright) McBride, born on May 17, 1842, or in about 1843 in Ohio,
- and the children of 1902 Lloyd Wright and Nancy Cathy (Meeks) Wright were the following:

- 1) Mariah Francis (Wright) Hill, born on February 22, 1844, or in February 1845 in Ohio,
